Car Insurance Rates Taking Huge Jump

Injury, Property Damage Costs Increasing Feb. 15

Marin County auto insurance rates will take a whopping jump on Feb. 15 when bodily injury rates will be increased 21 per cent and property damage rates upped by 26 per cent.

The increase in rates was announced today by the National Automobile Underwriters Assn., and the National Bureau of Casualty Underwriters, groups which establish rates for about 200 major insurance companies.

Marin was hit harder than most areas in California because statistics show the accident rate "considerably worse than other rural county experience in northern California." The statewide average increase is only about nine per cent.

To ease the pain of higher rates, organized insurance firms came up with a "package deal" that will reduce the average rate by about 15 per cent.

DRIVING CHECK

In addition to jumping the premium charges, the industry announced that a three-year "experience period" will be used in place of the present two-year period.

This means that an applicant for a new or renewal policy will have his driving record check for the three years prior to his application. If his three-year driving record shows a record of accidents or driving convictions, the applicant is not eligible for "safe driver" reduced rates.

The package plan will be offered to the average Marin family at $94. Family rate policies now costing an average of $103, will jump to $114.

$25,000 LIMIT

The new package policy is offered with single limits of protection for bodily injury and property damage liability combined. A single limit of $25,000 would mean a ceiling of $25,000 for all claims resulting from any one accident, whether these claims are for injury to one or more persons or for property damage.

Under the package plan, the motoris may select any one of five combinations: (1) $25,000 liability and $1,000 medical expenses, (2) $50,000 liability and $2,000 medical, (3) $100,000 liability and $3,000 medical, (4) $200,000 liability and $4, medical, or (5) $300,000 liability and $5,000 medical.

Medical expense coverage provides for payment of hospital, medical, surgical and nursing expenses incurred by the insured, relatives who live in the household and guest passengers. The medical coverage only applies, however, to the extent these expenses are not covered by other forms of insurance or hospital plans. Thus, the insured cannot collect from the insurance company if he is covered under a private plan.

DEATH BENEFIT

The package includes $1,000 accidental death benefit if the insured or his wife dies as a result of an accident. It also includes protection up to $20,-

Offcials At San Quentin Are 'Stymied'

A widespread search for three escaped San Quentin convicts apparently led nowhere today.

"We have no positive leads at all," Associate Warden Dale B. Frady said. "We're stymied at the moment."

"There have been 101 tips from people who think they may have seen them," a Richmond police spokesman said. "But none seems to help us much."

The three men, described as dangerous, escaped from the prison Monday afternoon by concealing themselves inside a garbage truck.

The fled the truck after it crossed the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge on its way to a Richmond dump.

The convicts are Gray A. Cornell, 41, robber who had broken parole three times; Melvin L. Brigham, 29, robber, and Leonard L. Patton, 27, burglar and rapist.

The three, sentenced from Los Angeles, had served about

Shell Charges Nixon Forces Against Rules

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The contest for the Republican gubernatorial nomination appears to be getting hotter each day as Assembly GOP leader Joseph C. Shell and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon take to the stump.

Shell charged yesterday that Caspar Weinberger, the party's state vice chairman, is openly working for Nixon "contrary to the rules of the Republican primary."

He called Weinberger Nixon's "number one brainbuster."

Shell also criticized Nixon for the latter's use of a "spokesman" in reply to Shell's charges earlier this week that Nixon's campaign was employing "unethical practices."

Shell, a Los Angeles businessman, wanted to know if Nixon is "afraid of something," or if Nixon planned to "sneak" through the primary.

Nixon said in San Diego last night that he will not attack other members of his party in campaigning.

He has "nothing but the highest regard" for Shell, Nixon told about 1,000 persons at a San Diego reception.

Second Bridge Crossing Study Due In 1963

Final results of the half-million-dollar study of a second San Francisco-Marin County bridge will be completed in February, 1963, it was reported today at a press conference conducted by Assemblyman William T. Bagley (R-San Rafael) and Sen. J. Eugene McAteer (D-San Francisco) in the senator's office at the State Building in San Francisco.

Cost, and available resources for meeting the cost, will be the primary objectives of the later phase of investigations, Bagley and McAteer said.

Norman C. Raab, chief of the Division of San Francisco Bay Toll Crossings, said that an important factor in cost determination will be borings into the bay bottom at the points where piers are projected from the San Francisco downtown waterfront past Angel Island to the Tiburon Peninsula.

Efforts to come up with an estimate of what the total cost might be brought suggestion that present-day construction of the present Golden Gate Bridge would cost around 100 million dollars. McAteer observed that "the new bridge will be three times as long."

Bagley mentioned an impending Marin County public meeting to assemble Tiburon Peninsula sentiment, apparently solidly against a Tiburon bridge landing.

National Debt Hits New High

WASHINGTON (AP)—The national debt has risen above 298 billion dollars for the first time.

The Treasury said today the debt, as of last Friday, amounted to $298,049,359,273. The temporary debt limit of 298 billion dollars was not violated, however, because some 438 million of the debt is not subject to the ceiling.

A year ago, the debt stood at 291 billion dollars.

President John F. Kennedy has proposed lifting the temporary debt limit to 308 billion dollars.

MILD SPRING WEATHER DUE IN BAY AREA

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Mild spring weather with fair skies were forecast today and tomorrow in the bay area.

The weather bureau, in its five-day forecast, said no precipitation was likely through Monday. Temperatures during the period were expected to be above normal except for late in the period when cooler weather was predicted.

Highs in the bay area today were expected to range between 65 to 70 with lows tonight of 38 to 45 except in downtown San Francisco and Oakland where 52 was forecast. Cooler weather was predicted for tomorrow.

Jury Indicts Airmen For Check Kiting

A federal grand jury in San Francisco today indicted two Hamilton Air Force Base staff sergeants who allegedly converted a $118 paycheck into one for $11,800.

The two are Alexander A. Isele and Robert Shotter, both 34 and both assigned to Western Air Rescue headquarters at Hamilton.

According to Secret Service agents who arrested the pair last Friday night, Isele received a monthly pay check which was blank where $118 should have appeared as the amount, although a notation of that amount was in the upper left corner, the Associated Press reported.

Isele, the agents said, took the check to Shotter, who filled it in on a headquarters typewriter—for $11,800.

Isele then deposited the check in the Wells Fargo Bank in San Rafael. After his arrest, he was quoted as saying he used the money to buy two expensive cars, plus Christmas gifts, and sent part to a girl friend in New Jersey.

Negro Is Blocked For Housing Unit

Fusselman Employs Parliamentary Rule

Appointment of a Negro resident of Marin City to replace a Mill Valley contractor on the Marin County Housing Authority board was upset yesterday by a parliamentary maneuver.

County Supervisor Peter H. Behr proposed that James Quiett, treasurer of the Marin City Tenants Council, be appointed to the housing authority board to replace George C. Goheen, whose term expired last Friday.

The nomination was voted 3-to-1, with Supervisor William D. Fusselman opposing and Supervisor George Ludy absent.

Then Fusselman surprised his colleagues by first reversing his vote, to give 4-0 unanimity, then moving reconsideration.

"Robert's Rules of Order," in the hands of County Counsel E. Warren McGuire settled the issue later in the day. McGuire said the rules make clear that no second is required for a move to reconsider under such circumstances.

"The minority member changed to join the majority, then moved to reconsider, and as part of the majority he had this right," said McGuire.

This ruling meant that the appointment must come before the board again next Tuesday, when Ludy is expected to be present.

Ludy strongly objected to Behr's recent incursion into board policy on the proposed Point Reyes Peninsula National Seashore, saying "it's in my district," but Behr told him the issue went beyond district lines.

That is what Fusselman told Behr yesterday when Behr tried to stave off opposition by saying that Mill Valley and Marin City were in his district.

"I just think George Goheen is a fine man who should be kept," said Fusselman after the supervisors' session. Goheen is also on the Redevelopment Agency board, but his term there won't expire until April 17, 1963. The two boards now have identical membership.

Life-Termer 'Sings' At Dope Trial

Convicted Killer Tells Of Prison Smuggle Operation

By WAT TAKESHITA

A San Quentin life-termer, convicted of murder in Santa Clara County, continued to "sing" today in the San Quentin dope-smuggling trial in Marin Superior Court.

However, Robert T. Ballentine, 34, set his own tune in portions of his testimony, gingerly avoiding stepping on the toes of other San Quentin inmates who are not on trial.

The tall, balding convict talked freely about the parts played by four persons who are on trial for conspiracy to smuggle $18,000 worth of heroin and marijuana into the prison last year.

TELLS OF SOURCE

Ballentine told Judge N. Charles Brusatori and the jury of seven women and five men that Mrs. Pauline Herrera, 31, Los Angeles housewife, was the source of the heroin supply. Mrs. Anna Maria Kellam, 25, and Mrs. Marie Frances Hall, 47, of Hayward, took the narcotics into the prison, said Ballantine.

Ballentine named Clark McKeown, 29-year-old San Francisco robber, as the one who arranged for the drugs to be smuggled into prison. He said he gave some of the heroin to inmates Benjamin Gonzales, 28, and Richard Rodriquez, 34.

But Ballentine repeatedly "clammed up" when asked to name other convicts to whom he had given narcotics.

He said he received about $400 for one shipment of heroin.

'NOT ON TRIAL'

Of that amount, Gonzales gave him $185. When defense attorney Frank Duncan asked him where he got the rest of the $400, Ballentine snapped: "People who gave me the remaining money are not on trial here. I'm not going to give you their names."

Ballentine and McKeown are being held in Marin County Jail. McKeown was expected to take the witness stand later today.

Ballentine at one point indicated he feared retribution from San Quentin inmates because of his testimony in Marin Superior Court. He said he talked to Asst. Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales yesterday noon, and that Bales told him he would probably not face federal prosecution.

"I also asked him (Bales) if I could stay in county jail after the trial. He said I would not be going back to Tracy," said Ballentine.

Kennedy Says Space Program Made Big Gains

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy told Congress today the U.S. space program gained new impetus and breadth last year, but even greater strides must be made in the months and years ahead.

Reporting to Congress in accordance with the National Aeronautics and Space Act of 1958, Kennedy detailed activities of various government departments and agencies in the space field.

POLICY OBJECTIVE

During the last year, he said, major attention was devoted to establishing this country's policy objective of space leadership and accelerating efforts toward achieving that objective.

Kennedy recalled that he told Congress in a message May 25, 1961, that a leading role in space achievement may well hold the key to this country's future.

SKETCHES WORK

"That I reaffirm," he said.

Broadly sketching what has been done since to took office, Kennedy said: "Foremost was the national decision to land a team of U.S. explorers on the moon during the present decade—a goal previously contemplated for the mid-1970s. This objective, moreover, became part of a national space program composed of many basic projects. To carry out this national program effectively and efficiently the nation began marshaling scientific, technical, and physical resources."

Primarily for the lunar project, but also for space missions, Kennedy said, actions to achieve far greater rocket thrusts and to build larger space craft were undertaken.

Stolen Coins Net Jail Term

Ex-convict Joe Junior Johnson, 33, who was caught in San Rafael with bags full of coins stolen from parking meters, must spend one year in county jail and remain on two years probation.

Judge Thomas F. Keating sentenced him today for stealing meter coins last Nov. 24. Johnson has served a San Quentin term for grand theft in San Mateo County in 1955.

After serving his county jail term, if Johnson violates any terms of his probation, he has a prison sentence hanging over his head.

HUSH-HUSH MEETING?

France, Rebels In Algeria Reported Near Peace Pact

PARIS (AP)—France's capital buzzed today with reports that President Charles de Gaulle's government and the Algerian rebels are near agreement—or have reached one — on a cease-fire and independence in the war-torn North African territory.

The Geneva correspondent of the Belgian radio, quoting an authoritative North African source, said complete agreement on an Algerian settlement had been reached at a secret meeting in Vevey, Switzerland.

Paris newspaper last night carried prominent stories that an agreement was near, and various sources in Paris had the impression crucial developments on Algeria would come this week.

There was no official confirmation of the various peace agreement reports, and none was expected from French officials before Monday night. If agreement has been reached, President de Gaulle presumably will announce it in a radio-TV speech scheduled then.

Several developments gave substance to the reports of an impending climax in the Algerian drama.

Late last night the French army rolled strong detachments of troops and armored cars into the center of Algiers. Any announcement of an accord with the rebel National Liberation Front (FLN) is expected to infuriate the right-wing settlers of Algeria and their extremist Secret Army Organization which is waging a campaign of terrorism to keep Algeria French. A general uprising by Algeria's European population is a possibility.

To guard against any attempt at a putsch in Paris itself the government announced 30 squadrons of mobile gendarmes totaling more than 4,000 men, had been placed in a police "strategic reserve" in the Paris region.

On the rebel side, Foreign Minister Saad Dalhab left Morocco four days ago and has not yet been reported in Tunis. This could mean that Dalhab, one of the FLN negotiators, had stopped in Switzerland for a decisive meeting with French representatives.

The Paris newspapers Le Monde, Paris-Presse and France-Soir published what they said were details of the French-Algerian negotiations. Paris-Presse said only one major point remained — the nationality status of Europeans in Algeria after independence. The stories all appeared to have come from the same source, apparently French official circles.

Congress Gets New Kennedy Farm Program

Little Change Seen Now For Retail Prices

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President John F. Kennedy's proposed new farm program probably will have little, if any, immediate effect on retail food prices, an administration source predicted today.

Later, however, the new administration plan which Kennedy sent to Congress today might produce some increases in the prices consumers pay for meat, poultry, and other livestock products.

The president's message said his program was aimed at, among other things, production of food and fiber "at reasonable prices" in amounts large enough to meet domestic and foreign needs.

RICH BENEFITS

Kennedy noted that consumers already have reaped rich benefits in the form of low prices produced by increasing farm productivity.

"We spend less than 20 per cent of our income on food; the western European spends between 30 to 50 per cent of his income on food; and the Russian uses 60 per cent," the president said.

Another administration source said consumer prices probably would remain relatively steady. It was hard to be precise, he said. In 1961, this source said, retail prices held steady while net farm income rose. In 1962, some small increase in retail prices is expected while farm income probably will remain at last year's level.

Agriculture Secretary Orville L. Freeman, in a statement accompanying Kennedy's message, explained why prices of livestock foods may gain "some modest strength" in years ahead.

Corn and other feed grains are the basic raw materials in producing meats and other livestock products. Freeman said that under proposed new grain porduction control programs, actual market prices of feed grains would rise "at least" to the current federal price support levels.

CORN PRICES

On Jan. 15 of this year, farmer prices for corn averaged about 95 cents per bushel on open-market sales while the government rate to growers eligible for price supports was at a national average of $1.20.

The higher price and reduced supplies of feed grains will lead to improved prices for livestock, Freeman said.

There was another hint in Freeman's statement, however, that any increases in overall farm price levels—and, by implication, food prices—would be modest and slow in coming.

Freeman said that for the next three to five years it would be difficult to raise farm income over 1961 levels while moving the government's stock of farm surpluses to market. He said farm program objectives would include improved income and "a slow but steady closing of the gap between farm and nonfarm standards of living."

Gizenga Health Good

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (UPI)—Retiring U.N. Congo civilian chief Sture Linner has seen deposed Stanleyville "strongman" Antoine Gizenga and found him in good health, a U.N. spokesman said today.

Linner visited Gizenga last night in an army camp near here where he is under the "protection" of central government paratroopers.

He was brought here from Stanleyville after being captured Jan. 14, following a battle between Congolese troops and his own gendarmes.

Pyle Stories For TV

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Pulitzer prize tales of U.S. G.I.s written by Ernie Pyle in World War II will be used as the basis for a series of TV plays, it was announced yesterday.

Hollywood film producer Lester Cowan said the series, called "Brave Men," will be taken from five years of daily newspaper columns written by Pyle in all major theaters of war.

Unemployment Down

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Joblessness dipped below 6 per cent of the nation's labor force in January for the first time in 16 months, Labor Secretary Arthur J. Goldberg announced today.

Goldberg said the encouraging economic factor came about even though unemployment increased by 572,000 for the month to 4,663,000. This is less of a climb than usual for January.

Because of the less-than-usual increase, the seasonally adjusted rate of unemployment fell from 6.1 to 5.8 per cent.

Welch Won't Talk

BELMONT, Mass. (UPI)—Robert Welch, founder of the John Birch Society, has refused comment on a federal official's request that he disclose the names of alleged Communists in government.

Through a spokesman, Welch said he would have "no comment whatsoever" on the request made by Asst. Atty. Gen. J. Walter Yeagley, chief of the department's internal security section.

Yeagley's request came after a recent Welch speech in which he said a large number of reds were concentrated in "key departments." Yeagley suggested he turn over his information to the FBI.

U.S. Milk Normal

NEW DELHI (AP)—A sample of American-donated milk has been found normal by a Madras state-government analyst.

Three students died last week and others became ill after eating a free lunch including curds made from the powder. The powder, from American surplus stocks, is supplied by the Cooperative for American Relief Everywhere (CARE).

Tests are continuing to determine the cause of the deaths.

Alaska Volcano

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (UPI)—An active volcano was reported twice the past week on Kiska Island, 1,250 miles southwest of here, near the end of the Aleutian Island chain.

Both reports came from fliers. One said the eruption apparently was near sea level at Sirius Point, with flames spouting 300 feet into the air and lava running into the sea.

Indonesia Volunteers

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—A first group of 10,000 volunteers has been whipped into shape and is ready "on short notice" to be sent to disputed West New Guinea a high Indonesian official said yesterday.

The navy said its patrols have been ordered to take the offensive against any Dutch warships that "stray into Indonesian territorial waters." It said the patrols have orders to shoot first.

The statements coincided with one from President Sukarno that Indonesia is not going to wait indefinitely for a negotiated settlement of its dispute with the Netherlands over the jungle territory.

Space Sessions Due

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The 24-nation U.N. committee on the peaceful uses of outer space seems likely to convene March 5 to tackle its backlog of work.

Diplomatic sources said nearly all committee members had agreed to a meeting that day, but that Soviet delegate Valerian A. Zorin was still waiting to hear if his government would agree.

The committee, set up by the 1959 General Assembly, has done little to carry out the work of promoting international cooperation in space research that was given to it by 1959 and 1961 assembly resolutions. It was hampered by a Communist boycott that ended only last November.

Heart Mother

SEATTLE (AP)—The American Heart Assn. has chosen Mrs. Thomas E. Fleming III of Seattle as Heart Mother of the Year.

Mrs. Fleming, 27, underwent open heart surgery during pregnancy in 1958.

She has had three children since surgeons stopped her heart 18 minutes to correct a congenital abnormality.

The unborn child was the first to be nourished with donated blood fed by a heart-lung machine. The child was born in good health five months after Mrs. Fleming's operation but died of pneumonia unrelated to the surgery.

Cold Air In East

A blast of cold air enveloped most of the eastern half of the nation today, marking the end of a frigid month in many sections.

As the cold air moved southward, light snow fell in most of Kentucky, in West Virginia and coastal sections of Virginia and North Carolina.

Russ Are Given Setbacks In U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI)—Western diplomats drew encouragement today from three parliamentary rebuffs to the Soviet Union by the Security Council and General Assembly.

The assembly late yesterday removed from a 45-power resolution on Portuguese Angola a provision for an investigating commission to report to the newly established 17-nation committee on colonialism — a pet project of the Soviet Union.

Earlier yesterday, the Security Council voted 7-2 to adjourn without taking up Russia's request for a new debate on the Congo.

The Kremlin took a third setback when council president Sir Patrick Dean of Britain summoned the 11-nation group to meet tomorrow to consider the Kashmir dispute between India and Pakistan. Russia and Romania, supporting India's opposition to such a meeting now, offered stiff objections to Dean's call.

The assembly, returning a 99-2 vote for a relatively mild resolution asking Portugal to ease its Angolan policy, adjourned for the rest of the week.

Its 104-nation main political committee will meet next Monday to take up Cuba's complaint of "aggression" by the United States.

Debate on the Cuban complaint had been expected to follow the Angola discussion immediately. But committee chairman Mario Amadeo of Argentina fixed next Monday at Cuba's request.

The Cubans wanted the results of the hemispheric meeting at Punta Del Este, Uruguay, clearly established before launching an anti-American attack here. The Castro government's strategy appeared to envisage a one-two punch — first at Punta del Este and then at the United Nations.

The assembly's trusteeship committee scheduled two sessions today in its debate on the Belgian trust territory of Ruanda-Urundi.

The way was open to Soviet Ambassador Valerian A. Zorin to resubmit his request for a full council debate on the Congo. U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson, moving yesterday's postponement, pointed out that such a debate now was opposed by Congolese Premier Cyrille Adoula and by African leaders in conference at Lagos, Nigeria.

Retired Persons Unit Address Set Saturday

Nettie Shaver, president of the Marin chapter of Retired Teachers, will address the Marin chapter of the American Assn. of Retired Persons at its meeting at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the First Methodist Church in San Rafael, Mrs. Morcecai, president, announced today.

Mrs. Shaver will speak on coordination of all organizations interested in benefits for retired persons.

The Bay Area Urban League will receive $17,469 more this year from the United Crusade to increase its services to Negroes in Marin and four other counties as result of the United Crusade's reaching its goal, Burnham Enersen, crusade president, announced today.

He said the Urban League will receive $57,948 for its 1962 work in Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, San Francisco and San Mateo counties.

SIX NATIONS GIVE LATIN POLICY BLOW

But Uruguay Conference Accomplishes Denunciation Of Reds In Hemisphere

PUNTA DEL ESTE, Uruguay (AP)—Twenty American nations unanimously condemned Cuba's Communist regime today, but the United States could muster only the necessary two-thirds majority for the vote directing the speedy expulsion of Prime Minister Fidel Castro's regime from the councils of the inter-American family.

The biggest and most powerful nations in Latin America jarred the United States by refusing to vote for the expulsion "without delay" of the Castro government from the Organization of American States and its various agencies. The vote was 14-1, with Cuba voting no and the go-slow bloc of Brazil, Argentina, Chile, Mexico, Bolivia and Ecuador abstaining.

The consensus at this hemispheric foreign ministers' conference was that the six nations had given the Kennedy administration's Latin-American policy a severe blow.

The blow was softened somewhat when the United States' Latin-American allies solidly adopted a ringing declaration that Cuba's Marxist-Leninist government is incompatible with the inter-American system and Cuba's alignment with the Soviet bloc breaks hemispheric unity.

The foreign ministers, with the exception of Cuba, also lined up unanimously with the United States on three other resolutions that provided:

1. The most stinging denunciation of Communist intrusion in the Western world ever adopted by any inter-American body.

2. The expulsion of Cuba from the Inter-American Defense Board. This was little more than a formality since the Castro government has been barred from the board's sensitive deliberations for the last 10 months.

3. A ringing endorsement of President Kennedy's Alliance for Progress program. The Latin Americans called the program the foundation for their nations' economic and social development on a self-help basis and the best weapon with which to combat communism and Castroite influences.

An embargo on arms trade between Cuba and the OAS members was carried 16-1, with Cuba voting no and Brazil, Chile, Ecuador and Bolivia abstaining.

A resolution calling for defense against international communism was approved 19-1, with Cuba voting against and Bolivia abstaining. The resolution asks the OAS "to maintain all vigilance necessary" to prevent aggression, subversion or other dangers to peace and security and directs the OAS to create a special consultation committee to aid those nations which request assistance on security problems.

RAY ROBERTS
Victory in Texas

Ray Roberts Will Succeed Sam Rayburn

SHERMAN, Tex. (AP) — Ray Roberts, a merchant and president pro tem of the Texas Senate, has won the U.S. House seat of his political mentor, the late Sam Rayburn.

The 48-year-old Democrat, jubilant almost to the point of tears, said he was succeeding "the greatest man who ever lived." He promptly telephoned Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, long a political associate, and arranged a victory meeting in Washington Monday.

Roberts defeated Robert C. (Bob) Slagle in yesterday's runoff election in Texas' 4th congressional district, represented by Rayburn for 48 years.

When the vote count ended last night Roberts held an insurmountable lead of 16,047 to 13,302 and Slagle had conceded.

Both Roberts and Slagle were proteges of Rayburn and both described themselves as supporters of the Kennedy administration, although Roberts was regarded as more conservative.

Roberts has expressed opposition to federal aid to education and to U.S. aid to any Communist country. But, he says, "I'm a lifelong Democrat without adjectives or apologies."

The new congressman worked for Johnson when the vice president was state director of the National Youth Administration during the Franklin D. Roosevelt era. Later, both went to Washington, Roberts as an aide to Rayburn and Johnson as a member of the House.

Roberts campaigned while serving in the state Senate at Austin.

Fuel Leak Puts Off Orbit Shot 13 Days

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—John H. Glenn Jr. now must wait at least 13 more days for his historic date with the heavens because of troubles with the Atlas rocket which is to loft him into orbit around the earth.

The problem turned up yesterday during a fueling test of the Atlas, and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced the oft-postponed launching was off until Feb. 13 at the earliest.

High-powered kerosene was being poured into the rocket as preparations were under way to start the final two-day countdown aimed at a Thursday morning launching. A leak developed in the fueling system and the kerosene spilled over onto vital parts of the missile.

Glenn, according to a NASA spokesman, accepted the sixth postponement of the launching with a shrug.

The Atlas trouble is believed to be the same which caused a four-day postponement last week of the Ranger 3 moon shot.

A giant fleet of 24 Navy ships was recalled from recovery operations. They were spread across the Atlantic Ocean, ready to retrieve Glenn and his capsule.

HUSH-HUSH MEETING?

France, Rebels In Algeria Reported Near Peace Pact

PARIS (AP)—France's capital buzzed today with reports that President Charles de Gaulle's government and the Algerian rebels are near agreement—or have reached one — on a cease-fire and independence in the war-torn North African territory.

The Geneva correspondent of the Belgian radio, quoting an authoritative North African source, said complete agreement on an Algerian settlement had been reached at a secret meeting in Vevey, Switzerland.

Congress Gets New Kennedy Farm Program

Little Change Seen Now For Retail Prices

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President John F. Kennedy's proposed new farm program probably will have little, if any, immediate effect on retail food prices, an administration source predicted today.

Later, however, the new administration plan which Kennedy sent to Congress today might produce some increases in the prices consumers pay for meat, poultry, and other livestock products.

The president's message said his program was aimed at, among other things, production of food and fiber "at reasonable prices" in amounts large enough to meet domestic and foreign needs.

RICH BENEFITS

Kennedy noted that consumers already have reaped rich benefits in the form of low prices produced by increasing farm productivity.

"We spend less than 20 per cent of our income on food; the western European spends between 30 to 50 per cent of his income on food; and the Russian uses 60 per cent," the president said.

Another administration source said consumer prices probably would remain relatively steady. It was hard to be precise, he said. In 1961, this source said, retail prices held steady while net farm income rose. In 1962, some small increase in retail prices is expected while farm income probably will remain at last year's level.

Agriculture Secretary Orville L. Freeman, in a statement accompanying Kennedy's message, explained why prices of livestock foods may gain "some modest strength" in years ahead.

Corn and other feed grains are the basic raw materials in producing meats and other livestock products. Freeman said that under proposed new grain porduction control programs, actual market prices of feed grains would rise "at least" to the current federal price support levels.

CORN PRICES

On Jan. 15 of this year, farmer prices for corn averaged about 95 cents per bushel on open-market sales while the government rate to growers eligible for price supports was at a national average of $1.20.

The higher price and reduced supplies of feed grains will lead to improved prices for livestock, Freeman said.

There was another hint in Freeman's statement, however, that any increases in overall farm price levels—and, by implication, food prices—would be modest and slow in coming.

Freeman said that for the next three to five years it would be difficult to raise farm income over 1961 levels while moving the government's stock of farm surpluses to market. He said farm program objectives would include improved income and "a slow but steady closing of the gap between farm and nonfarm standards of living."

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Pulitzer prize tales of U.S. G.I.s written by Ernie Pyle in World War II will be used as the basis for a series of TV plays, it was announced yesterday.

Unemployment Down

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Joblessness dipped below 6 per cent of the nation's labor force in January for the first time in 16 months, Labor Secretary Arthur J. Goldberg announced today.

Goldberg said the encouraging economic factor came about even though unemployment increased by 572,000 for the month to 4,663,000. This is less of a climb than usual for January.

Because of the less-than-usual increase, the seasonally adjusted rate of unemployment fell from 6.1 to 5.8 per cent.

Welch Won't Talk

BELMONT, Mass. (UPI)—Robert Welch, founder of the John Birch Society, has refused comment on a federal official's request that he disclose the names of alleged Communists in government.

Through a spokesman, Welch said he would have "no comment whatsoever" on the request made by Asst. Atty. Gen. J. Walter Yeagley, chief of the department's internal security section.

Yeagley's request came after a recent Welch speech in which he said a large number of reds were concentrated in "key departments." Yeagley suggested he turn over his information to the FBI.

U.S. Milk Normal

NEW DELHI (AP)—A sample of American-donated milk has been found normal by a Madras state-government analyst.

Three students died last week and others became ill after eating a free lunch including curds made from the powder. The powder, from American surplus stocks, is supplied by the Cooperative for American Relief Everywhere (CARE).

Tests are continuing to determine the cause of the deaths.

Alaska Volcano

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (UPI)—An active volcano was reported twice the past week on Kiska Island, 1,250 miles southwest of here, near the end of the Aleutian Island chain.

Both reports came from fliers. One said the eruption apparently was near sea level at Sirius Point, with flames spouting 300 feet into the air and lava running into the sea.

Indonesia Volunteers

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—A first group of 10,000 volunteers has been whipped into shape and is ready "on short notice" to be sent to disputed West New Guinea a high Indonesian official said yesterday.

The navy said its patrols have been ordered to take the offensive against any Dutch warships that "stray into Indonesian territorial waters." It said the patrols have orders to shoot first.

The statements coincided with one from President Sukarno that Indonesia is not going to wait indefinitely for a negotiated settlement of its dispute with the Netherlands over the jungle territory.

Space Sessions Due

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The 24-nation U.N. committee on the peaceful uses of outer space seems likely to convene March 5 to tackle its backlog of work.

Diplomatic sources said nearly all committee members had agreed to a meeting that day, but that Soviet delegate Valerian A. Zorin was still waiting to hear if his government would agree.

The committee, set up by the 1959 General Assembly, has done little to carry out the work of promoting international cooperation in space research that was given to it by 1959 and 1961 assembly resolutions. It was hampered by a Communist boycott that ended only last November.

Heart Mother

SEATTLE (AP)—The American Heart Assn. has chosen Mrs. Thomas E. Fleming III of Seattle as Heart Mother of the Year.

Mrs. Fleming, 27, underwent open heart surgery during pregnancy in 1958.

She has had three children since surgeons stopped her heart 18 minutes to correct a congenital abnormality.

The unborn child was the first to be nourished with donated blood fed by a heart-lung machine. The child was born in good health five months after Mrs. Fleming's operation but died of pneumonia unrelated to the surgery.

Cold Air In East

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

A blast of cold air enveloped most of the eastern half of the nation today, marking the end of a frigid month in many sections.

As the cold air moved southward, light snow fell in most of Kentucky, in West Virginia and coastal sections of Virginia and North Carolina.

Adenauer Well

BONN, Germany (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer has recovered from his spell of the grippe and will return to work tomorrow, the government press office announced. Adenauer, now 86, has been ill at home for the past 12 days.

Russ Are Given Setbacks In U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI)—Western diplomats drew encouragement today from three parliamentary rebuffs to the Soviet Union by the Security Council and General Assembly.

The assembly late yesterday removed from a 45-power resolution on Portuguese Angola a provision for an investigating commission to report to the newly established 17-nation committee on colonialism — a pet project of the Soviet Union.

Earlier yesterday, the Security Council voted 7-2 to adjourn without taking up Russia's request for a new debate on the Congo.

The Kremlin took a third setback when council president Sir Patrick Dean of Britain summoned the 11-nation group to meet tomorrow to consider the Kashmir dispute between India and Pakistan. Russia and Romania, supporting India's opposition to such a meeting now, offered stiff objections to Dean's call.

The assembly, returning a 99-2 vote for a relatively mild resolution asking Portugal to ease its Angolan policy, adjourned for the rest of the week.

Its 104-nation main political committee will meet next Monday to take up Cuba's complaint of "aggression" by the United States.

Debate on the Cuban complaint had been expected to follow the Angola discussion immediately. But committee chairman Mario Amadeo of Argentina fixed next Monday at Cuba's request.

The Cubans wanted the results of the hemispheric meeting at Punta Del Este, Uruguay, clearly established before launching an anti-American attack here. The Castro government's strategy appeared to envisage a one-two punch — first at Punta del Este and then at the United Nations.

The assembly's trusteeship committee scheduled two sessions today in its debate on the Belgian trust territory of Ruanda-Urundi.

The way was open to Soviet Ambassador Valerian A. Zorin to resubmit his request for a full council debate on the Congo. U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson, moving yesterday's postponement, pointed out that such a debate now was opposed by Congolese Premier Cyrille Adoula and by African leaders in conference at Lagos, Nigeria.

Retired Persons Unit Address Set Saturday

Nettie Shaver, president of the Marin chapter of Retired Teachers, will address the Marin chapter of the American Assn. of Retired Persons at its meeting at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the First Methodist Church in San Rafael, Mrs. Morcecai, president, announced today.

Mrs. Shaver will speak on coordination of all organizations interested in benefits for retired persons.

George (Duffy) Lewis, traveling secretary for the Milwaukee Braves, batted .284 during his 11 seasons as an outfielder in the American League.

More Funds Are Due Bay Urban League

The Bay Area Urban League will receive $17,469 more this year from the United Crusade to increase its services to Negroes in Marin and four other counties as result of the United Crusade's reaching its goal, Burnham Enersen, crusade president, announced today.

He said the Urban League will receive $57,948 for its 1962 work in Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, San Francisco and San Mateo counties.

San Rafael Planners Pass 13-Unit Apartment Addition

After grumbling by Commissioner Charles Hendrickson that the action would make parking more difficult, the San Rafael Planning Commission late yesterday gave architectural approval to a 13-unit addition to the 65-unit Tropicana Apartments on Bayo Vista Way.

The vote was unanimous. Hendrickson complained that present city ordinances prevented the commission from blocking the development as submitted. Paul Sade is developer and Hal Lezzeni is designer of the addition.

"He couldn't be content with building 10 or 11 units and leave more parking space for fire trucks and delivery vehicles as well as residents and visitors," said Hendrickson. "He had to use every available inch."

Near the close of the session Hendrickson teed off on developers again, saying some would like to erect buildings to whatever heights they could "and to hell with the city."

His comment was delivered just before the commission voted to delay setting a hearing on raising building height limits in the business district, pending further study.

Hearings on a proposed zoning change regarding offstreet parking in multiple residential districts were set for Feb. 27 and March 13.

Commissioners Elmer Welcher and Orlando Conti were absent.

In other actions the San Rafael Planning Commission:

1. Granted Ruben Kahler and Jack Farrar a variance for density of 1,375 square feet per dwelling unit, instead of the required 1,500, for four lots between Sonoma and Fairfax Streets southwest of Canal Street, provided driveways conform to city standards and all residents have access in perpetuity to all the driveway easements.

2. Approved a tentative map for subdivision of the same area, subject to city engineer's approval.

3. Approved application by Ted Gibson for subdivision of 49.79 acres between Bret Harte Road and Irwin Street, subject to city engineer's approval of plan to make 250 by 153-foot area available for roadway access to certain parcels.

4. Put over to Feb. 13 action on Stanley Downie's application for subdivision of 15.811 acres between Bret Harte and M'Liss Lane.

5. Delayed until Feb. 13 action on a use permit for a directional sign for Tropicana Apartments. Assistant Planner Joan Castrillon said "the sign is already up."

6. Delayed until Feb. 13 action on city council request for commission recommendations on zoning of city-owned surplus property at Fourth and Union Streets.

JUVENILE HALL 'BREAK-IN'

David Fogel, Marin County Juvenile Hall superintendent, questions a gray Australian shepherd named Clyde as to how he sneaks inside the hall despite locked gates and a constant check on fences. The dog first appeared at the hall last Friday and was immediately tossed out. The in-again, out-again process has been repeated almost daily since, with Clyde ejected each time he is caught playing with the youngsters. Fogel and staff of sleuths suspect Clyde's break-ins are an "inside job." (Independent-Journal photo)

Driver's Leg Is Crushed As Tractor Rolls

A tractor rolled over three times near Reed School today, crushing the driver's leg on the last tumble, Sheriff's Sgt. Guy V. Gibbs reported.

Victim is Hal Martin, 55, of 404 San Francisco Boulevard, San Anselmo, who works for Paradise Engineering Co. of Corte Madera. He suffered a compound fracture of the right ankle and was in the operating room at Marin General Hospital most of the morning. Hospital officials said his condition appeared "fair to good."

The mishap occurred about 9:15 a.m. as Martin was working near Reed School in Tiburon, cutting a roadway. Sergeant Gibbs said the edge of the roadway must have given way.

Fine, Probation In Decency Case

A young Novato astronomer, accused of exposing himself to Loma Verde school children last December, must pay $157.50 fine and remain on three years supervised probation for outraging public decency.

Oran Richard Norton, 24, pleaded guilty to the charge yesterday and was sentenced by Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Municipal Court. The judge also ordered Norton to seek and take psychiatric treatment, as recommended by the probation officer.

Norton, who worked at Morrison Planetarium in San Francisco, was arrested by Marin sheriff's deputies in his small foreign car. Investigators said he stopped at a school bus stop and exposed himself while sitting in his car.

Officers Elected By Credit Union

Charles Leone was elected new president of the I-J Federal Credit Union at the annual meeting last night at the Country Club Bowl, San Rafael.

Other officers chosen were Richard Foote, vice president; William Wong, re-elected treasurer; Ethel Schwab, secretary; Morris Dahl, director, all comprising the board of directors.

Two committees were chosen as follows: Credit, Dorothy Mast, chairman, Al Todaro and Richard Corder; supervisory, Donald Lethbridge, chairman, Larry Hetterly and Russell Stahl.

The credit union is composed of employees of the Independent-Journal.

Warren Jr. Says Switch For Brown

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Earl Warren Jr. switched his political registration from Republican to Democratic today. He said he timed the change so he can work for the re-election of Gov. Edmund G. Brown and other Democrats in the coming California campaign.

Warren, attorney-son of the Chief Justice of the United States, said he's not thinking now about running for public office. But he said he plans to become active in Democratic Party affairs.

Warren made the change on his 32nd birthday.

Nigerian Named Fighter Of Month By Ring Magazine

NEW YORK (AP) — Dick Tiger's knockout triumph over Cuba's Florentino Fernandez has earned the Nigerian the "fighter of the month" award from Ring magazine and a boost in the middleweight rankings.

The British empire 160-pound champion was elevated over Paul Pender, former middleweight champion from Brookline, Mass., to the No. 2 contender's position. Pender was dropped to third.

Ring recognizes England's Terry Downes as world champion. Gene Fullmer, the NBA middleweight king from West Jordan, Utah, is the No. 1 contender in the monthly ratings released today.

Eder Jofre of Brazil settled the dispute over the bantamweight title by knocking out Johnny Caldwell of Ireland. Caldwell was dropped a notch and now ranks as the No. 2 contender behind Mexico's Joe Medel.

San Jose State Player To Bears

CHICAGO (AP)—Defensive end Jim Cadile of San Jose State has been signed by the Chicago Bears, the club said today. The 240-pounder was the Bears No. 4 pick in the National Football League player draft.

"Cadile was one of the prize rookies selected in the American Football League's secret draft ruled illegal by commissioner Joe Foss," said owner-coach George Halas of the Bears.

"The San Diego Chargers reportedly signed Cadile, but he returned his bonus money followign Foss' ruling. He was selected by Oakland in the legal AFL draft."

Comptroller Nomination Sent Senate

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President John F. Kennedy sent to the Senate today his nomination of James J. Saxon as comptroller of currency.

Saxon has been serving in the post under a recess appointment since last Nov. 14. He succeeded Ray M. Gidney, an Eisenhower administration holdover who resigned as a result of a dispute with Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy over Gidney's approval of a number of bank mergers.

This is the second time the president has submitted Saxon's nomination for Senate confirmation. He sought last Sept. 20 to name him to replace Gidney but had to withdraw the nomination within a few hours because Gidney's term was not due to expire until this year.

Architect Is Moving From Marin

San Anselmo architect Adrian H. Malone and family are leaving Marin for a new home in the wide open spaces of Wyoming.

Malone, of 100 Spring Grove Avenue, is now in Sheridan, Wyo., looking over the town of 11,650 where he and his wife, Joan, and four children, Judy, 21; Sara, 19; Nicholas, 16; and Gillian,, 11, will live after March 1.

After 12 years of success as a Bay Area architect, Marlone said he was moving simply because "I like the country." He said the rugged frontier offered a new way of living.

He added that he felt, through his architecture, he could make a real contribution to the area.

The family, however, is leaving themselves a loophole — just in case the wilds are too wild. They are renting, not selling, their Marin home.

The architectural firm, formerly known as Malone and Hooper, will be carried on by his partner, Roger Hooper of Ross. The switchboard girl at the San Francisco office now answers: "Roger Hooper and Associates."

000 for bodily injury caused by an uninsured driver.

Under the package, the insured is not covered while driving someone else's car, as is the case under the family plan. The $25,000 package qualifies as evidence of financial responsibility under the law. The policy applies only to private cars and station wagons, including pickup trucks not used for business purposes.

(A spokesman for Allstate Insurance Companies, one of the independent firms which files its own rates, said the announcement would not immediately affect its rates)

For purposes of setting rates, Marin County was formerly lumped with several other rural counties, a spokesman for the Insurance Information Institute said. Under the new plan, the county is rated individually, causing the high-rate of increase. The remainder of the areas formerly linked with Marin were increased only by about 10 per cent.

In other areas, the family rates (which includes $10,000 and $20,000 liability, medical, comprehensive and $100 deductible with no male driver under 25) and package rates were set at:

San Francisco—present family rate, $163; new rate, $169; package $146.

Oakland metropolitan, including Berkeley—present family rate, $120; new, $123; package, $102.

Contra Costa County—present family rate, $111; new, $116; package, $96.

OBITUARIES

Mother Of Judge Haley Dies At 84

Sabina A. Haley, 84, member of an early day San Rafael family, died today in a local hospital.

She was the mother of Marin Municipal Court Judge Harold J. Haley.

Until she became ill two weeks ago, Mrs. Haley had lived most of her life at the family home at 611 B Street, which her father, James Kenny, bought nearly 75 years ago.

She was born in Mark West Springs, Sonoma County. The family moved to Marin County when she was a small girl. Her father came to California from Ireland and was a section boss for forerunners of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad.

She married D. J. Haley, a San Rafael butcher, in the early 1900s. Haley died in 1941.

Mrs. Haley was the last living child of the Kenny family, which included her sister and three brothers.

Mrs. Haley leaves three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael.

LOUELLA JOHNSON

Funeral services for Mrs. Louella Johnson, former longtime San Rafael resident, will be held at 1 p.m. tomorrow at Julius S. Godeau Funeral Home, 41 Van Ness Avenue, San Francisco. Inurnment will be at Cypress Lawn Mausoleum, Colma.

Mrs. Johnson died yesterday in San Francisco after an illness.

Before moving to San Francisco, she resided for many years at 2038 Fourth Street in San Rafael.

She is survived by her husband, Leo, a retired federal civil service employee.

EMILY TAYLOR

Funeral services for Emily L. Taylor, former longtime San Rafael resident, will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at Harry M. Williams Mortuary in San Rafael.

Miss Taylor died Tuesday in a San Francisco rest home after long illness.

She had resided in San Francisco for about 25 years. Previously she made her home in San Rafael, where she was born, daughter of the late Daniel T. and Elizabeth A. Taylor. Her father was one of a group from Maryland who started a sawmill in Larkspur's Baltimore Canyon in Marin County's pioneer days.

Miss Taylor retained membership in St. Paul's Episcopal Church in San Rafael during her San Francisco residence.

Until her retirement 30 years ago, she was for many years supervisor of the telephone department of Wells Fargo Bank in San Francisco.

Her nearest surviving relatives are nieces and nephews.

CHARLES DUTTON

Charles E. Dutton, a retired cabinet maker and resident of Kentfield for 16 years, died yesterday in a local hospital after suffering a heart attack. He was 64.

A native of California, Dutton lived at 1031 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

He leaves his wife, Mildred, a cook at Ross General Hospital; two daughters, Mrs. Thelma Hall of Porterville and Mrs. Jean Campbell of Carson City, Nev.; two sons, Chester E. Dutton of San Rafael and Arthur Kirby of Kentfield; a sister, Mrs. Ethel Terrivlwon, and five grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 11 a.m. in Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. Burial will be in Odd Fellows Cemetery, Santa Rosa.

one year each of sentences from five years to life.

Authorities said the men may have continued their escape by stolen car or by hopping a freight train. Two major railways go through Richmond, and most clues were found around the railroad tracks.

Since the escape, these reports have been made to police:

Two San Quentin Prison shirts of blue denim were found discarded in a vacant lot near the railroad tracks. Richmond police said the shirts were old and did not bear the serial numbers of the escaped men but may have been used by them.

A used car dealer in Richmond said a man answering Cornell's description asked to try out a 1959 Ford car. He had no money for a deposit, so was refused.

Three men, fitting the trio's description, were seen eating in a Point Richmond restaurant.

Extra precautions were taken today, Frady said, by San Quentin guards to ensure that no one slipped past the prison gate in the locked garbage truck.

Frady said there has been no disturbance at the prison since the escape.

JUVENILE HALL 'BREAK-IN'

David Fogel, Marin County Juvenile Hall superintendent, questions a gray Australian shepherd named Clyde as to how he sneaks inside the hall despite locked gates and a constant check on fences. The dog first appeared at the hall last Friday and was immediately tossed out. The in-again, out-again process has been repeated almost daily since, with Clyde ejected each time he is caught playing with the youngsters. Fogel and staff of sleuths suspect Clyde's break-ins are an "inside job." (Independent-Journal photo)

Driver's Leg Is Crushed As Tractor Rolls

A tractor rolled over three times near Reed School today, crushing the driver's leg on the last tumble, Sheriff's Sgt. Guy V. Gibbs reported.

Victim is Hal Martin, 55, of 404 San Francisco Boulevard, San Anselmo, who works for Paradise Engineering Co. of Corte Madera. He suffered a compound fracture of the right ankle and was in the operating room at Marin General Hospital most of the morning. Hospital officials said his condition appeared "fair to good."

The mishap occurred about 9:15 a.m. as Martin was working near Reed School in Tiburon, cutting a roadway. Sergeant Gibbs said the edge of the roadway must have given way.

Fine, Probation In Decency Case

A young Novato astronomer, accused of exposing himself to Loma Verde school children last December, must pay $157.50 fine and remain on three years supervised probation for outraging public decency.

Oran Richard Norton, 24, pleaded guilty to the charge yesterday and was sentenced by Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Municipal Court. The judge also ordered Norton to seek and take psychiatric treatment, as recommended by the probation officer.

Norton, who worked at Morrison Planetarium in San Francisco, was arrested by Marin sheriff's deputies in his small foreign car. Investigators said he stopped at a school bus stop and exposed himself while sitting in his car.

Officers Elected By Credit Union

Charles Leone was elected new president of the I-J Federal Credit Union at the annual meeting last night at the Country Club Bowl, San Rafael.

Other officers chosen were Richard Foote, vice president; William Wong, re-elected treasurer; Ethel Schwab, secretary; Morris Dahl, director, all comprising the board of directors.

Two committees were chosen as follows: Credit, Dorothy Mast, chairman, Al Todaro and Richard Corder; supervisory, Donald Lethbridge, chairman, Larry Hetterly and Russell Stahl.

The credit union is composed of employees of the Independent-Journal.

Warren Jr. Says Switch For Brown

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Earl Warren Jr. switched his political registration from Republican to Democratic today. He said he timed the change so he can work for the re-election of Gov. Edmund G. Brown and other Democrats in the coming California campaign.

Warren, attorney-son of the Chief Justice of the United States, said he's not thinking now about running for public office. But he said he plans to become active in Democratic Party affairs.

Warren made the change on his 32nd birthday.

Nigerian Named Fighter Of Month By Ring Magazine

NEW YORK (AP) — Dick Tiger's knockout triumph over Cuba's Florentino Fernandez has earned the Nigerian the "fighter of the month" award from Ring magazine and a boost in the middleweight rankings.

The British empire 160-pound champion was elevated over Paul Pender, former middleweight champion from Brookline, Mass., to the No. 2 contender's position. Pender was dropped to third.

Ring recognizes England's Terry Downes as world champion. Gene Fullmer, the NBA middleweight king from West Jordan, Utah, is the No. 1 contender in the monthly ratings released today.

Eder Jofre of Brazil settled the dispute over the bantamweight title by knocking out Johnny Caldwell of Ireland. Caldwell was dropped a notch and now ranks as the No. 2 contender behind Mexico's Joe Medel.

San Jose State Player To Bears

CHICAGO (AP)—Defensive end Jim Cadile of San Jose State has been signed by the Chicago Bears, the club said today. The 240-pounder was the Bears No. 4 pick in the National Football League player draft.

"Cadile was one of the prize rookies selected in the American Football League's secret draft ruled illegal by commissioner Joe Foss," said owner-coach George Halas of the Bears.

"The San Diego Chargers reportedly signed Cadile, but he returned his bonus money followign Foss' ruling. He was selected by Oakland in the legal AFL draft."

Comptroller Nomination Sent Senate

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President John F. Kennedy sent to the Senate today his nomination of James J. Saxon as comptroller of currency.

Saxon has been serving in the post under a recess appointment since last Nov. 14. He succeeded Ray M. Gidney, an Eisenhower administration holdover who resigned as a result of a dispute with Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy over Gidney's approval of a number of bank mergers.

This is the second time the president has submitted Saxon's nomination for Senate confirmation. He sought last Sept. 20 to name him to replace Gidney but had to withdraw the nomination within a few hours because Gidney's term was not due to expire until this year.

Until she became ill two weeks ago, Mrs. Haley had lived most of her life at the family home at 611 B Street, which her father, James Kenny, bought nearly 75 years ago.

She was born in Mark West Springs, Sonoma County. The family moved to Marin County when she was a small girl. Her father came to California from Ireland and was a section boss for forerunners of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad.

She married D. J. Haley, a San Rafael butcher, in the early 1900s. Haley died in 1941.

Mrs. Haley was the last living child of the Kenny family, which included her sister and three brothers.

Mrs. Haley leaves three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael.

LOUELLA JOHNSON

Funeral services for Mrs. Louella Johnson, former longtime San Rafael resident, will be held at 1 p.m. tomorrow at Julius S. Godeau Funeral Home, 41 Van Ness Avenue, San Francisco. Inurnment will be at Cypress Lawn Mausoleum, Colma.

Mrs. Johnson died yesterday in San Francisco after an illness.

Before moving to San Francisco, she resided for many years at 2038 Fourth Street in San Rafael.

She is survived by her husband, Leo, a retired federal civil service employee.

EMILY TAYLOR

Funeral services for Emily L. Taylor, former longtime San Rafael resident, will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at Harry M. Williams Mortuary in San Rafael.

Miss Taylor died Tuesday in a San Francisco rest home after long illness.

She had resided in San Francisco for about 25 years. Previously she made her home in San Rafael, where she was born, daughter of the late Daniel T. and Elizabeth A. Taylor. Her father was one of a group from Maryland who started a sawmill in Larkspur's Baltimore Canyon in Marin County's pioneer days.

Miss Taylor retained membership in St. Paul's Episcopal Church in San Rafael during her San Francisco residence.

Until her retirement 30 years ago, she was for many years supervisor of the telephone department of Wells Fargo Bank in San Francisco.

Her nearest surviving relatives are nieces and nephews.

CHARLES DUTTON

Charles E. Dutton, a retired cabinet maker and resident of Kentfield for 16 years, died yesterday in a local hospital after suffering a heart attack. He was 64.

A native of California, Dutton lived at 1031 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

He leaves his wife, Mildred, a cook at Ross General Hospital; two daughters, Mrs. Thelma Hall of Porterville and Mrs. Jean Campbell of Carson City, Nev.; two sons, Chester E. Dutton of San Rafael and Arthur Kirby of Kentfield; a sister, Mrs. Ethel Terrivlwon, and five grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 11 a.m. in Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. Burial will be in Odd Fellows Cemetery, Santa Rosa.

FELONS

one year each of sentences from five years to life.

Authorities said the men may have continued their escape by stolen car or by hopping a freight train. Two major railways go through Richmond, and most clues were found around the railroad tracks.

Since the escape, these reports have been made to police:

Two San Quentin Prison shirts of blue denim were found discarded in a vacant lot near the railroad tracks. Richmond police said the shirts were old and did not bear the serial numbers of the escaped men but may have been used by them.

A used car dealer in Richmond said a man answering Cornell's description asked to try out a 1959 Ford car. He had no money for a deposit, so was refused.

Three men, fitting the trio's description, were seen eating in a Point Richmond restaurant.

Extra precautions were taken today, Frady said, by San Quentin guards to ensure that no one slipped past the prison gate in the locked garbage truck.

Frady said there has been no disturbance at the prison since the escape.

A STRIKE FOR BARGAINS

Demonstrating that bargains will be right down everyone's alley during San Rafael Dollar Days on Friday and Saturday, Jolly Dollar (a creation of Independent-Journal artist Jack Lucey) lets go a sure strike ball while Mrs. W. H. Marshall (left) and Mrs. Florence Migliore, both of San Rafael, give encouragement from the sidelines. The Independent-Journal will publish a special Dollar Days section tomorrow previewing bargains in the city-wide sale sponsored by the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce retail merchants committee. Names Of Censors Refused Senate Unit

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Defense Department refused today to give senators investigating alleged military "muzzling" the names of individuals who censored specific speeches.

The formal refusal was expected to provoke a new test of the right of executive departments to withhold certain information from Congress.

Willis D. Lawrence, a Pentagon speech review expert, declined to tell the Senate Armed Services Subcommittee who was the Pentagon reviewer on a speech by Lt. Gen. Arthur G. Trudeau, Army chief of research and development.

Lawrence said he was acting on orders from Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara that no Pentagon official answer questions in such a way as to associate "a particular reviewer with a particular speech or article."

An immediate showdown did not result, however. Subcommittee Chairman John C. Stennis (D-Miss.) said a legal study of the issues involved would take several days.

Sen. Strom Thurmond (D-S.C.) who had asked Lawrence the question, then announced that he would ask him no further questions.

Lawrence did not specifically invoke executive privilege and Thurmond questioned if it could be used.

Stennis, however, quickly told Lawrence that "you are, in effect, raising the question of executive privilege." He said he assumes other Defense Department witnesses will take the same stand and described the issue as "highly important."

McNamara similarly declined to identify reviewers of specific speeches in preliminary testimony before the parent Senate Armed Services Committee last summer. The secretary provided a list of reviewers but said the final product is his responsibility.

Talking to reporters after the hearing, Thurmond said Lawrence's testimony showed the existence of a "secret, defeatist" policy in the State Department. He likened the purported policy to the conduct of limited war in Korea.

Thurmond also hinted that he would appeal to the full subcommittee and perhaps to the Senate itself any ruling by Stennis upholding executive privilege.

Earlier, Lawrence testified that the State Department calls the tune when military officials make speeches about international communism.

Foundation Elects In Sausalito

Kelso Norman has been elected president of the Sausalito Foundation to replace Donald J. Duncan Jr.

Other new officers are M. S. Cowen, vice president; M. Justin Herman, treasurer, and Mrs. Fred Mac Farland, secretary.

Mrs. MacFarland reported there is now $3,300 in the treasury. The foundation, a non-profit corporation founded to help preserve the scenic beauty of Sausalito, will commence meeting monthly, Norman said.

Marin Home Ransacked By Vandals

Vandals ransacked a Forest Knolls home, drank whisky, and may have even taken a bath at the home while the owners were away on vacation, sheriff's deputies reported today.

The home is that of Nicola Torrieri, 83, of Resaca Road, who is away on an extended vacation. Mrs. Mary Traverno of 63 Manor Road, Fairfax, said she is looking after the home. She checked Monday and found a window had been pried open.

Inside was a mess. Drawers were pulled out and items strewn throughout the house. The bed had been used, and wet towels in the bathroom indicated that someone may have bathed, Deputy William S. Christensen reported.

A shotgun and a .22-caliber rifle, owned by Torrieri, were found thrown on the bed. The rifle had been loaded by the vandals.

Moderate Quake Shakes Hollister

HOLLISTER (UPI)—A moderate earthquake shook Hollister last night, but no damage was reported.

Seismologists at University of California at Berkeley said the quake registered a magnitude of 3.5 on the richter scale. It was recorded for more than two minutes.

S. P. Trying To Abandon Senator Train

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Southern Pacific Co., seeking to abandon its Senator train between Sacramento and San Francisco, said today it carries an average of only 27 passengers, about half a bus-load, in each direction.

L. Gordon Crocket, an S. P. executive, told a hearing of the California Public Utilities Commission that the train earns annual revenues $34,310, while its annual labor costs alone are $71,590.

Crocket attributed the decrease in passengers to freeway improvements between the cities. He said one may now drive the entire route without encountering a stop light except for Bridge Toll Plaza.

Southern Pacific, he said, spent more advertising the train in the first four months of 1961 than it received from the sale of tickets.

Charles W. Burkett, an S. P. attorney, said "our evidence will show that if ever there existed a passenger train operating in California that served no useful purpose, this is it."

Abandonment of the Senator is being opposed in the hearings by three railroad unions. The Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors sent a letter today opposing the abandonment.

Southern Pacific first asked permission to discontinue the Senator in 1960 but the commission refused. Another application was filed and three days of hearings were scheduled, beginning today.

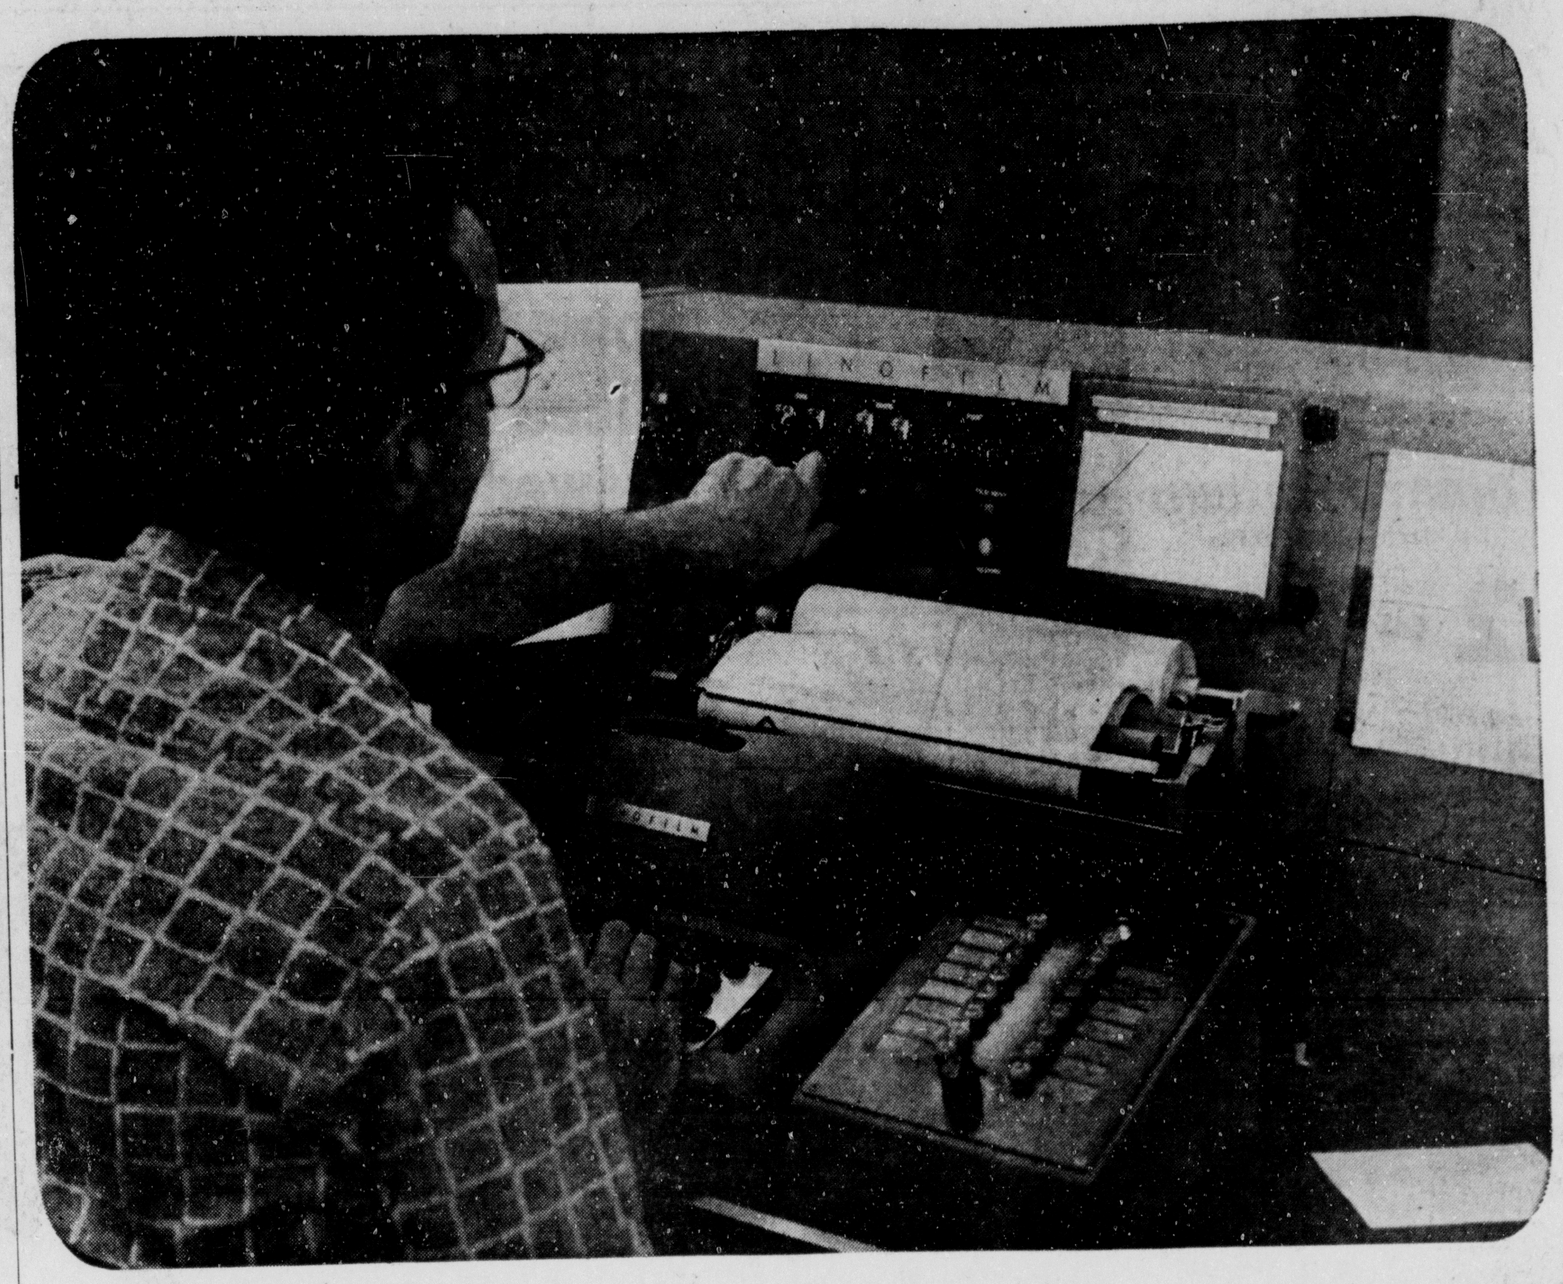
The Senator leaves Oakland at 7:45 daily and arrives at 9:45 a.m. The train leaves for the return journey at 5 p.m. making it possible for Bay Area businessmen to spend nearly a full day in the state capitol.

Airman Sports Car Plows Into Tree

S/Sgt. Raymond J. Barrett of the 78th Organization Maintenance Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base suffered fractures of right arm and leg when his new sports car hit a tree and a utility pole near Petaluma at 2:30 a.m. today.

The California Highway Patrol reported Barrett's 1962 MG went out of control on Western Avenue near the Petaluma city limits.

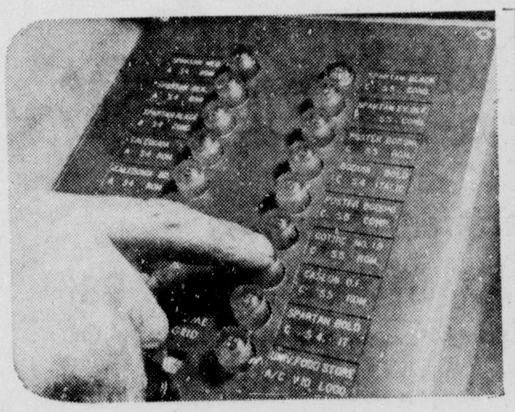
He was treated at Hamilton Air Force Base Hospital, then transferred to Letterman General Hospital in San Francisco.



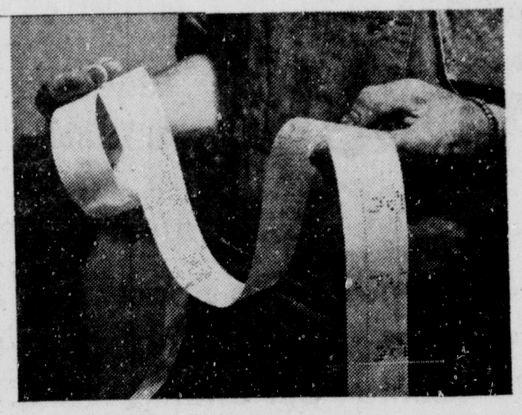
New I-J Electronic "ad machine" brings unheard-of flexibility to advertisers

Here at the I-J, we are now able to offer retailers a new kind of advertising service. For the first time in the history of printing it overcomes the limitations of metal type and the reproduction of illustrations. It's all due to our new quarter-million dollar electronic type-setting equipment that adds the new dimension of flexibility.

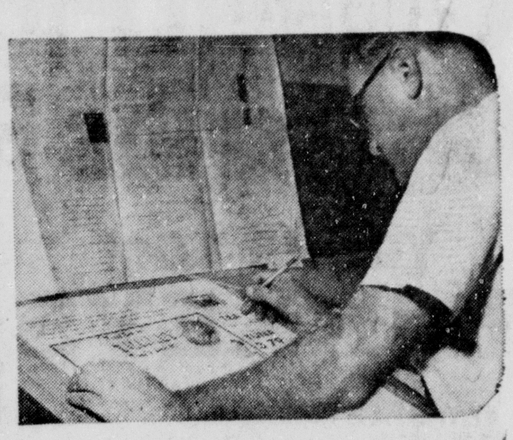
Our "ad machine" can't think, of course; that's the job of the I-J's 8 advertising specialists. They're the idea men; but the machine can put those ideas into black and white so that you get better ads at lower cost. Type can be blown up, reduced, double-printed; illustrations can be pasted right into place—a hundred new advances are now available through electronics. Listed below are the advantages you can count on for your advertising.



Operator pushes a button to change type fonts—Bodoni, Caslon, whatever is needed. He "blows up" type by turning a knob.



Type is "set" on electronically punched tape—all sizes, all kinds. Electronic photography will bring it "alive."



Here's the type, on paper... being pasted up in an ad. Type has been enlarged or reduced photographically to fit exactly.

Here's what it means to you as an advertiser

—a better selection of type; clearer, sharper. No limitations of "point" sizes.

—fresh, new type, every letter, every line, every time—for better printing.

—double printing at no extra cost. (Type can be set on piece of merchandise, for instance.)

—special screen effects—no extra charge.

—actual size illustrations can be pasted right in ad (saving you cost of engravings which formerly had to be done).

—savings on engravings lowers your total advertising costs.

—we still can use mats, but can also reproduce direct from your illustrations, magazine photos, clips.

—faster advertising service; we paste up ads, "pull" proofs by special machine process—saves lock-up and mechanical time.

—we keep files of your art work for future use, saving you time.

Special note:

The electronic system frees you of the cost—and the need—to have engravings made in order to supply us with original artwork. (You can actually photograph merchandise, for example, and we can reproduce it, same size, without charge). All final printing, however, of all advertisements is made from highest-quality engravings.

SURGING NEED FOR RECREATION TOLD

Special Commission Reports Money Should Be Spent On Outdoor Areas

WASHINGTON (AP)—A special commission reported today that a surging need for more outdoor recreation in America must be met by imagination, large-scale action and "money—lots of it."

But the Outdoor Recreation Resources and Review Commission left it to President John F. Kennedy and Congress, and to state and local governments, to figure out price tags and what specific areas should be acquired or improved.

The 15-man commission, headed by Laurance S. Rockefeller, New York, did say that "the first task is to provide recreation for the metropolitan regions, which have the biggest population and demand for recreation and the least space for it."

In urging immediate acquisition of ocean and lake shores, it said that: "Highest priority should be given to acquisition of areas located closest to major population centers and other areas that are immediately threatened. The need is critical—opportunity to place these areas in public ownership is fading each year as other uses encroach."

Basically, the commission said, there is plenty of land and water acreage for recreation, but most of it "is where the people are not."

Rockefeller told a news briefing that it was on purpose that "we haven't come up with either acres or dollars." The commission's idea, he said, was to discuss the principles and tools and leave it to others to determine how they can be used best.

No plans have been developed, he told a questioner, for following through on the report in the legislative field. Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-N.M.), a commission member, said he was sure bills would be introduced to carry out many of the recommendations.

Rockefeller said the report is oriented toward people rather than resources, with the objective of meeting the great demand for outdoor recreation. He said quantity isn't enough and the commission attempted to stress what it calls effective acreage. Access is important, he said, and "it's fantastic how important development is." He said state parks are used 14 times as intensively as national parks because vast sums have been spent to develop their potential.

By direction of Congress, the commission has been spending three years and 2.5 million dollars peering into the problem of outdoor fun as it will develop over 40 years—up to the year 2000.

It put more than 50 recommendations on paper. Some probably will be echoed in a vast conservation program, stressing recreation which Kennedy is expected to put before Congress in a special message Feb. 21.

Marin's State Fair Theme: 'Recreation'

The pleasures that await the vacationer in Marin County should be the theme of the county's exhibit at the California State Fair, the board of supervisors agreed yesterday.

Recreation, with special emphasis on the Point Reyes National Seashore project, was proposed as the central idea for Marin's exhibit at the 1962 fair by the Citizens' Committee on the State Fair Exhibit. Suggestions for the theme were outlined in a letter to the board from Alan Bruce, county administrator.

A "broad theme" of recreation, Supervisor Peter H. Behr said, might be extended to include other Marin points of interest from Stinson Beach to the Sausalito fishing fleet.

"I see a positive value in a recreation theme," Behr said. "I understand that most of our tourists are intra-state, and a tremendous audience would be reached at the fair."

On Behr's motion, the board approved a general recreation theme and authorized $500 as an initial payment to the designer of the exhibit.

The committee's recommendations for this year's exhibit included, Bruce said: design and construction by an "experienced professional," with a total budget of about $4,500.

Drunken Driver Gets $193 Fine, Probation

John Elwood Cowgill, 44, of 128 Evergreen Avenue, Mill Valley, drew $193 fine and six months probation for drunken driving.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Municipal Court sentenced him yesterday for driving while intoxicated along Miller Avenue in Mill Valley last Saturday.

Enrollment at Golden Gate Baptist Seminary for the spring semester is down 19 from that of last fall, registrar Isma Martin said today.

There were 261 enrolled as of Jan. 1, compared with 280 last fall.

Schwarz Offers Mosk TV Time To Air Charges

OAKLAND (AP)—Dr. Fred C. Schwarz has offered to give Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk free television time to substantiate the attorney general's charges that Schwarz' anti-communism school is a fly-by-night promotion.

The Australian leader of the Christian Anti-Communist Crusade issued the challenge to Mosk last night at a televised session of the school attended by about 1,000 persons.

"I welcome any investigation," declared Schwarz.

Schwarz made his offer after Dunlap C. Clark, Oakland banker and financial chairman for the Oakland school, remarked to the audience that he had been told Mosk had demanded equal time from the station to answer a challenge Clark had issued the previous night.

Clark had asked the attorney general to disclaim or make public apology for a statement expressing shock that 55 San Francisco Bay region mayors had signed proclamations "for the benefit of fly-by-night school promoters."

Instead of apologizing, Mosk reiterated his charges yesterday.

"These promoters have not produced evidence that their so-called school is qualified as such under the laws of any city and county or that any of the alleged instructors have teaching credentials issued by the state of California," he declared.

"Thus, this is a promotion and not a school."

Mosk added that the school is fly-by-night because it "moves from city to city where the financial pickings are best."

The attorney general was not available for comment on Schwarz' offer to make his charges at a televised session of the school.

GIRL IS SAVED

2 Circus Aerialists Plummet To Death

DETROIT (AP)—Two members of the famed Wallendas family troupe were killed last night when three of the performers fell while doing their dizzying act on a circus high wire.

A crowd of 7,000 children and adults gasped in horror as the three men plummeted from the slender wire.

Three other male performers saved themselves and the only woman in the act by clinging to the swaying wire about 40 feet above a concrete coliseum floor.

Dieter Schepp, 23, and Richard Faughnan, 29, were injured fatally in the plunge.

Mario Wallenda, 22, also fell. His condition was described as "very critical" by a physician.

Dieter's sister, Jana, 17, also was injured. Others of the troupe, clinging to the wire, caught her as she fell.

Those who managed to grab the wire and hold on were Herman Wallenda, 60, Karl Wallenda, 57, and Gunther Wallenda, 42, descendants in a family which has kept the troupe's name before the public for nearly 90 years.

They caught Miss Schepp and then dropped her into an improvised net.

The injured were rushed to nearby Highland Park General hospital, where Faughnan was dead of a skull fracture. Schepp died early today.

The tragedy which marred a long and illustrious performing history came during the Shrine circus at the Michigan State fairgrounds Coliseum.

Dieter Schepp and his sister escaped together only a few months ago from behind the Iron Curtain in East Germany.

Faughnan was making his debut with the Wallendas.

The four younger men formed the base of a pyramid with their feet on the high wire. Karl and Herman Wallenda were standing on long rods which ran along the younger men's shoulders. Miss Schepp was seated on a chair on a rod on the older men's shoulders.

Suddenly the pyramid collapsed. Herman, Karl and Gunther Wallenda managed to stay on the wire and grab Miss Schepp.

For a time panic threatened from the shocked crowd. Some men tried to run into the ring. Women wept. Others, including children, were frozen in their seats.

A circus clown, Ernie (Blinko) Burch, was credited with bringing calm. Burch, grotesque in his makeup, stood in the ring center pleading for order.

Faughnan's wife, Jenny, 33, a troupe member, was standing on a platform at one end of the high wire.

She said her husband did not appear to have a good grip on his 35-pound balancing bar and lost his balance as he tried to change the grip.

"Dieter called out that he couldn't hold any longer," she said. "He threw the pole into the air to grip it in the center and lost his balance. This threw everybody else off balance and down they went."

The aerialist dynasty was founded in 1874 in Germany by Karl's grandfather, also named Karl. The troupe came to the United States in 1928 and starred with the Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey Circus.

The present Karl and Herman are uncles of Jana and Dieter. Gunter is a son of Herman. Mario Wallenda is Karl's son.

The Wallendas usually perform without a net.

Art Exhibit At Restaurant

Tiburon's newest restaurant, Neville's on the Boardwalk, is exhibiting the latest oil paintings of Marin County artist Mary Perry Stone.

Four of the paintings were directly inspired by the beauty of the central Lucas Valley area, where Mrs. Stone maintains her studio and home.

The artist has held many exhibitions in San Francisco-Bay Area galleries during the past eight years. A prize-winner at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York City, Mrs. Stone also has won a sculpture award at the Oakland Museum. Her work is in numerous private collections.

The exhibition at Neville's will be shown through February.

Side Effects Of Cholesterol Drugs Are Told

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The relative merits of balds heads and coronaries held the Senate antitrust subcommittee engrossed yesterday.

The witness, Dr. Arthur Sackler, board chairman of the William Douglas MacAdams advertising agency, said he was a man who worried much more about his heart than his hair.

However, the subcommittee chairman, Sen. Estes Kefauver, who has a splendid mane, was quite concerned with hair, not to mention skin and livers.

The questioning resolved around Mer-29, a drug which Sackler's agency advertises. Mer-29 was a drug designed to reduce the body's supply of cholesterol, a substance that can cause heart attacks.

At one time, according to Kefauver, Sackler's agency hired space in a medical journal to proclaim, in behalf of Mer-29, that "we know that after use in 300,000 patients few toxic or serious side effects have been established."

Three weeks later, Kefauver said, the manufacturer sent a letter to all doctors reporting that Mer-29 caused side effects in less than 300 of those 300,000 persons who took it.

The side effects included four cases of cataracts, loss of hair and change of its texture, skin afflictions and some liver troubles.

Dr. Deforest Ely, president of the agency, said he tried to kill all the ads when the warning was issued.

Sackler said three of the four persons who came down with cateracts had taken overdoses of Mem-29.

Killer Fog Blankets San Joaquin Valley

FRESNO (AP) — Thick ground fog covered the San Joaquin Valley for the fourth consecutive day today.

Traffic crept at a snail's pace. More than 100 schools were closed in the Bakersfield area. Air schedules were disrupted.

The killer fog was blamed for 13 deaths in the valley this week and one in Kern County's desert area. There were scores of traffic injuries.

In the Fresno area, highway patrolmen declared the fog this morning had a built-in safety factor. The fog was so thick that motorists could not drive fast enough to get into serious trouble.

Weather experts said the unusually heavy and persistent fog was caused by warmer weather which followed last week's rare snowstorms. Sunshine vaporized ground moisture.

This caused alternate patches of light and dense fog on busy highways. Most of the accidents occurred on U.S. 99 which runs north and south through rich fruit and vegetable growing areas.

Claude A. Writer, 41, of Clifton, N.J., was crushed to death yesterday when a tank truck, filled with vegetable oil, toppled over on his car. Truck driver Ronald B. Stowers, 33, of Huntington Park had swerved to avoid slower traffic in the fog. The accident occurred eight miles south of Fresno.

Ten cars piled up at an overpass near Wasco. Judy Thomas, 3, of Empire, Ore., was killed. Eight persons, including her mother and sister, were injured.

Jesse Stockton, Kern School superintendent, ordered all public schools around Bakersfield closed for the rest of the week after six school buses were involved in minor collisions in the fog. Parochial schools also were closed.

The Weather Bureau forecast: Continued fog.

Yale Lary of the Detroit Lions averaged 48.4 yards per punt during 1961.

Adonis Says He Is Not Lucky's Heir

MILAN, Italy (UPI) — Joe Adonis, a man familiar to U.S. police, denied today reports that he became the "heir apparent" to Lucky Luciano after the former New York vice czar dropped dead last Friday at Naples airport.

"Do you think that an underworld convention is underway in order to elect a new boss?" Adonis asked.

"Do you think of electoral speeches, a crime platform, corrupted lobbyists and behind-the-scene moves after Lucky Luciano died?

"There is no limit to press people's imagination. But as far as I am concerned, I am certainly not involved in anything. I am not Lucky Luciano's successor. I do not think that Lucky can have a successor."

Adonis, whose real name is Giuseppe Doto, was contacted at the door of the swanky apartment he rents in one of Milan's most exclusive residential streets.

Suggestions for the theme were outlined in a letter to the board from Alan Bruce, county administrator.

A "broad theme" of recreation, Supervisor Peter H. Behr said, might be extended to include other Marin points of interest from Stinson Beach to the Sausalito fishing fleet.

"I see a positive value in a recreation theme," Behr said. "I understand that most of our tourists are intra-state, and a tremendous audience would be reached at the fair."

On Behr's motion, the board approved a general recreation theme and authorized $500 as an initial payment to the designer of the exhibit.

The committee's recommendations for this year's exhibit included, Bruce said: design and construction by an "experienced professional," with a total budget of about $4,500.

Drunken Driver Gets $193 Fine, Probation

John Elwood Cowgill, 44, of 128 Evergreen Avenue, Mill Valley, drew $193 fine and six months probation for drunken driving.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Municipal Court sentenced him yesterday for driving while intoxicated along Miller Avenue in Mill Valley last Saturday.

Baptist Seminary Enrollment Down

Enrollment at Golden Gate Baptist Seminary for the spring semester is down 19 from that of last fall, registrar Isma Martin said today.

There were 261 enrolled as of Jan. 1, compared with 280 last fall.

Schwarz Offers Mosk TV Time To Air Charges

OAKLAND (AP)—Dr. Fred C. Schwarz has offered to give Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk free television time to substantiate the attorney general's charges that Schwarz' anti-communism school is a fly-by-night promotion.

The Australian leader of the Christian Anti-Communist Crusade issued the challenge to Mosk last night at a televised session of the school attended by about 1,000 persons.

"I welcome any investigation," declared Schwarz.

Schwarz made his offer after Dunlap C. Clark, Oakland banker and financial chairman for the Oakland school, remarked to the audience that he had been told Mosk had demanded equal time from the station to answer a challenge Clark had issued the previous night.

Clark had asked the attorney general to disclaim or make public apology for a statement expressing shock that 55 San Francisco Bay region mayors had signed proclamations "for the benefit of fly-by-night school promoters."

Instead of apologizing, Mosk reiterated his charges yesterday.

"These promoters have not produced evidence that their so-called school is qualified as such under the laws of any city and county or that any of the alleged instructors have teaching credentials issued by the state of California," he declared.

"Thus, this is a promotion and not a school."

Mosk added that the school is fly-by-night because it "moves from city to city where the financial pickings are best."

The attorney general was not available for comment on Schwarz' offer to make his charges at a televised session of the school.

GIRL IS SAVED

2 Circus Aerialists Plummet To Death

DETROIT (AP)—Two members of the famed Wallendas family troupe were killed last night when three of the performers fell while doing their dizzying act on a circus high wire.

A crowd of 7,000 children and adults gasped in horror as the three men plummeted from the slender wire.

Three other male performers saved themselves and the only woman in the act by clinging to the swaying wire about 40 feet above a concrete coliseum floor.

Dieter Schepp, 23, and Richard Faughnan, 29, were injured fatally in the plunge.

Mario Wallenda, 22, also fell. His condition was described as "very critical" by a physician.

Dieter's sister, Jana, 17, also was injured. Others of the troupe, clinging to the wire, caught her as she fell.

Those who managed to grab the wire and hold on were Herman Wallenda, 60, Karl Wallenda, 57, and Gunther Wallenda, 42, descendants in a family which has kept the troupe's name before the public for nearly 90 years.

They caught Miss Schepp and then dropped her into an improvised net.

The injured were rushed to nearby Highland Park General hospital, where Faughnan was dead of a skull fracture. Schepp died early today.

The tragedy which marred a long and illustrious performing history came during the Shrine circus at the Michigan State fairgrounds Coliseum.

Dieter Schepp and his sister escaped together only a few months ago from behind the Iron Curtain in East Germany.

Faughnan was making his debut with the Wallendas.

The four younger men formed the base of a pyramid with their feet on the high wire. Karl and Herman Wallenda were standing on long rods which ran along the younger men's shoulders. Miss Schepp was seated on a chair on a rod on the older men's shoulders.

Suddenly the pyramid collapsed. Herman, Karl and Gunther Wallenda managed to stay on the wire and grab Miss Schepp.

For a time panic threatened from the shocked crowd. Some men tried to run into the ring. Women wept. Others, including children, were frozen in their seats.

A circus clown, Ernie (Blinko) Burch, was credited with bringing calm. Burch, grotesque in his makeup, stood in the ring center pleading for order.

Faughnan's wife, Jenny, 33, a troupe member, was standing on a platform at one end of the high wire.

She said her husband did not appear to have a good grip on his 35-pound balancing bar and lost his balance as he tried to change the grip.

"Dieter called out that he couldn't hold any longer," she said. "He threw the pole into the air to grip it in the center and lost his balance. This threw everybody else off balance and down they went."

The aerialist dynasty was founded in 1874 in Germany by Karl's grandfather, also named Karl. The troupe came to the United States in 1928 and starred with the Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey Circus.

The present Karl and Herman are uncles of Jana and Dieter. Gunter is a son of Herman. Mario Wallenda is Karl's son.

The Wallendas usually perform without a net.

Art Exhibit At Restaurant

Tiburon's newest restaurant, Neville's on the Boardwalk, is exhibiting the latest oil paintings of Marin County artist Mary Perry Stone.

Four of the paintings were directly inspired by the beauty of the central Lucas Valley area, where Mrs. Stone maintains her studio and home.

The artist has held many exhibitions in San Francisco-Bay Area galleries during the past eight years. A prize-winner at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York City, Mrs. Stone also has won a sculpture award at the Oakland Museum. Her work is in numerous private collections.

The exhibition at Neville's will be shown through February.

Side Effects Of Cholesterol Drugs Are Told

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The relative merits of balds heads and coronaries held the Senate antitrust subcommittee engrossed yesterday.

The witness, Dr. Arthur Sackler, board chairman of the William Douglas MacAdams advertising agency, said he was a man who worried much more about his heart than his hair.

However, the subcommittee chairman, Sen. Estes Kefauver, who has a splendid mane, was quite concerned with hair, not to mention skin and livers.

The questioning resolved around Mer-29, a drug which Sackler's agency advertises. Mer-29 was a drug designed to reduce the body's supply of cholesterol, a substance that can cause heart attacks.

At one time, according to Kefauver, Sackler's agency hired space in a medical journal to proclaim, in behalf of Mer-29, that "we know that after use in 300,000 patients few toxic or serious side effects have been established."

Three weeks later, Kefauver said, the manufacturer sent a letter to all doctors reporting that Mer-29 caused side effects in less than 300 of those 300,000 persons who took it.

The side effects included four cases of cataracts, loss of hair and change of its texture, skin afflictions and some liver troubles.

Dr. Deforest Ely, president of the agency, said he tried to kill all the ads when the warning was issued.

Sackler said three of the four persons who came down with cateracts had taken overdoses of Mem-29.

Little Theater Group Plans Coward Comedy

Noel Coward's "Nude With a Violin" will be staged by the Terra Linda Little Theater on Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p.m. at the Tamalpais Center Women's Club in Kentfield.

The play, the groups's first attempt at comedy, is directed by Richard L. Shirley. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Killer Fog Blankets San Joaquin Valley

FRESNO (AP) — Thick ground fog covered the San Joaquin Valley for the fourth consecutive day today.

Traffic crept at a snail's pace. More than 100 schools were closed in the Bakersfield area. Air schedules were disrupted.

The killer fog was blamed for 13 deaths in the valley this week and one in Kern County's desert area. There were scores of traffic injuries.

In the Fresno area, highway patrolmen declared the fog this morning had a built-in safety factor. The fog was so thick that motorists could not drive fast enough to get into serious trouble.

Weather experts said the unusually heavy and persistent fog was caused by warmer weather which followed last week's rare snowstorms. Sunshine vaporized ground moisture.

This caused alternate patches of light and dense fog on busy highways. Most of the accidents occurred on U.S. 99 which runs north and south through rich fruit and vegetable growing areas.

Claude A. Writer, 41, of Clifton, N.J., was crushed to death yesterday when a tank truck, filled with vegetable oil, toppled over on his car. Truck driver Ronald B. Stowers, 33, of Huntington Park had swerved to avoid slower traffic in the fog. The accident occurred eight miles south of Fresno.

Ten cars piled up at an overpass near Wasco. Judy Thomas, 3, of Empire, Ore., was killed. Eight persons, including her mother and sister, were injured.

Jesse Stockton, Kern School superintendent, ordered all public schools around Bakersfield closed for the rest of the week after six school buses were involved in minor collisions in the fog. Parochial schools also were closed.

The Weather Bureau forecast: Continued fog.

Yale Lary of the Detroit Lions averaged 48.4 yards per punt during 1961.

Adonis Says He Is Not Lucky's Heir

MILAN, Italy (UPI) — Joe Adonis, a man familiar to U.S. police, denied today reports that he became the "heir apparent" to Lucky Luciano after the former New York vice czar dropped dead last Friday at Naples airport.

"Do you think that an underworld convention is underway in order to elect a new boss?" Adonis asked.

"Do you think of electoral speeches, a crime platform, corrupted lobbyists and behind-the-scene moves after Lucky Luciano died?

"There is no limit to press people's imagination. But as far as I am concerned, I am certainly not involved in anything. I am not Lucky Luciano's successor. I do not think that Lucky can have a successor."

Adonis, whose real name is Giuseppe Doto, was contacted at the door of the swanky apartment he rents in one of Milan's most exclusive residential streets.

'AS YOU LIKE IT'—It was as John B. Ehlen liked it last night as Sausalitans honored him at a party in the Alta Mira Hotel, the occasion being his retirement as city attorney. Much Shakespeare flowed with the wine. Here, Ehlen recites, with gestures, selections from the Bard of Avon. (Photo by Edwin Long)

AFTER LAST NIGHT, ANYHOW

Both Ehlen, Shakespeare Retire From Long Service To Sausalito

By BRUCE COLEMAN

Shakespeare was on stage last night in Sausalito.

He was presented by retiring City Atty. John B. Ehlen and 95 "co-actors," all friends of Ehlen and, presumably friends of Shakespeare.

There were "hear ye's," jests and poppings of corks at the champagne testimonial dinner at the Alta Mira Hotel to honor Shakespearean scholar Ehlen.

Seven former mayors and four former city councilmen stood to honor Ehlen, who has served Sausalito as mayor, planning commissioner, and as city attorney for 14 years.

Ehlen was presented with a set of Shakespeare's tragedies and comedies, a gold trophy with the inscription, "Fight the Good Fight," and a survival kit.

In response he eloquently recited the seven ages of man from "As You Like It," gesturing with both hands.

Former sports broadcaster Ernie Smith was master of ceremonies.

Former Mayor Robert Goshen said, "We came to praise John, not to bury him."

Shakespearean messages were received by telegram and letter, with dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety saying "away from the Tempest and on to a Mid-summer Night's Dream"; Victor E. Hecht saying "I had a thing to say but I will fit it to some better time," and the Sausalito chamber of commerce saying, "And do as adversaries do in law, strive mightily but eat and drink as friends."

A proclamation, written by former Mayor Sylvester McAtee, was read by Goshen. In part, it said: "John B. Shakespeare Ehlen. Hear ye, hear ye, hear ye. We the people of Sausalito, at least those who are friends of John Ehlen, which is not the same thing, are here assembled to do honor and pay tribute to him . . . He has endurance. He has endured city councils for all of these years . . . Good health! Long Life! Prosperity!

Albert Bianchi of Mill Valley presented the trophy to Ehlen.

Ehlen's wife, Alice, said "Since my salad days when I married John, life has never been dull."

Ehlen declared: "I'm leeply touched by the turn out in recognition of my wife's service to the community . . . I love flattery . . . In all due modesty (of which I have very little), I did not write the works of Shakespeare. As professor A. J. said and proved, they were not written by William Shakespeare but by another fellow named William Shakespeare."

Ehlen said that he recalled that shortly after the Spanish-American War a citizen approached him and said, "There is something wrong with Sausalito. There are two concrete elephants in the plaza, a symbol of the Republican Party. As a Democrat, I demand equal representation. I demand there be two donkeys in the plaza."

"I said, 'You demand two donkeys? You, you Democrat, are highly represented. You have five donkeys on the city council."

Ehlen was presented with a "survival kit," contents of which included two bottles of refreshment. He then read what he termed his last resolution for the city, which he designated as resolution No. 99963¾. It provided that "city council meetings should be held in the Plaza Bar and the city hall be ordered sold for $37.50."

Africa Nations Call For Freeing All Territories

LAGOS, Nigeria (AP) — The Lagos summit conference of 20 African nations has called for freeing of all dependent territories at the earliest possible date.

Without setting a target date, the group decided to take "concrete and immediate measures to boycott economically and diplomatically" all foreign powers which do not cooperate.

This was announced today in communiques reporting on resolutions unanimously approved during the five-day meeting, which ended Tuesday.

The 20 states reaffirmed their belief in the "inalienable right of all peoples to self-determination."

Baptist Laymen

Walter Chappel and Rev. John MacDonald, both of Mill Valley, have been installed as vice president and pastoral counsellor, respectively, of the West Bay Baptist Laymen's Assn. Installation took place Monday at the First Baptist Church of Mill Valley, which 200 association members attended.

INCOME TAX FACTS

When You Can, And Cannot Use 1040A

By PETER J. WIKEL C.P.A.

Federal form 1040A is the simple tax return. You can use this form if your income was less than $10,000 and was wages reported on W-2s and not more than $200 of income from other wages, dividends, and interest.

P. J. WIKEL

You may not use form 1040A if you: Had other income; claim status as head of household; claim status as surviving spouse; claim credit for retirement income; claim credit for dividends; are delinquent in filing your return; claim exclusion for sick pay; Do not use the cash method; use a fiscal year; paid an estimated tax during the year; are subject to the self-employment tax; itemize deductions, or your spouse itemizes; claim travel, transportation, or other expenses; are a nonresident alien.

If you use form 1040A and your income is under $5,000 you may fill it out and determine the tax yourself from the tax table or the district director will determine your tax for you. If the district director figures your tax and sends you a bill, this will naturally give you a little longer to pay any tax you may owe. You will be charged interest from April 15, 1962 to the date of payment.

Husband and wife can file a joint return on form 1040A if their combined income does not exceed $10,000.

By using form 1040A you automatically claim the standard 10 per cent deduction for personal expenses like contributions, interest, taxes, medical expenses and so on. If your allowable deductions for these items is over 10 per cent of your income you should use form 1040.

You are expected to pay your income tax on the basis of the lowest figure possible; therefore, you should choose the form that results in the lowest tax for you.

Math Lectures Set For Tam Teachers

A series of 10 lecture-discussions on the teaching of geometry will be begin Feb. 15 for mathematics teachers in Tamalpais Union High School District.

Jens Lund of University of California will be consultant for the program.

Bicycle Path Project For Tiburon

Newest project on the Belvedere - Tiburon Conservation League is a walkway and bicycle path along Tiburon Boulevard, according to Mrs. Palmer Field, president.

Mrs. Field said the California Division of Highways and the Pacific Gas and Electric Co. are willing to cooperate in grading and installing gravel.

She envisions the walkway and bicycle path from Belvedere to the trestle and eventually to Highway 101. "This would not only be for the children," Mrs. Field said, "but would be helpful to bus riders who must walk to and from their stops."

ALMOST WASN'T GOOD ENOUGH

George Ramos, 12, of Roxbury, Mass., almost made it into a subway station in Boston through a one-way revolving gate yesterday. Almost wasn't good enough. Firemen had to saw the gate spokes to free the youngster when his head got wedged in. Starter William Sproul comforted George before help arrived. (AP Wirephoto)

Two More Hearings Slated On Novato's Freeway Route

Two more hearings on route of the Highway 101 freeway through Novato will be held: a map showing Friday night and a special city council hearing next Tuesday night.

Last night, the Novato City Council held a hearing to gauge public opinion. Many people complained of not being able to attend the division of highways hearing on Jan. 18, so a second showing of the maps was offered by W. Preston Smith of the division of highways.

The city council set the time of the maps showing as 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Friday in the community building. Engineers from the division of highways will be on hand.

The council also set a second hearing on the freeway for a special meeting at 8 p.m. next Tuesday in the community building. After that meeting, the council will discuss the stand it will take on the freeway.

Approximately 20 people of a crowd of 60 last night spoke on the freeway locations. Of these, 14 favored moving the highway further east than any route proposed by the division of highways. Three favored a depressed freeway along its present route. Two favored the alternate along the railroad. One advocated no specific favorite route.

Dan Aughney, speaking for the City Council-Chamber of Commerce freeway committee, urged turning down all proposed routes and asking the division of highways to come up with another route completely east of town.

County Planning Director Mary Summers urged adoption of the route nearest to the railroad tracks.

If you use form 1040A and your income is under $5,000 you may fill it out and determine the tax yourself from the tax table or the district director will determine your tax for you. If the district director figures your tax and sends you a bill, this will naturally give you a little longer to pay any tax you may owe. You will be charged interest from April 15, 1962 to the date of payment.

Husband and wife can file a joint return on form 1040A if their combined income does not exceed $10,000.

By using form 1040A you automatically claim the standard 10 per cent deduction for personal expenses like contributions, interest, taxes, medical expenses and so on. If your allowable deductions for these items is over 10 per cent of your income you should use form 1040.

You are expected to pay your income tax on the basis of the lowest figure possible; therefore, you should choose the form that results in the lowest tax for you.

Jens Lund of University of California will be consultant for the program.

Bicycle Path Project For Tiburon

Newest project on the Belvedere - Tiburon Conservation League is a walkway and bicycle path along Tiburon Boulevard, according to Mrs. Palmer Field, president.

Mrs. Field said the California Division of Highways and the Pacific Gas and Electric Co. are willing to cooperate in grading and installing gravel.

She envisions the walkway and bicycle path from Belvedere to the trestle and eventually to Highway 101. "This would not only be for the children," Mrs. Field said, "but would be helpful to bus riders who must walk to and from their stops."

ALMOST WASN'T GOOD ENOUGH

George Ramos, 12, of Roxbury, Mass., almost made it into a subway station in Boston through a one-way revolving gate yesterday. Almost wasn't good enough. Firemen had to saw the gate spokes to free the youngster when his head got wedged in. Starter William Sproul comforted George before help arrived. (AP Wirephoto)

Two More Hearings Slated On Novato's Freeway Route

Two more hearings on route of the Highway 101 freeway through Novato will be held: a map showing Friday night and a special city council hearing next Tuesday night.

Last night, the Novato City Council held a hearing to gauge public opinion. Many people complained of not being able to attend the division of highways hearing on Jan. 18, so a second showing of the maps was offered by W. Preston Smith of the division of highways.

The city council set the time of the maps showing as 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Friday in the community building. Engineers from the division of highways will be on hand.

The council also set a second hearing on the freeway for a special meeting at 8 p.m. next Tuesday in the community building. After that meeting, the council will discuss the stand it will take on the freeway.

Approximately 20 people of a crowd of 60 last night spoke on the freeway locations. Of these, 14 favored moving the highway further east than any route proposed by the division of highways. Three favored a depressed freeway along its present route. Two favored the alternate along the railroad. One advocated no specific favorite route.

Dan Aughney, speaking for the City Council-Chamber of Commerce freeway committee, urged turning down all proposed routes and asking the division of highways to come up with another route completely east of town.

County Planning Director Mary Summers urged adoption of the route nearest to the railroad tracks.

Anderson Names New Secretary

SACRAMENTO (CNS)— Lieut. Gov. Glenn M. Anderson announced he has appointed Myron Roberts, an associate professor of English at Chaffey College, as his new executive secretary.

Roberts will succeed Donald Rose, a candidate for the office of secretary of state, who resigned recently.

Dick Lynch of New York's Giants paced National Football League players in interceptions in 1961 with nine.

Fire Department's Diego Heads City Employee Unit

Capt. John Diego of the San Rafael Fire Department is the new president of the San Rafael City Employees Assn. for 1962.

Diego was installed at the annual dinner-dance at Franchini's Chateau Saturday night. He succeeds Kenneth Mazza, who received a wallet size sterling silver card in honor of his past year's service.

Other officers inducted were W. C. (Cornie) Cornwell, deputy city clerk, as vice president and Aurora Leveroni of the city clerk's office, as secretary-treasurer.

Capt. Byron Cook, who is retiring from the fire department, received a gold key ring with an inscription, honoring him for his long service.

Dick Bass of the Los Angeles Rams had a kick-off return average of 30.3 yards in 1961.

Canal Dredging Job Is Awarded

A contract for dredging the San Rafael Canal was awarded today to Willamette Tug and Barge Co. of Portland, Ore., by the Army Corps of Engineers.

The dredging firm was low bidder against four others with a bid of $144,670. Federal allocation for the project was $180,000.

Jim Phillips of the Los Angeles Rams led National Football League pass receivers with 78 receptions in 1961.

State Due New Permanent License Plates This Year

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Californians will start receiving their new permanent motor vehicle license plates in late 1962, it was revealed today.

From then on, the state will issue no plates except to owners of new vehicles or motorists whose old plates have been damaged.

The 1962 legislature will be asked to appropriate $904,000 for the plates.

It will be part of 34-millio dollar requested for operatio and expansion of the Depar ment of Motor Vehicles durin the 1962-63 fiscal year.

The new plates will have yellow letters and figures on a black background. The present plates are black on yellow.

There will be another innovation — a rectangular recess where motorists can easily place annual renewal stickers.

$197 Million In U.S. Budget Plan

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown's budget, to be presented to the opening session of the legislature Monday, will include 197.4 million dollars for University of California.

That's 22 million dollars or 12½ per cent more than the university got this year. Enrollment is expected to increase 10 per cent to 57,203 on all campuses.

The university budget, announced by Brown yesterday, will include 143 million dollars for operations and 54.3 million for capital outlay at nine campuses. This year's comparable figures were 127 million and 48 million.

The governor's proposal includes provision for instituting a "trimester" program — three semesters instead of two — at the Berkeley, Los Angeles and Santa Barbara campuses. The object is to use the buildings more fully in the summer, and to allow students to graduate in three years if they choose.

The university regents approved the "trimester" system last February. They say the speedup would enable the university to handle more students.

The largest amount for expansion would go to the Los Angeles Medical Center —$12,218,600 including funds for buildings and equipment to increase doctor graduates from 72 to 128.

Money would be provided for site development at the new Orange County and Santa Cruz campuses, plus funds to start buying their library books.

Demo Leader Charges GOP Budget Balk Plan

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A Democratic legislative leader charged today "certain Republican elements" are planning to buck passage of the state budget in an election year effort to embarrass Gov. Edmund F. Brown.

Chairman Robert W. Crown of the Assembly Ways and Means Committee said, however, "I think we can head them off."

While Democrats control both houses, death and resignation have trimmed their Assembly majority to 44-34, with two vacancies. And the budget requires 54 votes in the Assembly.

"That means we'll need 10 Republican votes," Crown said in an interview. "I'm convinced there are considerably more than 10 Republicans who are going to put the welfare of the state above partisan politics."

In the Senate, where the magic number for the budget is 27 votes, the Democrats are in solid command, 28-11, with one vacancy.

"We will all have to fight an obvious Republican attempt to forestall the budget," said Crown. "There are certain Republican elements who would like to embarrass the governor."

'Patriotic Testimonial Dinner' Set For Assemblyman Francis

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — A $25-a-plate "patriotic testimonial dinner" has been scheduled Feb. 25 for Assemblyman Louis Francis (R-San Mateo), in what supporters indicate is an effort to reimburse the assemblyman for the "thousands of dollars" he has spent in fighting Communism.

Francis, a victim of reapportionment in that his home now is in the district of Assemblyman Carl A. Britschgi (R-Redwood City) has not announced whether he will seek re-election. Francis said he likely would announce his plans at the testimonial.

However, if he ran for re-election to the assembly, it would mean a run-off with Britschgi.

The letter seeking ticket sales or donations for the testimonial said an "inspiring Americanism program" will be presented, featuring Harry von Zell, radio-television star. General chairman for the affair is Rear Adm. C. Julian Wheeler (ret.) and general vice chairman is Brig. Gen. Walter R. Sheaff (ret.).

The letter noted Francis had been fighting "a lonely battle" against Communism and "his effectiveness has made him a major target in California of the Communist plot to discredit and destroy important anti-Communists."

Council Of Mayors Meeting Tonight

The Marin Council of Mayors will consider reorganization suggestions from Novato City Administrator J. Julien Baget at its dinner-meeting today at 7 p.m. at Bob's of Marin, Corte Madera.

The reorganization recommendations were listed in a 10-point report sent to the Marin cities by the Novato City Council.

The council of mayors will also hear a report from Sausalito Mayor Philip S. Ehrlich Jr. on the uniform food handlers ordinance for Marin cities, and a report from San Rafael Mayor John F. McInnis on an agreement with the county for sharing cost of urban thoroughfares.

James Baird, Former Marin Deputy, Dies

Ex-Policeman Succumbs To Gunshot Wound

James Baird Jr., 42, one-time Marin County policeman and deputy sheriff who turned bank robber, died yesterday in Cleveland ,O., of a self-inflicted gunshot wound.

Baird shot himself in the head with a .38 caliber pistol when Cleveland police surrounded his getaway car after he vainly tried to rob a bank in suburban Mayfield Heights on Jan. 12.

Police said he had used the same gun 20 minutes earlier in an attempt to hold up the Central Valley National Bank. He fled without the loot when a teller, Mrs. Irene Crowe, screamed at his demand for money.

The ex-policeman had hovered between life and death in a Cleveland hospital until yesterday, the Associated Press Reported.

Baird, who was a Marin County deputy sheriff from Feb. 15, 1956 until he resigned on Oct. 16, 1959, disappeared soon after he was arrested at his Daly City home last Dec. 10 on charges of child molesting. He was accused of molesting a 12-year-old Mill Valley girl and the 9-year-old daughter of a present Marin deputy sheriff.

He pleaded innocent to the charges on Dec. 13, then skipped $1,050 bail posted by a Daly City bail bondsman. He had not been heard of until the attempted bank holdup.

Baird was formerly a Daly City policeman, quitting the force there in 1954 after being suspended for attempting to hit a police sergeant with his night stick. He served on the Sausalito police force during 1955-56.

He was a guard at San Francisco International Airport when he was arrested on the child molesting charges by Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos, Sheriff's Inspector Marco Melovich and Novato Police Chief Roy McLaren.

Chick Hatcheries Report 5% Drop

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Commercial chick hatcheries in California reported a drop of 5 per cent in the number of baby chicks during December.

The State Livestock Reporting Service said of the 10,256,000 baby chicks hatched, there was a drop of 3 per cent in broiler-type chicks offset by a 3 per cent increase in egg-type chicks.

Senator Smith Will Oppose McCone In CIA

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Margaret Chase Smith (R-Me.), told the Senate today she will vote against confirmation of John A. McCone as director of the Central Intelligence Agency because he is unqualified for the post.

McCone lacks special training for the post, Mrs. Smith said.

A member of the Senate Armed Services Committee, she said she will oppose McCone basically because "I do not consider him qualified for this very important position."

The Senate is expected to confirm McCone despite opposition.

Mrs. Smith said McCone conceded doubt about his qualifications.

L.A. Superintendent Seeks State Post

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Dr. Ralph E. Richardson, president of the Los Angeles City Board of Education, announced today he will seek the post of state superintendent of public instruction in the June 5 primaries.

The post will be vacated by the retirement of Roy E. Simpson.

At least three other candidates are already announced: Dr. Wallace W. Hall of Belvedere, associate state superintendent under Simpson; Dr. Cecil D. Hardesty, San Diego County superintendent, and Charles M. Berese, Sacramento junior college engineering instructor.

Richardson, 43, announced his candidacy for the nonpartisan position at a news conference in the Ambassador Hotel. He was elected to the city board of education in 1957, re-elected in 1961 and was named president of the group last July.

Since 1948, Richardson has been a member of the UCLA faculty. He also served as a government and management consultant on communications problems. In 1958 and 1959, he was a member of Gov. Edmund G. Brown's staff, holding the post of planning and research secretary with emphasis on educational problems.

"I am proud to have been a part of decisions which have shaped an already outstanding school system into a great school district," he said.

Richardson lives with his wife, Mary Louise, and four children in Woodland Hills in the San Fernando Valley. Mrs. Richardson was a former councilwoman and mayor of Culver City.

Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle, in hitting 61 and 54 home runs, respectively, in 1961, shattered the two-man season record of 107. The latter mark was set by Babe Ruth with 60 and Lou Gehrig with 47 in 1927.

$2-Million Ship Goes For $130,000

CHICAGO (UPI) — A two-million-dollar aircraft carrier, part of the largest collection of surplus goods ever offered in an one-site Defense Department auction, sold today at the bargain basement price of $130,000.

The carrier, a converted 325-foot Navy landing craft, was bought by Carlo Camossi, a Milan, Italy, business man. He said it would be converted into a floating hotel.

Camossi said the carrier, now in harbor at North Charleston, S. C., would be anchored about 1,000 feet off Milan, with possibly a ski lift built to move guests to and from shore. When converted, he said, the ship would have landing facilities for helicopters, a dance floor, and about 200 sleeping rooms.

If Camossi's plans are carried out it will be a second reconversion for the ship, which originally was built in 1945 as a landing craft. In 1961 the ship was made into a small aircraft carrier.

Camossi said he had consulted a Naval architect about his plans. He placed the winning bid after an auctioneer started the competition at $50,000, following rejection of a $25,000 bid. Burchell said the government had hoped the carrier would bring $350,000.

Senator From Kansas Named

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — James B. Pearson, 41, former Kansas Republican state chairman, was appointed to the U.S. Senate today to succeed to late Sen. Andrew F. Schoeppel, also a Republican.

Pearson of Prairie Village, a Kansas City suburb, was named by Gov. John Anderson who had earlier been considered a possible choice.

Schoeppel, a veteran conservative senator, died Jan. 21 at the Bethesda, Md., Naval Hospital of cancer.

'DREAM' HAS ENDED

Boy Stows Away On Airplane For Hawaii

CHICAGO (UPI)—"I dreamed I should go to Honolulu, Mom."

That's how 11-year-old Rickey Oprondek, Chicago, explained his stowaway trip on an American Airlines plane bound from Chicago to San Francisco Sunday.

Rickey returned home last night aboard another American Airlines flight. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Oprondek, were on hand to take him home.

"He considered it quite a lark," Mrs. Oprondek said, "so we took the advice of police and punished him by letting him stay overnight in a juvenile home."

Officers suggested the one-night detention after Rickey said "Oh boy, my picture's going to be in the newspapers and on television."

"Of course we're glad to have him back, but he needs a little punishment," Oprondek said.

Rickey was found wandering at the San Francisco airport yesterday. He told authorities he was "going to Honolulu."

An airline spokesman said the boy walked aboard a plane at Chicago's O'Hare Field Sunday night. "The stewardess assumed he had been checked for a ticket before he got aboard," the spokesman said.

Rickey was picked up in San Francisco after authorities noticed he had been hanging around the terminal two days. He admitted he flew from Chicago as a stowaway.

American Airlines put him on the first flight back to Chicago.

"Rickey didn't know how we worried about him. If he behaves after he gets out of the home I'm not going to punish him any more," the father said.

Mother Jailed In Mate's Death

SANTA ROSA (AP)—A mother of two small children was jailed today for the fatal shooting of her disabled war veteran husband.

Mrs. JoAnne Frecka, 30, was booked on suspicion of murder for the death of Lonnie LeeRoy Frecka, 38.

Sheriff John Ellis of Sonoma County said Mrs. Frecka told him her husband came home intoxicated last night and threatened her.

She said she took a pistol from a bureau drawer and fired two shots into the floor, then a third which hit her husband in his chest.

"I was just trying to scare him," Mrs. Frecka told the sheriff.

Buyers Getting Better Deals

DETROIT (UPI) — Lawrence E. Wilson, a design consultant for many large corporations here, believes that customers today are getting more convenience rather than frills.

Today's designer is as involved in "human engineering" as in design, he said, which means proucts are designed after much research and study to fit the customers' needs and capacities, rather than to merely look good.

Function has taken over particularly in common household items, he said.

"Refrigerators have compartments that proffer food conveniently, with shelves that slide out or swing out," he pointed out. "Clocks are easily read by numerals instead of dots. Colored lights indicate at a distance temperatures of ovens. Television sets require less manual tuning and even offer program control from your easy chair."

James Baird, Former Marin Deputy, Dies

Ex-Policeman Succumbs To Gunshot Wound

James Baird Jr., 42, one-time Marin County policeman and deputy sheriff who turned bank robber, died yesterday in Cleveland ,O., of a self-inflicted gunshot wound.

Baird shot himself in the head with a .38 caliber pistol when Cleveland police surrounded his getaway car after he vainly tried to rob a bank in suburban Mayfield Heights on Jan. 12.

Police said he had used the same gun 20 minutes earlier in an attempt to hold up the Central Valley National Bank. He fled without the loot when a teller, Mrs. Irene Crowe, screamed at his demand for money.

The ex-policeman had hovered between life and death in a Cleveland hospital until yesterday, the Associated Press Reported.

Baird, who was a Marin County deputy sheriff from Feb. 15, 1956 until he resigned on Oct. 16, 1959, disappeared soon after he was arrested at his Daly City home last Dec. 10 on charges of child molesting. He was accused of molesting a 12-year-old Mill Valley girl and the 9-year-old daughter of a present Marin deputy sheriff.

He pleaded innocent to the charges on Dec. 13, then skipped $1,050 bail posted by a Daly City bail bondsman. He had not been heard of until the attempted bank holdup.

Baird was formerly a Daly City policeman, quitting the force there in 1954 after being suspended for attempting to hit a police sergeant with his night stick. He served on the Sausalito police force during 1955-56.

He was a guard at San Francisco International Airport when he was arrested on the child molesting charges by Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos, Sheriff's Inspector Marco Melovich and Novato Police Chief Roy McLaren.

WONDER WHY GEZA WANTS NAME CHANGED

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A Hungarian refugee living in suburban Wilkinsburg wants to be known as Andrew G. Valley.

In a petition asking that his name be changed legally he said his present name causes embarrassment and makes it difficult for him to find a job.

His name? Geza Endre Szentgyoergyvoelgyi.

Chick Hatcheries Report 5% Drop

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Commercial chick hatcheries in California reported a drop of 5 per cent in the number of baby chicks during December.

The State Livestock Reporting Service said of the 10,256,000 baby chicks hatched, there was a drop of 3 per cent in broiler-type chicks offset by a 3 per cent increase in egg-type chicks.

Senator Smith Will Oppose McCone In CIA

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Margaret Chase Smith (R-Me.), told the Senate today she will vote against confirmation of John A. McCone as director of the Central Intelligence Agency because he is unqualified for the post.

McCone lacks special training for the post, Mrs. Smith said.

A member of the Senate Armed Services Committee, she said she will oppose McCone basically because "I do not consider him qualified for this very important position."

The Senate is expected to confirm McCone despite opposition.

Mrs. Smith said McCone conceded doubt about his qualifications.

L.A. Superintendent Seeks State Post

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Dr. Ralph E. Richardson, president of the Los Angeles City Board of Education, announced today he will seek the post of state superintendent of public instruction in the June 5 primaries.

The post will be vacated by the retirement of Roy E. Simpson.

At least three other candidates are already announced: Dr. Wallace W. Hall of Belvedere, associate state superintendent under Simpson; Dr. Cecil D. Hardesty, San Diego County superintendent, and Charles M. Berese, Sacramento junior college engineering instructor.

Richardson, 43, announced his candidacy for the nonpartisan position at a news conference in the Ambassador Hotel. He was elected to the city board of education in 1957, re-elected in 1961 and was named president of the group last July.

Since 1948, Richardson has been a member of the UCLA faculty. He also served as a government and management consultant on communications problems. In 1958 and 1959, he was a member of Gov. Edmund G. Brown's staff, holding the post of planning and research secretary with emphasis on educational problems.

"I am proud to have been a part of decisions which have shaped an already outstanding school system into a great school district," he said.

Richardson lives with his wife, Mary Louise, and four children in Woodland Hills in the San Fernando Valley. Mrs. Richardson was a former councilwoman and mayor of Culver City.

Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle, in hitting 61 and 54 home runs, respectively, in 1961, shattered the two-man season record of 107. The latter mark was set by Babe Ruth with 60 and Lou Gehrig with 47 in 1927.

$2-Million Ship Goes For $130,000

CHICAGO (UPI) — A two-million-dollar aircraft carrier, part of the largest collection of surplus goods ever offered in an one-site Defense Department auction, sold today at the bargain basement price of $130,000.

The carrier, a converted 325-foot Navy landing craft, was bought by Carlo Camossi, a Milan, Italy, business man. He said it would be converted into a floating hotel.

Camossi said the carrier, now in harbor at North Charleston, S. C., would be anchored about 1,000 feet off Milan, with possibly a ski lift built to move guests to and from shore. When converted, he said, the ship would have landing facilities for helicopters, a dance floor, and about 200 sleeping rooms.

If Camossi's plans are carried out it will be a second reconversion for the ship, which originally was built in 1945 as a landing craft. In 1961 the ship was made into a small aircraft carrier.

Camossi said he had consulted a Naval architect about his plans. He placed the winning bid after an auctioneer started the competition at $50,000, following rejection of a $25,000 bid. Burchell said the government had hoped the carrier would bring $350,000.

Senator From Kansas Named

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — James B. Pearson, 41, former Kansas Republican state chairman, was appointed to the U.S. Senate today to succeed to late Sen. Andrew F. Schoeppel, also a Republican.

Pearson of Prairie Village, a Kansas City suburb, was named by Gov. John Anderson who had earlier been considered a possible choice.

Schoeppel, a veteran conservative senator, died Jan. 21 at the Bethesda, Md., Naval Hospital of cancer.

'DREAM' HAS ENDED

Boy Stows Away On Airplane For Hawaii

CHICAGO (UPI)—"I dreamed I should go to Honolulu, Mom."

That's how 11-year-old Rickey Oprondek, Chicago, explained his stowaway trip on an American Airlines plane bound from Chicago to San Francisco Sunday.

Rickey returned home last night aboard another American Airlines flight. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Oprondek, were on hand to take him home.

"He considered it quite a lark," Mrs. Oprondek said, "so we took the advice of police and punished him by letting him stay overnight in a juvenile home."

Officers suggested the one-night detention after Rickey said "Oh boy, my picture's going to be in the newspapers and on television."

"Of course we're glad to have him back, but he needs a little punishment," Oprondek said.

Rickey was found wandering at the San Francisco airport yesterday. He told authorities he was "going to Honolulu."

An airline spokesman said the boy walked aboard a plane at Chicago's O'Hare Field Sunday night. "The stewardess assumed he had been checked for a ticket before he got aboard," the spokesman said.

Rickey was picked up in San Francisco after authorities noticed he had been hanging around the terminal two days. He admitted he flew from Chicago as a stowaway.

American Airlines put him on the first flight back to Chicago.

"Rickey didn't know how we worried about him. If he behaves after he gets out of the home I'm not going to punish him any more," the father said.

Mother Jailed In Mate's Death

SANTA ROSA (AP)—A mother of two small children was jailed today for the fatal shooting of her disabled war veteran husband.

Mrs. JoAnne Frecka, 30, was booked on suspicion of murder for the death of Lonnie Lee-Roy Frecka, 38.

Sheriff John Ellis of Sonoma County said Mrs. Frecka told him her husband came home intoxicated last night and threatened her.

She said she took a pistol from a bureau drawer and fired two shots into the floor, then a third which hit her husband in his chest.

"I was just trying to scare him," Mrs. Frecka told the sheriff.

Overseas Duty Tour Cut Down By Army

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Army today shortened extended overseas duty tours, effective July 1, and nullified extensions scheduled after Jan. 1, 1963.

The three to six-month extensions had been ordered last Oct. 1 at the height of the Berlin crisis.

The Army gave no precise figures on the number of men affected by today's order. It pointed out, however, that 42 per cent of its million-man strength is overseas, and that an average of 200,000 troops return from overseas duty each year.

Under the cutback decision, soldiers scheduled to return home in the second half of this year or early 1963 will have their overseas duty shortened from two weeks to more than two months.

The shorter cutbacks apply to those who were slated to return home in July and August.

Cities Reassured On Food Ordinance

Marin County supervisors reassured city mayors last night that a uniform city food handling ordinance won't expose the cities to new county charges.

Supervisor William Gnoss then put through a resolution putting Novato on a par with the other nine cities if they all seek county health department inspection of food handlers, for which Novato is paying on an hourly basis.

Administrator Alan Bruce said the matter needed emergency treatment because the Council of Mayors is to discuss possible new ordinances on food handling tonight.

Novato adopted the county ordinance requiring health inspections—including chest X-rays—for food handlers when it became a city. County counsel opinion was that no refund could be given Novato for fees paid up to now for the inspections by the county health department.

The other nine cities are now subject only to state law, less stringent than the county code. The county health department recently sounded an alarm on a basis of discovery of cases of tuberculosis among food handlers.

Unanimous support was given a resolution by Supervisor Peter H. Behr that any additional services by the county health office in this connection would be a county expense.

Lucille Cannon To Run For Novato Council

Mrs. Lucille Cannon, a Novato planning commissioner, announced late yesterday she would be a candidate for city council in the April 10 election.

Mrs. Cannon ran 12th in a field of 25 candidates for Novato's first city council in the incorporation election in January, 1960.

She is the wife of Robin Cannon, retired Air Force colonel. They live at 890 Tamalpais Avenue.

Mrs. Cannon was born in San Francisco in 1908. She attended Mills College and was graduated from University of California.

The Cannons have three children: Kirby, 22, a senior at University of California; David, 18, a freshman at College of Marin, and Cathy, 13, attending Hill School.

IDEA FOR SENIOR CITIZENS' RECREATION CENTER

The Marin County Board of Supervisors smiled yesterday on a proposal that the county build a recreation center for elderly citizens at the new Civic Center. Although no definite action was taken, supervisors indicated they would approve using public funds for the project. Supervisor Peter H. Behr suggested a building to cost about $100,000. The above sketch, drawn for the Marin Senior Assn. in 1954 by San Rafael architect Eugene Crawford, shows a proposal put forward then for a senior center. Crawford's current estimate of the cost: $100,000 to $125,000.

Unified District For Reed Schools Asked In Report

A unified school district on the Tiburon Peninsula would improve education and lower the tax rate, a special study committee told Reed Union School District trustees last night.

The committee was appointed by the trustees in November, 1960, to study feasibility and desirability of a unified district including Reed (which now operates elementary schools only, with high schools benig provided by Tamalpais High School District, and any other areas that might find it advantageous to join. (Small parts of the peninsula are within Larkspur and Mill Valley Elementary School Districts.)

In a lengthy report last night, the committee said a unified district would:

1. Provide better continuiey for the educational program.

2. Preclude needless overlapping.

3. Provide more flexibility in distribution of the tax dollar among high schools and elementary schools.

4. Enable the schools to more closely reflect educational objectives of the community.

5. Provide stronger voter representation on issues affecting high schools.

"The tax rate to residents of the proposed district required to finance the operation of a unified program of high quality will not be more than and probably less than the combined tax rate" of Reed District and Tamalpais High School District, said the report.

"Our residents, because of the high assessed valuation, pay approximately $750 more per student per year than it now costs to educate each high school student from our area at Redwood High School," declared the committee.

Dr. C. Earl Miller Jr., assistant professor of education at San Francisco State College, said that because the assessed valuation of the district is rising faster than the number of students, there is no question but what there will be sufficient resources to operate the high school.

The committee foresees a high school of 750 students which, Dr. T. Bentley Edwards, associate professor of education, at University of California, called that an ideal size.

"If a school is too large, local citizens lose control," he said.

Emphasizing he was taking no official position until directed by the trustees, Supt. Edward C. Pino envisioned a school breaking through traditions.

"We must get master teachers and put them in tutoring situations so that all students will benefit," he said. Pino stressed flexibility in both personnel and the physical plant to permit team teaching.

In the study, Dr. Edwards described the school of the future. A college-type program would include lectures, discussion groups, and provision for individual study. He described large groups of up to 100 attending lectures. Smaller groups or seminars would meet with help from teacher aides, interns, student teachers, or in discussions led by the pupils themselves.

He also described tutor booths employing teaching machines and laboratories as places for individual studies. He recommended language laboratories featuring glassed-in cubicles containing turntables, head phones and microphones for communicating with a teacher. He would also include workshops, libraries, music and art centers, and extensive use of audio-visual aids.

"I should like to see the heart of the school become the library instead of the office of the principal," he said.

Trustees authorized the committee to enlist community interest, to report by April 30.

Committee members are John M. Bridgman, chairman; James Atkin, Robert B. Gaw, Hamilton Holt Jr., Richard J. MacLaury, J. Donald McCune, Pino, Mrs. Allan Steinau Jr., Mrs. Joseph B. Wallace and Newton Wise.

In addition to Edwards and Miller; Edwin L. Blackmore of the Marin County superintendent's office, and Dr. Edgar Morphet, professor of education at University of California, are serving as consultants.

Behr Pushes Compact Cars On Supervisors

Survey Of Marin County-Owned Autos Approved

By RANDALL GOULD

County Supervisor Peter H. Behr of Mill Valley, only board member to operate a compact car, applied full throttle yesterday to push through an instruction to survey Marin's county-owned cars with a view to selling all non-police standard models and replacing with compacts.

Chief opposition came from Supervisor William D. Fusselman, who drives a two-ton sedan no longer manufactured. Fusselman said sheriff's cars certainly should be exempted.

Behr was willing to let the law enforcers drive "big cars."

Asst. Auditor Michael Mitchell had told the board that he was doing a complete audit of the county garage and was finding at least a half-cent increase in costs per mile lately, boosting the average from seven cents to around seven and a half.

COST HIKES?

"If there were more compact cars," said Mitchell, "we could retain our present budgeted figure of seven cents."

Fusselman asked where the cost increases had occurred. Mitchell said they've been all along the line, including first cost and upkeep, "but our compacts have fared very well." Behr cut in to say that during a year of operation none of the compacts has needed any spare parts.

"I'm curious," said Behr, "about the possibility of replacing our entire fleet with compacts, selling all our cars at auction, preferably in San Francisco. I would like to see a study made and brought to the board within three weeks to a month."

Fusselman found little merit but Public Works Director Marvin W. Brigham appeared for the idea, commenting that the county has some old little-used cars with out-of-line depreciation figures.

STUDY PLAN

Behr finally put through a motion calling for study by the administrator, auditor and Brigham, but excluding "police cars."

The discussion followed reluctant acceptance of a single bid by DeLong Chevrolet Inc. of San Rafael to furnish nine police-equipped Chevrolets at unit price of $2,146.65 each, the total outlay being reduced to $14,647.64 by several trade-ins.

Two weeks ago the board had rejected two bids as a favor to DeLong because of an obvious blunder in bidding a fair trade-in price on a wrecked sheriff's car. Yesterday the other bidder dropped out.

"Perhaps we should broaden our advertising and try for bids from the whole Bay Area," said Behr. "To take a single bid seems unfair to the taxpayers."

Permanent Exhibit Of Plants May Be Allowed At County Civic Center

Marin County nurserymen may find a chance for permanent free exhibit of their flowers and plants at the new civic center.

This possibility developed at yesterday's session of the county board of supervisors from a suggestion by Supervisor Peter H. Behr that the "well" in the administration building become a bonsai tree display.

Architect Aaron Green said a further scheme might be worked out with the nurserymen's association whereby their choicest blooms might be shown in separate and changing exhibits.

The board asked further investigation and report.

County Farm Adviser Winston L. Engvall accompanied Green and between them they gave reassurance about the "demonstration kitchen" recently reported as being crowded out of its civic center space. Engvall said the plan never had been for a "full kitchen" and indicated that space available would suffice.

The supervisors also:

1. Approved county purchasing office action to acquire five months supply of foodstuffs at a time for the county hospital kitchen through competitive bidding.

2. Certified and sent to Sacramento 376 "yes" votes to 99 "no" effecting consoldiation of the Tamalpais Valley and Homestead Fire Protection Districts.

3. Denied a petition to change boundaries of Nicasio School District to give 344 acres to Lincoln School District. Protest had been made pointing out that no children were involved and it would cut Nicasio's taxable area.

4. Continued to Feb. 13 Fred G. Zelinsky's application for adjustment to permit addition to a Marine Center building at 1650 Tiburon Boulevard.

5. Allowed construction by the Latter-day Saints Church of a chapel on 3½ acres on Lomita Drive east of Aito School.

6. Instructed the county counsel to prepare documents asked by attorney Bette P. Callahan to allow abandonment of Mira Vista roadway in the Upton Tract at Stinson Beach, the county receiving a compensatory beach strip for public use.

Negro Vice President Named By Pepsi Cola

NEW YORK (AP) — Harvey Russell, a Negro, occupied today an office that few of his race have attained: Vice president of an internationally known corporation.

"This is the most popular election of a vice president we've had in recent years," said an associate of his at the Pepsi-Cola Co.

Herbert Barnet, president, said Pepsi's board voted to make Russell vice president, special markets, strictly on merit. "It was in recognition of the great job Harvey has done," he said. Russell's salary is in the neighborhood of $20,000.

Russell, physically trim at 43, commented: "The problem my race faces is in getting to a spot in which to prove ability. Once in a position where ability counts there are very few problems."

Russell said that "until the war there wasn't much opportunity in business for the Negro. Any Negro looking for advancement had to do it in the field of education."

After the war, Russell related, things began to change.

"I personally have run into no major problems as an executive" he said. "I've had some, of course, but by and large I've found that among executives there is much more acceptance on the basis of ability than on any other basis."

Russell's first job paid him no salary for the first six months. His rise at Pepsi was not meteoric. But for 12 years he has been handling some of its toughest problems.

HARVEY RUSSELL
'Strictly on Merit'

Russell, a native of Louisville, considered a teaching career. His father was president of West Kentucky State College, his mother was a Louisville schoolteacher. His four brothers and sisters all were college graduates.

"I was going to study for a doctor's degree in sociology," he said. "Then I saw my chance to branch out after the war. Truthfully, I wanted to make some money."

His first job was with an advertising agency in New York. His second was with a cosmetics firm as a traveling representative. His third was with Pepsi.

Pepsi places emphasis on the specialized consumer market, including the Negro and African markets. Russell's job puts him in charge of all these specialized markets.

Socially, said Russell, his color has presented few problems.

"Oh, I'd like to live in another neighborhood but I can't afford it," he said with a laugh.

His present home is a one-family house in Yonkers, N.Y. where he lives with his wife, the former Jacqueline Denison of Chicago, and two adopted sons.

A-Powered Cargo Ship Puts To Sea

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP) — The NS Savannah, the world's first nuclear-powered cargo and passenger ship, put out to sea today on her maiden voyage.

The ship eased into the Delaware River from the New York Shipbuilding Corp. dock where she was built, and headed into the Atlantic on a two-day trip to Yorktown, Va.

She was operated by auxiliary power since her atomic reactor still is undergoing tests.

Korean Court Gives Three Generals Jail

SEOUL, Korea (UPI) — The Republic of Korea revolutionary court, acting hurriedly to wind up treason and corruption trials before the April 1 deadline, today handed down verdicts to 47 defendants in 20 different cases.

All but 10 were found guilty. They received sentences ranging from suspended jail terms to 15 years in prison.

Included among the guilty were two former generals, in whose behalf the United States government had intervened, and former President Syngman Rhee's private secretary, Park Chan Il, who was ordered jailed for two years on corruption charges.

Among the other defendants were hoodlums, former legislators, businessmen and socialists.

Retired Army Lt. Gen. Ham Byung Sun, charged with corruption, was among those found innocent.

Maj. Gen. Kim Ung Soo, former commander of the Sixth Corps, received a 10-year prison term. A 12-year term was ordered for former ROK Brig. Gen. Chun Kang, one-time commander of the ROK Eighth Division.

The United States had intervened in their behalf because they were charged with following the orders of American commanders to oppose the coup. Specifically, they were acting on orders from Gen. Carter Magruder, an American, in his role as commander of United Nations forces in Korea.

Joint San Jose, Novato Meeting Off

A joint meeting of the San Jose and Novato school district boards, originally set for tonight, has been postponed until 7:30 p.m. Monday in the Novato School Administration Building.

Several members of the San Jose board could not attend tonight, said Supt. Philip Schneider of the San Jose district.

Board Decides On Position Of Coroner

Marin County supervisors decided late yesterday that the office of county coroner should be a salaried position, but should not be combined with that of sheriff.

This followed recommendation of the county grand jury auditor, but disappointed undertakers who had fought hard for a basic change in the present system.

During much of the meeting Supervisor Peter H. Behr had carried the fight for change while William D. Fusselman counseled delay in any decision, demanding tape recording to give absent Supervisor George Ludy background.

However, the supervisors were told next Monday would be the last day possible for basic changes concerning an elective office to be filled this year.

Behr praised Bruce's report as "splendid," said that undoubtedly "under ideal circumstances" there would be a combination of offices as done in some other counties, but said there were special circumstances in Marin including "complete faith in the ability of the coroner" and the policy of conducting autopsies in all cases.

"Therefore," Behr concluded, "I am by no means convinced that there should be change except to change to a salaried rather than a fee basis."

"I'm inclined to agree and if you'll move, I'll second," responded Fusselman. The motion passed unanimously.

The amount of salary is to be decided by the board next Tuesday. It was agreed that the average in fees should be a governing factor. Asst. Auditor Michael Mitchell said that during the past three years, fees have been under $9,000 annually.

Jack Paar Announces Replacement On Show

NEW YORK (AP)—Jack Paar said on his television show last night that Johnny Carson will replace him starting Oct. 1.

Paar said he would leave the late night show at the end of March, as previously announced. There was no immediate indication as to who would fill in for him until October. NBC declined comment.

Episcopalians Give Too Little, Pike Says

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Episcopalians give too little to their church, says the Rt. Rev. James A. Pike, bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of California.

"Our rate of response among people who statistically have the highest income in the nation," the bishop said, "is so wretched that it should indicate that we are sick . . . religiously speaking."

5. Provide stronger voter representation on issues affecting high schools.

"The tax rate to residents of the proposed district required to finance the operation of a unified program of high quality will not be more than and probably less than the combined tax rate" of Reed District and Tamalpais High School District, said the report.

"Our residents, because of the high assessed valuation, pay approximately $750 more per student per year than it now costs to educate each high school student from our area at Redwood High School," declared the committee.

Dr. C. Earl Miller Jr., assistant professor of education at San Francisco State College, said that because the assessed valuation of the district is rising faster than the number of students, there is no question but what there will be sufficient resources to operate the high school.

The committee foresees a high school of 750 students which, Dr. T. Bentley Edwards, associate professor of education, at University of California, called that an ideal size.

"If a school is too large, local citizens lose control," he said.

Emphasizing he was taking no official position until directed by the trustees, Supt. Edward C. Pino envisioned a school breaking through traditions.

"We must get master teachers and put them in tutoring situations so that all students will benefit," he said. Pino stressed flexibility in both personnel and the physical plant to permit team teaching.

In the study, Dr. Edwards described the school of the future. A college-type program would include lectures, discussion groups, and provision for individual study. He described large groups of up to 100 attending lectures. Smaller groups or seminars would meet with help from teacher aides, interns, student teachers, or in discussions led by the pupils themselves.

He also described tutor booths employing teaching machines and laboratories as places for individual studies. He recommended language laboratories featuring glassed-in cubicles containing turntables, head phones and microphones for communicating with a teacher. He would also include workshops, libraries, music and art centers, and extensive use of audio-visual aids.

"I should like to see the heart of the school become the library instead of the office of the principal," he said.

Trustees authorized the committee to enlist community interest, to report by April 30.

Committee members are John M. Bridgman, chairman; James Atkin, Robert B. Gaw, Hamilton Holt Jr., Richard J. MacLaury, J. Donald McCune, Pino, Mrs. Allan Steinau Jr., Mrs. Joseph B. Wallace and Newton Wise.

In addition to Edwards and Miller; Edwin L. Blackmore of the Marin County superintendent's office, and Dr. Edgar Morphet, professor of education at University of California, are serving as consultants.

Behr Pushes Compact Cars On Supervisors

Survey Of Marin County-Owned Autos Approved

By RANDALL GOULD

County Supervisor Peter H. Behr of Mill Valley, only board member to operate a compact car, applied full throttle yesterday to push through an instruction to survey Marin's county-owned cars with a view to selling all non-police standard models and replacing with compacts.

Chief opposition came from Supervisor William D. Fusselman, who drives a two-ton sedan no longer manufactured. Fusselman said sheriff's cars certainly should be exempted.

Behr was willing to let the law enforcers drive "big cars."

Asst. Auditor Michael Mitchell had told the board that he was doing a complete audit of the county garage and was finding at least a half-cent increase in costs per mile lately, boosting the average from seven cents to around seven and a half.

COST HIKES?

"If there were more compact cars," said Mitchell, "we could retain our present budgeted figure of seven cents."

Fusselman asked where the cost increases had occurred. Mitchell said they've been all along the line, including first cost and upkeep, "but our compacts have fared very well." Behr cut in to say that during a year of operation none of the compacts has needed any spare parts.

"I'm curious," said Behr, "about the possibility of replacing our entire fleet with compacts, selling all our cars at auction, preferably in San Francisco. I would like to see a study made and brought to the board within three weeks to a month."

Fusselman found little merit but Public Works Director Marvin W. Brigham appeared for the idea, commenting that the county has some old little-used cars with out-of-line depreciation figures.

STUDY PLAN

Behr finally put through a motion calling for study by the administrator, auditor and Brigham, but excluding "police cars."

The discussion followed reluctant acceptance of a single bid by DeLong Chevrolet Inc. of San Rafael to furnish nine police-equipped Chevrolets at unit price of $2,146.65 each, the total outlay being reduced to $14,647.64 by several trade-ins.

Two weeks ago the board had rejected two bids as a favor to DeLong because of an obvious blunder in bidding a fair trade-in price on a wrecked sheriff's car. Yesterday the other bidder dropped out.

"Perhaps we should broaden our advertising and try for bids from the whole Bay Area," said Behr. "To take a single bid seems unfair to the taxpayers."

Permanent Exhibit Of Plants May Be Allowed At County Civic Center

Marin County nurserymen may find a chance for permanent free exhibit of their flowers and plants at the new civic center.

This possibility developed at yesterday's session of the county board of supervisors from a suggestion by Supervisor Peter H. Behr that the "well" in the administration building become a bonsai tree display.

Architect Aaron Green said a further scheme might be worked out with the nurserymen's association whereby their choicest blooms might be shown in separate and changing exhibits.

The board asked further investigation and report.

County Farm Adviser Winston L. Engvall accompanied Green and between them they gave reassurance about the "demonstration kitchen" recently reported as being crowded out of its civic center space. Engvall said the plan never had been for a "full kitchen" and indicated that space available would suffice.

The supervisors also:

1. Approved county purchasing office action to acquire five months supply of foodstuffs at a time for the county hospital kitchen through competitive bidding.

2. Certified and sent to Sacramento 376 "yes" votes to 99 "no" effecting consoldiation of the Tamalpais Valley and Homestead Fire Protection Districts.

3. Denied a petition to change boundaries of Nicasio School District to give 344 acres to Lincoln School District. Protest had been made pointing out that no children were involved and it would cut Nicasio's taxable area.

4. Continued to Feb. 13 Fred G. Zelinsky's application for adjustment to permit addition to a Marine Center building at 1650 Tiburon Boulevard.

5. Allowed construction by the Latter-day Saints Church of a chapel on 3½ acres on Lomita Drive east of Alto School.

6. Instructed the county counsel to prepare documents asked by attorney Bette P. Callahan to allow abandonment of Mira Vista roadway in the Upton Tract at Stinson Beach, the county receiving a compensatory beach strip for public use.

Negro Vice President Named By Pepsi Cola

NEW YORK (AP) — Harvey Russell, a Negro, occupied today an office that few of his race have attained: Vice president of an internationally known corporation.

"This is the most popular election of a vice president we've had in recent years," said an associate of his at the Pepsi-Cola Co.

Herbert Barnet, president, said Pepsi's board voted to make Russell vice president, special markets, strictly on merit. "It was in recognition of the great job Harvey has done," he said. Russell's salary is in the neighborhood of $20,000.

Russell, physically trim at 43, commented: "The problem my race faces is in getting to a spot in which to prove ability. Once in a position where ability counts there are very few problems."

Russell said that "until the war there wasn't much opportunity in business for the Negro. Any Negro looking for advancement had to do it in the field of education."

After the war, Russell related, things began to change.

"I personally have run into no major problems as an executive" he said. "I've had some, of course, but by and large I've found that among executives there is much more acceptance on the basis of ability than on any other basis."

Russell's first job paid him no salary for the first six months. His rise at Pepsi was not meteoric. But for 12 years he has been handling some of its toughest problems.

HARVEY RUSSELL
'Strictly on Merit'

Russell, a native of Louisville, considered a teaching career. His father was president of West Kentucky State College, his mother was a Louisville schoolteacher. His four brothers and sisters all were college graduates.

"I was going to study for a doctor's degree in sociology," he said. "Then I saw my chance to branch out after the war. Truthfully, I wanted to make some money."

His first job was with an advertising agency in New York. His second was with a cosmetics firm as a traveling representative. His third was with Pepsi.

Pepsi places emphasis on the specialized consumer market, including the Negro and African markets. Russell's job puts him in charge of all these specialized markets.

Socially, said Russell, his color has presented few problems.

"Oh, I'd like to live in another neighborhood but I can't afford it," he said with a laugh.

His present home is a one-family house in Yonkers, N.Y. where he lives with his wife, the former Jacqueline Denison of Chicago, and two adopted sons.

A-Powered Cargo Ship Puts To Sea

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP) — The NS Savannah, the world's first nuclear-powered cargo and passenger ship, put out to sea today on her maiden voyage.

The ship eased into the Delaware River from the New York Shipbuilding Corp. dock where she was built, and headed into the Atlantic on a two-day trip to Yorktown, Va.

She was operated by auxiliary power since her atomic reactor still is undergoing tests.

Korean Court Gives Three Generals Jail

SEOUL, Korea (UPI) — The Republic of Korea revolutionary court, acting hurriedly to wind up treason and corruption trials before the April 1 deadline, today handed down verdicts to 47 defendants in 20 different cases.

All but 10 were found guilty. They received sentences ranging from suspended jail terms to 15 years in prison.

Included among the guilty were two former generals, in whose behalf the United States government had intervened, and former President Syngman Rhee's private secretary, Park Chan Il, who was ordered jailed for two years on corruption charges.

Among the other defendants were hoodlums, former legislators, businessmen and socialists.

Retired Army Lt. Gen. Ham Byung Sun, charged with corruption, was among those found innocent.

Maj. Gen. Kim Ung Soo, former commander of the Sixth Corps, received a 10-year prison term. A 12-year term was ordered for former ROK Brig. Gen. Chun Kang, one-time commander of the ROK Eighth Division.

The United States had intervened in their behalf because they were charged with following the orders of American commanders to oppose the coup. Specifically, they were acting on orders from Gen. Carter Magruder, an American, in his role as commander of United Nations forces in Korea.

Joint San Jose, Novato Meeting Off

A joint meeting of the San Jose and Novato school district boards, originally set for tonight, has been postponed until 7:30 p.m. Monday in the Novato School Administration Building.

Several members of the San Jose board could not attend tonight, said Supt. Philip Schneider of the San Jose district.

Board Decides On Position Of Coroner

Marin County supervisors decided late yesterday that the office of county coroner should be a salaried position, but should not be combined with that of sheriff.

This followed recommendation of the county grand jury auditor, but disappointed undertakers who had fought hard for a basic change in the present system.

During much of the meeting Supervisor Peter H. Behr had carried the fight for change while William D. Fusselman counseled delay in any decision, demanding tape recording to give absent Supervisor George Ludy background.

However, the supervisors were told next Monday would be the last day possible for basic changes concerning an elective office to be filled this year.

Behr praised Bruce's report as "splendid," said that undoubtedly "under ideal circumstances" there would be a combination of offices as done in some other counties, but said there were special circumstances in Marin including "complete faith in the ability of the coroner" and the policy of conducting autopsies in all cases.

"Therefore," Behr concluded, "I am by no means convinced that there should be change except to change to a salaried rather than a fee basis."

"I'm inclined to agree and if you'll move, I'll second," responded Fusselman. The motion passed unanimously.

The amount of salary is to be decided by the board next Tuesday. It was agreed that the average in fees should be a governing factor. Asst. Auditor Michael Mitchell said that during the past three years, fees have been under $9,000 annually.

Jack Paar Announces Replacement On Show

NEW YORK (AP)—Jack Paar said on his television show last night that Johnny Carson will replace him starting Oct. 1.

Paar said he would leave the late night show at the end of March, as previously announced. There was no immediate indication as to who would fill in for him until October. NBC declined comment.

Episcopalians Give Too Little, Pike Says

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Episcopalians give too little to their church, says the Rt. Rev. James A. Pike, bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of California.

"Our rate of response among people who statistically have the highest income in the nation," the bishop said, "is so wretched that it should indicate that we are sick . . . religiously speaking."

PREP BASKETBALL

Drake Five Upsets North Bay Leaders

Sir Francis Drake and San Rafael high schools won their practice cage games yesterday; Tamalpais and Redwood lost theirs.

The Drake Pirates scored a victory over North Bay League leaders Petaluma 36-35; San Rafael easily won its fourth straight by dumping DeAnza of Richmond 57-43; despite Giant Jay Johnson's 33 points, Redwood was edged by the College of Marin "junior varsity" 58-55, and Tam went under to a powerful Santa Rosa squad 53-38.

Marin Catholic and Novato were idle yesterday.

The Petaluma egg men couldn't believe their eyes yesterday as coach Carl Brown's Pirates, who at one point in the first half were behind 21-5, and at the mid-way horn were behind 23-7, roared back like hungry Fleishhacker lions. In the third period, with Brad Busch carrying the flag, Drake tallied 15 points, tied the score in the final period and at the final two minute mark was ahead 34-33.

Brown described his squad as playing as poorly as it ever has during the first half and as well as it ever has during the second portion of the game. Brown said at halftime he was hoping the Pirates would just make the score a decent loss.

CORRECTED MISTAKES

"They corrected all their mistakes of the first half and hustled real well," said a happy coach. It was the Pirates' second straight victory after a string of losses.

Brown gave much of the credit for the victory to his reserves. He mentioned Steve Purcell and John Wallace. The former scored four points in the second half and Wallace was a standout rebounder against a 6-foot-7 opponent center. The third quarter assault was mostly the combined work of Busch, who tallied six, and Mark Boero, the symbol of what Drake can do when they hustle as a team. Busch was high man with a total of 14 for the day, 12 of which were bucketed in the second half. Boero tallied nine.

The Drake Bs also won, 35-21.

Even when San Rafael fails to perform at its best, the Bulldogs still seem to stay king of the mountain. That's the way it was yesterday as they beat DeAnza. The Marin team had only a two point lead at the end of the first period, but lost it to a 21-21 tie at the half.

BULLDOGS RALLY

San Rafael's Rich Robertson, a highly competitive player both in basketball and on the gridiron, by the third quarter grew weary of San Rafael's dilly dally with a lesser team. He blasted off 13 points against De Anza on inside jump and layup shots. When teammates Rod Monti and Jack Soveriegn saw Robertson was determined and hitting they fed him the leather. Robertson ended up high man of the day with 21 counts. Monti, who still must favor his injured ankle, tallied a healthy 15.

Redwood, after leading the College of Marin's Junior Varsity, which consisted of some first stringers, for much of the game, bowed out in the second half as Tar Steve Bryant scored 10 points in the second half against the Giants.

Butt he real star of the contest was the losing team's Jay Johnson. He tallied an amazing 33 points to push his season total to 320 and his game average to 18.8.

Top scorer for Marin was Randy Petrini with 18 points. Standout rebounders were Pete Coy of Redood and Bill Wallace of the college. Tod Lindner of the Giants turned in a commenable performance in the place of injured first stringer Grant Stephenson.

Tam did well holding on against Santa Rosa until the second half. The Indians were down only one point at the conclusion of the first period, and the halftime score was 23-20 with Tam behind. But Santa Rosa went wild in that last half to hit 54 per cent of their attempts. The scores were made from outside a tight Indian defensive perimeter.

Pete Bardea scored a high of 11 points for the Marin team and Art Ford 10. Ellis Williams and Warren Domino were the outstanding ball handlers and defensive players for Tam. Coach Eddie Chavez of the Indians said he was satisfied with his team's performance.

Dark Drops A Bombshell At Banquet; Says McCovey To Try The Outfield

PALO ALTO (UPI) — Willie McCovey will be given a shot at playing outfield for the San Francisco Giants, according to Manager Alvin Dark.

Dark offered this bombshell announcement at the 15th annual Palo Alto Club sports banquet last night.

For the past two sseasons, the Giants have either placed McCovey at first and hard-hitting Orlando Cepeda in the outfield, or else put Cepeda on first and benched McCovey.

The dilemma has been compounded by the fact that Cepeda has repeatedly said he prefers to play first and hits better when playing there.

McCovey's fielding lapses at first have also brought much criticism although he has shown enough brute power at the plate to make the Giants hesitant to bench him.

Dark has said that Cepeda will play first this year and last night filled out the picture when he added "we'll give McCovey an outfielder's glove and see if he can play there."

Dark told the banquet that he thought the Giants have "a good chance" to win the pennant. "I like our pitching staff and I like our club," he said.

Chon Callegos received the Pop Warner Memorial Award as the west coast's most valuable senior college football player in 1961. Gallegos led the nation in passing while quarterbacking San Jose State.

CONNOLLY

A lefthanded pitcher but a right-handed speaker—that is Walter "The Great" Mails, presently head of the S.F. Giants' Speakers Bureau, who rolled the Marin County Realtors in the aisles at their weekly breakfast meeting in San Rafael yesterday.

Mails, claiming to be the oldest resident in Marin County, dating better than 100 years, discussed real estate as well as baseball and, with his happy recollections of this area, proved quite a talker, historian and story teller.

"The old prison site in California in the late 1850's," Mails related, "was on a barge at Vallejo. "During a storm there, the barge broke loose from its mooring and drifted to Marin City, now known as San Quentin.

"My grandfather owned a hotel there and prisoners waited on the table, made the beds and kept the town clean. There were four saloons in the area and the Old Shepard Hotel really made grandpa a wealthy man."

MAILS, BORN at San Quentin, lived there until he entered professional baseball. His mother lived there for 82 years and died there while postmistress.

When he first went to the major leagues the newspaper fellows would ask him if he lived in San Rafael.

"No," Mails replied, "I live in San Quentin Village. They had never heard of San Quentin then."

Mails, now pressing 67 years of age, told of his first job in baseball with the old Seattle club of the Northwest League.

"I showed up there with a straw suitcase after a nine-day boat trip and had to ask a cop where the hotel was. On arriving the hotel clerk asked me whether I wanted European or American Plan.

"Oh, I'll just take whatever you got," Mails said, "I'm not particular. Why should I? Up until that time I'd never heard of the European or American Plan, not even the Morris Plan.

"YOU REAL estate people haven't even scratched the surface in this county," Mails told the realtors. "The potential is huge and with another bridge and monorail, Marin County will be second only to Alameda County in northern California."

Mails told a couple of good ones on himself:

"I was always considered as having the best 'move' to first base," related Walter. "While with the Brooklyn club, I walked a batter and the manager ran out to tell the baserunner to look out, or I'd catch him off first base.

"And do you know," said Mails, "that I caught him off first base between taps."

"WHEN I was a young fellow," Mails related, "they said I was a good looking chap. Now after looking this crowd over, I still think I'm good looking."

One of the most hilarous of stories told by Mails was while he was pitching for the Cleveland club against the N.Y. Yankees.

"I had the bags loaded and Bob Meusel, Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig coming up," Mails related. "I wanted outta there, so I walked up to the plate umpire who had been missing them all day and said to him: 'Giesel, how do you spell your name?"

He replied, 'G-I-E-S-E-L'.

"To which I replied, 'I thought so. With only one eye, eh'?" Mails was immediately tossed out of the game.

AS HE handed the ball over to the relief pitcher, Mails said: "Don't worry, kid. You only have to pitch to Meusel, hitting .348; Ruth, .430 and Gehrig, .386. Good luck!"

Mails told a story on Stu Miller, the Giants butterfly pitcher: "He's slower than Art Shallock," former Yankee southpaw who was in attendance.

"Miller throws a ball that stops half way to the plate and then continues on its way. No wonder he's so effective."

In his concluding remarks Mails paid high tribute to Horace Stoneham, S.F. Giant owner.

"He's the best thing that hit California since the gold strike."

Big Jackpot For Pros In Palm Springs Golf

PALM SPRINGS, (AP) — Aiming at a $50,000 purse, as well as a $50,000 bonus for anyone fortunate enough to score a hole-in-one, 128 professional golfers opened fire today in the third annual Palm Springs Classic.

The unique 90-hole tournament, played over four courses each day for the first four, winds up Sunday on still a fifth course, scenic Bermuda Dunes Country Club.

The reason for the multiplicity of courses is that for 72 holes each pro plays with three amateur partners, swelling the roster to 512 players. The event is the fifth of the 1962 winter tour in California. There have been four different winners at each stop.

The younger fellows, Phil Rodgers at Los Angeles and Tommy Jacobs at San Diego, captured the first two.

Veteran Doug Ford won Bing Crosby's weather-battered affair at Pebble Beach and National Open champion Gene Littler prevailed at San Francisco last week.

Still waiting to make even a loud noise in any of the tournaments are Masters champion Gary Player and ex-Masters winner Arnold Palmer. The latter launched the first of two great years in winning the Palm Springs Classic two years ago.

Today's tournament sites were Tamarisk, Indian Wells and Eldorado, each a par 36-36-72, and Thunderbird, 36-35-71.

By chance, Tamarisk drew most of the stars—Palmer, Littler, Player, 1961 Amateur champ and newly turned pro Jack Nicklaus, and Sam Snead.

Last year's tournament winner, Billy Maxwell, whose total of 345 strokes was 14 under par, played Eldorado.

Redwood Hoopsters Defeat S.R. Cadets

The San Rafael Military Academy cagers went under again yesterday.

This time to the Redwood Junior Varsity, 49-33. High point men were Jim Carroll with 12 and Dave Auerbach with 10, both of Redwood. Cadet star Terry Hoffman was held to five points by the Giants.

The Redwood Frosh team clobbered the Cadet Bs, 30-19. Giant Tom Bly was the big gun, scoring 11 points.

TITTLE NOT SURE IF HE'LL PLAY AGAIN

PALO ALTO (AP)—Veteran quarterback Y. A. Tittle of the New York Giants said he doesn't know if he'll play in 1962, but if he does this will be his last season.

He spoke last night at the 15th annual "Million Dollar Banquet" of the Palo Alto Club.

Tittle proved instrumental in New York's winning the National Football League Eastern Division championship last season.

"I don't know if I'm going to play next season," said the veteran quarterback who operates an insurance business here, "but if I do, I'm really going to hang 'em up after it's over."

Hole-In-One At Gallinas Course

Ed Collins, owner of the Tam Fence Co. on the Redwood Highway at Terra Linda, scored a hole-in-one at the Las Gallinas Golf Course yesterday, reported professional Jim Perrin.

Collins aced the 170-yard fifth hole using a three-iron. Witnesses to the ace were not identified.

49ers Collar Big Lineman

The San Francisco 49ers today announced the signing of three more hefty linemen picked in the National Football League draft.

They are Jerry Brown, University of Mississippi guard, 6th round choice; Regis Coustillac, University of Pittsburgh guard, 10th round pick; and Ron Frank, South Dakota State tackle, 16th round choice.

Brown, 6-foot-1 and 226 pounds, was one of the top linemen in the Southeastern Conference and was recommended highly by Bill Johnson, 49er offensive line mentor.

Coustillac, 6-foot-2 and 224, received the stamp of approval from Lynn Waldorf, 49er scout. Waldorf said Coustillac might make it either in the offensive line or at line-backer.

Frank, 6-foot-6 and 232 pounds, is expected to gain even more weight by the 1962 campaign.

Drake Five Upsets North Bay Leaders

Sir Francis Drake and San Rafael high schools won their practice cage games yesterday; Tamalpais and Redwood lost theirs.

The Drake Pirates scored a victory over North Bay League leaders Petaluma 36-35; San Rafael easily won its fourth straight by dumping DeAnza of Richmond 57-43; despite Giant Jay Johnson's 33 points, Redwood was edged by the College of Marin "junior varsity" 58-55, and Tam went under to a powerful Santa Rosa squad 53-38.

Marin Catholic and Novato were idle yesterday.

The Petaluma egg men couldn't believe their eyes yesterday as coach Carl Brown's Pirates, who at one point in the first half were behind 21-5, and at the mid-way horn were behind 23-7, roared back like hungry Fleishhacker lions. In the third period, with Brad Busch carrying the flag, Drake tallied 15 points, tied the score in the final period and at the final two minute mark was ahead 34-33.

Brown described his squad as playing as poorly as it ever has during the first half and as well as it ever has during the second portion of the game. Brown said at halftime he was hoping the Pirates would just make the score a decent loss.

CORRECTED MISTAKES

"They corrected all their mistakes of the first half and hustled real well," said a happy coach. It was the Pirates' second straight victory after a string of losses.

Brown gave much of the credit for the victory to his reserves. He mentioned Steve Purcell and John Wallace. The former scored four points in the second half and Wallace was a standout rebounder against a 6-foot-7 opponent center. The third quarter assault was mostly the combined work of Busch, who tallied six, and Mark Boero, the symbol of what Drake can do when they hustle as a team. Busch was high man with a total of 14 for the day, 12 of which were bucketed in the second half. Boero tallied nine.

The Drake Bs also won, 35-21.

Even when San Rafael fails to perform at its best, the Bulldogs still seem to stay king of the mountain. That's the way it was yesterday as they beat DeAnza. The Marin team had only a two point lead at the end of the first period, but lost it to a 21-21 tie at the half.

BULLDOGS RALLY

San Rafael's Rich Robertson, a highly competitive player both in basketball and on the gridiron, by the third quarter grew weary of San Rafael's dilly dally with a lesser team. He blasted off 13 points against De Anza on inside jump and layup shots. When teammates Rod Monti and Jack Soveriegn saw Robertson was determined and hitting they fed him the leather. Robertson ended up high man of the day with 21 counts. Monti, who still must favor his injured ankle, tallied a healthy 15.

Redwood, after leading the College of Marin's Junior Varsity, which consisted of some first stringers, for much of the game, bowed out in the second half as Tar Steve Bryant scored 10 points in the second half against the Giants.

Butt he real star of the contest was the losing team's Jay Johnson. He tallied an amazing 33 points to push his season total to 320 and his game average to 18.8.

Top scorer for Marin was Randy Petrini with 18 points. Standout rebounders were Pete Coy of Redood and Bill Wallace of the college. Tod Lindner of the Giants turned in a commenable performance in the place of injured first stringer Grant Stephenson.

Tom McNeeley Still Thinks He Can Fight

By OSCAR FRALEY

MIAMI (UPI) — Tom McNeeley is getting ready to try it again today, and if he's lucky it could be the last time.

The big Irishman who loves to fight, and proved against Floyd Patterson that he can't, will give it another go at Miami Beach Convention Hall on Feb. 21. The probable opponent will be Jefferson Davis of Las Vegas.

It's a bout indicative of the shape of things in the bloody business of boxing these days.

"I left it up to him," said Peter Fuller, McNeeley's blue blood manager. "If he looks bad, I'll make him quit and get a job."

Fuller, a son of a former governor of Massachusetts, is a fine gentleman. But you'd think that a fellow who graduated from Harvard would have learned by now that McNeeley's being a somehow descendant of John L. Sullivan doesn't qualify him as a tiger in the jabbing jungle.

Patterson bounced McNeeley around with all the facility of Bob Cousy dribbling a basketball. Subsequently, young Tom took a drubbing from one Don Prout, who was no less than one of McNeeley's sparmates in the golden days of the Patterson buildup.

Fuller, out of his fondness for McNeeley, is willing to allow the well-thumped Thomas another shot at the large serial numbers. Most unusual, however, is that Fuller defends throwing his inept warrior into the pit against Patterson on the grounds that Floyd's chin "is suspect."

This is regarded in certain quarters fully as faulty as Fuller's contention that Sonny Liston should get a crack at the heavyweight title because "we always must recognize ability."

There is no recent denial of the fact that Liston has, does and probably always will take his directions from Blinky Palermo. This is the same Blinky currently appealing a long term prison sentence after conviction of conspiring with such as Frankie Carbo to control the destinies of various gladiators and the baubles known among the cauliflower set as "titles."

"You never say goodbye to people like that," Fuller admits.

Cus D'Amato, Patterson's manager, long has been derided for carefully choosing opponents who couldn't knock out a pane of glass with a mallet. When it comes to such sterling rivals as Pete Rademacher and Brian London, Cus deserved all the verbal assault he received.

But when he blows the whistle against Liston, despite Fuller's contention that surly Sonny deserves a shot "for the good of boxing," there is strong support for D'Amato. World champions still are regarded by youngsters as extra-ordinary people and to have one who even allegedly is run by mobsters would, and should, clear the way for federal abolition of the sport.

Fuller asserts that such as Patterson, Liston, Eddie Machen and Zora Folley would be "legitimate contenders" in any era. It's surprising that he fits Patterson, the champion, and Liston both into this category.

Liston because a contender should unquestionably be "legitimate" in every way. And one veteran boxing man recently tried to buy Liston's contract but couldn't get it "clean."

McNeeley, even if he could fight, still would be better off with a job.

Novato Tops Tam In First Marin Wrestling Contests

Eugene Loewen of Novato High came out as strong man yesterday in a historical wrestling match between the north Marin school and Tamalpais High.

It was the first time a formal wrestling contest had been held involving two Marin County Athletic League teams. It was Ralph Cutler's Hornets' Day as coach Pete Belden's Indian varsity was outpointed 37-9, and junior varsity 34-13.

Lowen scored two significant victories yesterday. He won a 175-pound contest by a fall and then the quick athlete went against Irv Sutley of Tam in the 191-pound class and won 8-2. Sutley had lost only once before, and it was to Loewen in a practice match.

Elmer Collet, Tam's 6-1, 205-pound football tackle, whipped Ron Heidinger, Novato's six-foot, 208-pound football end, by a 4-0 decision in the unlimited class.

Other varsity winners: 103-pounds, Brock Allen of Tam, 8-4; 112, Bill Carrigan, Novato, fall; 120, Nick Zilka, Tam, 7-0; 127, Bob Renati, Novato, 6-0; 133, Wally Halkovich, fall; 138, Mike Patterson, Novato, 3-2; 145, Rocky Waite, Novato, fall; 154, Doug Simpson, Novato, fall; 165, Len Williams, Novato, 6-5.

Junior varsity winners: (four weights forfeited) 133, Tom Cooper, Novato, fall; 138, Terry Buettner, 10-6; 145, Carl Jensen, Novato, 4-2; 154, Carl Geissinger, Tam, fall; 165, Steve Bush, Tam, fall; 175, Novato, John Weeks, 4-1; unlimited, Fred Fellows, Tam, 15-1; exhibition, Ron Tieche.

RED FACED SPARTANS

San Jose Forfeit Shakes Up League

The West Coast Athletic Conference cage race was a shambles today following the forfeit of three league wins by co-leader San Jose State.

The red-faced Spartans yesterday disclosed that star center Joe Braun had been ineligible all year. For that reason they forfeited all nine winning games in which he had appeared and their season mark of 11-4 suddenly became 2-13 and 0-3 in WCAC play.

It seems that Braun had performed for two years for Southern California before transferring to San Jose and then had told the Spartans he played only one season for USC.

"We still consider Braun a fine boy," said physical education director Walt McPherson. "We just wish he had a better memory."

This gave St. Mary's, Pacific, and USF unexpected wins and pushed St. Mary's into second place with a 2-0 record. Loyola is now undisputed leader with a 3-0 mark.

STANFORD WINS

In action on the court last night, two of the west's best met at San Jose with Stanford squeezing out a 45-41 win over Santa Clara.

Both teams had trouble locating the basket and the difference was Stanford veteran John Windsor who hit 20 points and always seemed to be able to get two points when the Cards needed them.

This left Stanford with a 14-4 record and the Broncs at 12-4. Leroy Jackson had 19 for the losers, who showed the effects of their two-week lay-off with their poor shooting.

USF nipped Pacific, 57-56 when Bob Gaillard hit a 12-foot jump shot at the final buzzer. Pacific built up a lead behind Kent Stanley's 22 points and then tried to stall.

But Pacific missed a shot with 35 seconds to go and USF managed to convert the break into victory. It was the Dons' second league win. Their first one had come a few hours earlier when San Jose State handed it to them.

MONEY WILL BE GIVEN CRASH VICTIMS

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A check for $171,000 will be presented to California Polytechnic College Friday night in San Luis Obispo, representing proceeds from the Mercy Bowl football game here last Thanksgiving.

The money will be administered for victims and families of victims of the air crash in Toledo, Ohio, where 16 Cal Poly players died in the wreck of a chartered airliner. Twenty-three others were injured, many of whom will require medical attention for years.

The money raised will be used to pay medical expenses and to provide for the families of the players killed.

Total receipts for the football game, played between Fresno State and Bowling Green, were $201,464 and expenses were $29,706.

Cepeda Nixes 33 Pct. Hike To $37,500

The San Francisco Giants entered their first big contract hassle of the season today with Orlando Cepeda, the fence busting first baseman, firing back a contract that may have been worth $37,000.

"We offered him a 33⅓ per cent raise and he rejected it," said club vice president Charles (Chub) Feeney yesterday. "But we are continuing negotiations in a very friendly fashion."

Feeney would not comment on reports that Cepeda was trying to get a $55,000 pact.

The 25-year-old Puerto Rican, who led the National League in home runs and runs batted in last season, is believed to have played for $27,500 in 1961. A 33⅓ per cent raise would lift him into the $37,000 class.

After getting off to a slow start last year, Cepeda won the league home run title with 46 and drove in 142 runs to take that title as well. His batting average was .311.

WINTER SEASON

Orlando has just finished a big season of winter ball, winning the Puerto Rican League home run crown with 19 to go with a .308 batting average.

On a calmer note, the Giants announced that they had signed three more rookies to bring the roster up to 21.

They were outfielders George Perry and Manuel Mota along with lefthanded pitcher Dan Rivas.

Perry, 27, hit 22 home runs while batting .280 at Tacoma last season. Mota had a .289 mark with the same club and Rivas posted a 9-8 record at Victoria of the Texas League. He was a 15-game winner at Fresno of the California League in 1960.

Mota and Rivas hail from the Dominican Republic.

Hot-Tempered Saints Host N.Y. Tonight

The San Francisco Saints, a hot-handed and hot-tempered outfit since Al Brightman took over as head coach, seek to win their eighth stranght tonight when they tangle with the New York Tapers in an ABL contest at San Francisco's Civic Auditorium.

Brightman's Bombardiers go into the contest fresh from sweeping a pair of wild decisions from Kansas City, which rolled to the first half playoff title. The Saints currently pace the Western Division with a 7-0 mark. New York, coached by Stan Stutz, is in the lower regions of the eastern race as was the case during the first ralf of the campaign.

So far, the Saints have downed the Tapers four out of five times but Brightman is playing it humble.

"New York is no longer a doormat club," he said. "We will be fortunate to win this time as they have some new talent."

This includes Dan Swartz, salvaged from the long-gone Los Angeles Jets, and Jack Adams and Roger Taylor who performed with Cleveland.

The Saints, Brightman said, are "in top physical shape."

Ben Medina Outpoints Riojas Of Santa Ana

FRESNO (AP)—Ben Medina, 140 pounds, of Fresno, stopped Ray Riojas, 140 pounds, of Santa Ana last night in the final round of a scheduled 10-round fight.

Riojas had knocked out Medina in a fight in Los Angeles last year.

There were no knockdowns last night. A ringside doctor stopped the fight when Riojas suffered a cut lip that bled profusely.

Meadow Club Elects Figone

Fred Figone is the newly elected president of the Meadow Club.

Selected at the annual meeting this past weekend to serve with him were Rudy Lang, vice-president; Arthur Latno, treasurer, and William McDevitt, secretary.

Named to the board of directors were Jack Cooper, Alfred Quilici, J. William Zimmerman, Figone, Lang, Latno and McDevitt.

HODGES SIGNS

Veteran first baseman Gil Hodges poses with a 1962 contract form in his pocket after signing it with the New York Mets yesterday. Tom McNeeley Still Thinks He Can Fight

By OSCAR FRALEY

MIAMI (UPI) — Tom McNeeley is getting ready to try it again today, and if he's lucky it could be the last time.

The big Irishman who loves to fight, and proved against Floyd Patterson that he can't, will give it another go at Miami Beach Convention Hall on Feb. 21. The probable opponent will be Jefferson Davis of Las Vegas.

It's a bout indicative of the shape of things in the bloody business of boxing these days.

"I left it up to him," said Peter Fuller, McNeeley's blue blood manager. "If he looks bad, I'll make him quit and get a job."

Fuller, a son of a former governor of Massachusetts, is a fine gentleman. But you'd think that a fellow who graduated from Harvard would have learned by now that McNeeley's being a somehow descendant of John L. Sullivan doesn't qualify him as a tiger in the jabbing jungle.

Patterson bounced McNeeley around with all the facility of Bob Cousy dribbling a basketball. Subsequently, young Tom took a drubbing from one Don Prout, who was no less than one of McNeeley's sparmates in the golden days of the Patterson buildup.

Fuller, out of his fondness for McNeeley, is willing to allow the well-thumped Thomas another shot at the large serial numbers. Most unusual, however, is that Fuller defends throwing his inept warrior into the pit against Patterson on the grounds that Floyd's chin "is suspect."

This is regarded in certain quarters fully as faulty as Fuller's contention that Sonny Liston should get a crack at the heavyweight title because "we always must recognize ability."

There is no recent denial of the fact that Liston has, does and probably always will take his directions from Blinky Palermo. This is the same Blinky currently appealing a long term prison sentence after conviction of conspiring with such as Frankie Carbo to control the destinies of various gladiators and the baubles known among the cauliflower set as "titles."

"You never say goodbye to people like that," Fuller admits.

Cus D'Amato, Patterson's manager, long has been derided for carefully choosing opponents who couldn't knock out a pane of glass with a mallet. When it comes to such sterling rivals as Pete Rademacher and Brian London, Cus deserved all the verbal assault he received.

But when he blows the whistle against Liston, despite Fuller's contention that surly Sonny deserves a shot "for the good of boxing," there is strong support for D'Amato. World champions still are regarded by youngsters as extra-ordinary people and to have one who even allegedly is run by mobsters would, and should, clear the way for federal abolition of the sport.

Fuller asserts that such as Patterson, Liston, Eddie Machen and Zora Folley would be "legitimate contenders" in any era. It's surprising that he fits Patterson, the champion, and Liston both into this category.

Liston because a contender should unquestionably be "legitimate" in every way. And one veteran boxing man recently tried to buy Liston's contract but couldn't get it "clean."

Buttered Croutons

Children usually enjoy buttered croutons added to scrambled eggs. Throw in the croutons as you stir the eggs for the last time so the small pieces of toasted bread won't soften.

Skillet Croutons

Ever make skillet croutons for split pea soup? Butter slices of white bread on both sides and toast over low heat in a heavy skillet; now dice the toast into small squares and serve with the soup.

Exotic Chinese Casserole Uses Leftover Fowl

Leftovers often are the inspiration for some of our finest meals.

This handsome, meal-in-one dish done in the Chinese manner, consists of water chestnuts, bean sprouts and cooked poultry or game served hot over chow mein noodles.

It makes a delightful luncheon or supper entree.

CHINESE CHICKEN CASSEROLE
(Six to eight servings)

- 3 cups cold, cooked chicken, cut in pieces
- 2 teaspoons lemon juice
- 1 tablespoon soy sauce
- ¼ cup finely cut green onions
- 1 cup finely cut celery
- 1 5-ounce can water chestnuts, drained, sliced thin
- 1 1-lb can fancy bean sprouts, well drained
- ½ teaspoon salt, dash pepper
- 1 cup mayonnaise
- ¼ cup chopped toasted almonds
- 1 6-ounce can chow mein noodles

Sprinkle chicken with lemon juice and soy sauce; cover, chill 2 hours or longer. Add remaining ingredients except almonds and noodles; mix well. Turn into greased 1½ quart casserole. Sprinkle almonds on top. Bake at 350 degrees for about 25 minutes. Serve on crisp noodles.

Camp Fire, Blue Birds To Launch Chocolate Mint Sale On Friday

The good ship "Sweet-Tooth" docks in Marin County Friday as hundreds of local Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds launch their annual Camp Fire Girls Candy Sale.

The girls will sell the traditional chocolate-covered mints to their neighbors to supplement the funds received from the United Crusade. The profits will be used for operating expenses and for future camp development. Each Camp Fire and Blue Bird group receives a percentage of the profits to be used in their particular programs and each girl selling will receive an Honor Award for her participation in the Candy Sale.

The Candy Sale will continue through Feb. 25. Recipes using the candy include:

CHOC-O-MINT COOKIES

- ¾ cup shortening
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 unbeaten egg
- 8 Camp Fire Mints, melted (and slightly cooled)
- 2½ cups flour
- 2 tsp. baking powder
- ½ tsp. salt
- ½ cup milk

Cream shortening and sugar. Add unbeaten egg and melted Camp Fire Mints and beat vigorously. Add sifted dry ingredients alternately with milk. Drop by teaspoonsful onto greased cookie sheet. Bake 12½ minutes at 350 degrees.

MINT VELVET

- 12 Camp Fire Mints
- 1 pkg. custard-flavor dessert
- 1 14½ oz. can (1⅔ cups) evaporated milk
- 1 cup heavy cream, whipped

Combine custard-flavor dessert, milk, and mints. Cook over medium heat, stirring until mixture comes to a full boil. Remove from heat (mixture will be thin). Cool. Pour into refrigerator tray. Freeze until partially frozen. Turn into bowl. With electric beater, beat till fluffy. Fold in whipped cream. Freeze firm. Makes 1 quart.

BLUE BIRD NESTS

Beat 2 egg whites stiff.
Add ¼ tsp. salt. Beat in.
Add, very slowly, ½ cups sugar.
Melt 2 dozen Camp Fire mints and cool.

Blend mints, 1 can shredded coconut and 1 tsp. vanilla carefully into egg-white mixture.

Cut heavy brown paper bag to fit cookie sheet. Drop mixture by teaspoons and bake 13 minutes in 325 degree oven. Let stand 5 minutes before removing from cookie sheet.

MINT CLOUD PIE

- 7 Camp Fire Mints
- 1 envelope gelatine (unflavored)
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- 4 eggs
- ¼ tsp. salt

Soften gelatine in ¼ cup water. Put ½ cup cold water in double boiler and add mints. When dissolved add ½ cup sugar, egg yolks, slightly beaten, and salt. Cook until custard consistency, stirring constantly. Add softened gelatine to hot custard and dissolve. Cool, add vanilla. When it begins to thicken, fold in stiffly beaten egg whites to which remaining ½ cup sugar has been added. Fill baked pie shell or graham cracker crust and chill. Just before serving, a layer of whipped cream may be spread over the pie.

CAMP FIRE NUGGETS

- ½ cup soft margarine
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 egg and 1 egg yolk
- 10 Camp Fire Mints (melted)
- ½ cup milk
- 1¾ cup siften flour
- ½ tsp. each soda and baking powder
- ¼ tsp. salt
- 1 cup chopped nuts

Cream margarine. Gradually beat in sugar, egg and yolk, mints, milk and vanilla. Sift flour with soda, baking powder and salt. Add to butter mixture. Fold in nuts. Drop from teaspoon on buttered cookie sheets. Bake 12 minutes at 375 degrees.

TORTE ROYALE

Cinnamon Meringue Shell:

- 2 egg whites
- ¼ tsp. salt
- ½ tsp. vinegar
- ½ cup sugar
- ¼ tsp. cinnamon

Cover cookie sheet with a piece of heavy brown paper; draw an eight inch circle in the center. Beat egg whites, salt and vinegar until soft peaks form. Blend sugar and cinnamon, gradually add to the egg whites, beating until very stiff peaks form and all sugar has dissolved. Spread within the circle, making the bottom a half inch thick and mounding around the edge, making it 1¾ inches high. For trim, form ridges on the outside with the back of a teaspoon. Bake in a slow oven, 275 degrees for one hour. This can be done in the evening and left in the oven all night. Peel off paper.

Twin Cream Filling:

- 10 dark Camp Fire Mints
- 2 beaten egg yolks
- 3 tblsp. water
- 1 cup heavy cream
- ¼ cup sugar
- ¼ tsp. cinnamon

Melt the Camp Fire Mints over boiling water. Stir until smooth and spread about two tablespoons thinly over the bottom of the cooked meringue shell. To the remaining chocolate add the beaten egg yolks and water and blend thoroughly until smooth. Chill the mixture until it is thick. Combine cream, sugar and cinnamon; whip until stiff. Spread half over the chocolate mints in the shell. Fold the remaining cream into the chocolate mixture and spread on top. Chill several hours or overnight. Trim with more whipped cream and pecans if desired.

CHOCOLATE BONBONS

- ½ cup butter or margarine
- 1 cup brown sugar
- 1 egg (beaten)
- 2 cups flour
- ¼ tsp. salt
- ¼ tsp. soda
- ½ cup sour cream
- 7 Camp Fire Mints (melted)
- 1 cup nuts

Cream butter and sugar, add egg and blend. Stir in sour cream and melted mints. Add dry ingredients and lastly, the nuts. Bake 12 to 15 minutes at 350 degrees. Frost with the following icing when cool:

- 1 egg, beaten
- 1¾ cups powdered sugar
- 1 tbsp. cream
- 3 Camp Fire Mints (melted)
- 1 tbsp. vanilla

Beat all together until creamy smooth.

Indian Cuisine Suggests Exotic Lamb Entree

Turning to the exotic lands of enchantment for new cookery ideas, we find the delightful curry dishes of India. Curry is so basic to their cuisine that they use it almost as frequently as we use salt and pepper.

Although we can't easily duplicate the true curry dish, we can use this spice to create some exciting entrees. Lamb is a meat that takes well to the exotic spice, and here it becomes Indian Lamb Stew. Other flavorings are garlic, onion and lemon juice, and peas are included for the vegetable. In the Indian manner, this stew might be teamed with rice when it's served.

For lamb stew it's advisable to purchase an economy cut of lamb and divide it into 1 to 1½ inch cubes.

Indian Lamb Stew

- 2 pounds boneless lamb, cut in 1 to 1½-inch pieces
- 2 tablespoons lard or drippings
- 2 teaspoons salt
- ¼ teaspoon pepper
- 2 teaspoons curry powder
- 1 small clove garlic, minced
- ½ cup chopped onion
- 2 cups water
- 1 package (10 ounces) frozen peas
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice

Brown lamb in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings. Add salt, pepper, curry powder, garlic, onion and water. Cover tightly and cook slowly 1½ hours. Add peas and cook 20 to 25 minutes or until lamb is tender and peas are done. Stir in lemon juice. Six servings.

Private Auto Insurance Rates Being Adjusted—Up And Down

Two trend-setting insurance company organizations have announced private passenger car basic insurance rate adjustments—up and down—for many California motorists. The changes will become effective Feb. 15 for new and renewal policies.

Also announced is a new, low-cost special policy which affords additional savings of almost 15 per cent more than savings in premiums resulting from aplication of the Safe Driver Plan.

The National Automobile Underwriters Assn. and the National Bureau of Casualty Underwriters which establish advisory rates for some 200 insurance companies said the statewide average change will be: Liability rates up 6.1 per cent; $100 deductible collision up 9.3 per cent, and a full comprehensive down 5.4 per cent.

Marin County liability experience was formerly grouped with many rural areas in Northern California. It is now big enough to stand on its own, but the penalty is a bodily injury rate increase of 21 per cent, and a jump in property damage by 26 per cent. The latter is high compared to most other California areas, but the cost of paying for bodily injuries is widespread. Los Angeles County north of San Fernando Valley jumps 30 per cent.

THE NEW special policy under the Safe Driver Insurance Plan, pioneered in California in 1959 will be changed to require three years of accident and traffic conviction-free driving to qualify for the top discount of 20 per cent from basic level rates. Previously, two years with a clear record was required.

It provides for a "single limit" of liability coverage. The motorist approved for coverage may select any one of five combinations of bodily injury and property damage from $25,000 liability and $1,000 medical expenses up to $300,000 liability and $5,000 medical expense—with a choice of $50 or $100 deductible collision insurance. Term of the policy is six months. It is limited to cars used for pleasure and not operated by drivers under age 25.

NEW BLEND. Sometime back, Juillard, Inc. and Key Distributing Co. merged their liquor distributing activities in this area into Midstate Liquors, Inc. Headquarters were established in Santa Rosa.

Word is now that Midstate has been dissolved and Julliard and Alpha Distributing Co. have merged. Result will be a shuffling of personnel in Sonoma and Marin counties, with some dismissals. We understand the warehouse stocks of Midstate in Santa Rosa are being transferred to the Alpha warehouse in San Rafael, where manager Chris J. Christensen will continue in charge.

BANK LOANS to small business investment companies under the Small Business Administration standby "take-out" plan will now be exempt from bank lending limits.

The SBA take-out plan permits companies seeking 5 per cent loans for reinvestment in small business to obtain such funds from commercial banks at the same rate, and agrees to absorb them on 24-hour notice if the banks need to dispose of them.

Capital Flow May Increase Discount Rate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon said yesterday continued heavy capital flows abroad might prompt the Federal Reserve Board to raise its discount rate and make short-term money more costly.

Dillon told the Senate-House Economic Committee that such a move would be conceivable in the coming months to help combat the balance-of-payments problem. He reported that the payments deficit increased substantially in the last three months of 1961, largely because of outflows of short-term capital.

The federal reserve discount rate has stood unchanged at 3 per cent since September 1960. The rate represents the interest charged member banks.

Any increase in the discount rate would tend to increase interest rates in general by making it more costly for banks to borrow. Dillon indicated, however, that the aim of any such move in the near future would be to push up only short-term rates.

He said the administration does not look for any sudden or sharp increase in long-term borrowing costs.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — It will be "Wells Fargo Bank" from now on.

Stockholders of Wells Fargo Bank-American Trust Co., at their annual meeting yesterday, approved shortening the institution's name.

It has been known by the longer name since 1960, when Wells Fargo merged with American Trust Co.

U.S. Steel Net Income Takes Drop

NEW YORK (AP) — United States Steel Corp. today reported 1961 net income of $190,200,000, equal to $3.05 a share. Directors declared the usual quarterly dividend of 75 cents.

This was the lowest earnings total since net income of 143.6 million dollars in 1952.

Earnings for the year, a slow starter but a fast finisher, compared with $304,520,681, or $5.17 a share, for 1960, a year that followed a reverse pattern.

Record high earnings of $419,406,956 or $7.33 a share were posted in 1957. In 1954, profits hit a 10-year low of $195,400,000.

Utility Firms File Suit Charging Price Fixing

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Six utility firms filed suits yesterday for anti-trust damages that could total millions from 29 major electrical equipment manufacturers.

The utilities filed a total of 92 suits, charging price rigging and unlawful conspiracy.

The Federal Court complaints—so bulky they required seven suitcases — listed defendants throughout the West and in Hawaii.

The suits follow criminal action last year in Philadelphia in which executives of several large firms were convicted of anti-trust violations.

The action alleges a general conspiracy of continuing agreements among the defendants to:

1. Fix and maintain prices;
2. Allocate business among defendants to supply power equipment to purchasers, including state and federal concerns;
3. Submission of non-competitive, collusive and rigged bids in making price quotations.

Plaintiffs include Southern California Edison Co., California Electric Power Co., Nevada Power Co., Pacific Gas and Electric, San Diego Gas and Electirc.

Defendants include Allis-Chalmers, General Electric, Westinghouse Electric, McGraw Edison Co., Wagner Electric Corp. and Maloney Electric Co.

Your baby's fruits get a "college education"

May seem strange, but in many cases Gerber Strained and Junior Fruits do get the benefit of a college education. Gerber Agricultural Researchers work with agricultural colleges and growers to improve orchards, growing methods and the quality of your baby's fruit. What's more, once harvested, the fruit must pass rigid "entrance examinations" for juiciness, ripeness, flavor and color. Then, all through processing, at least 28 checks are made to insure purity and the utmost in nutritive values.

All this care is typical of the countless research projects conducted on a continuing basis, to bring your little one superior foods. For when it comes to babies... mothers and Gerber agree... it's quality first.

Scientists Discount World End By Planet Grouping

Marin County residents seem unconcerned—as is most of the United States—concerning celestial planetary groupment on Sunday. But there is a lot of interest on the part of the world's scientists who are on Palmyra Island primary to observe the accompanying eclipse of the sun ,which will be total in that area.

In much of India, however, concern approaching panic is reported. Soothsayers and astrologers report that this close grouping of Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter and Saturn Sunday may bring a destruction of Earth and other heavenly bodies. Even in San Francisco, the California Academy has received queries as to whether this will really mean the end of the world; whether life would be safer in another state.

Many oldsters will recall a panic along this same line in many parts of the world, when a prediction by a San Francisco astronomer, a Dr. Porta, was blown up to astounding misconception in rewriting and worried conversation. He cited a close group of a number of important heavenly bodies on a specified date, and observed that this might be reflected on Earth by a few minor occurrences like earthquakes and severe storms.

Nothing the mild astronomer could say seemed to minimize the fear in many areas. Church attendance took an astounding increase — and it is hoped collection plates received larger offerings. Some insisted on spending time on hilltops. Building arks feverishly occupied the energies of others.

Our world lived past the dreaded day without catastrophe. There were a few minor earthquakes—none in California.

Academy of Science astronomers refuse to show anything but scientific interest in an astronomical phenomena. They see no connection between current world affairs and this heavenly action, pointing out that such groupings occur every few centuries — the last with a partial eclipse in 1186 A.D., which the universe survived.

The astronomers do not advise taking to the hills. They point out that the only foreseeable result here will be a partial eclipse of the sun late Sunday afternoon.

Soft Voices Of Spring

Although the deciduous trees are still quite bare and skeletal and the morning grass is often covered with frost, a few soft voices speak of onrushing spring.

Lavender-purple clouds of Heather are adding their bit of early color, which makes such lovely contrast with the early green grass.

The white Narcissus are blooming in greater numbers. Those colorful natives of New Zealand, the pink and cerise Leptospermum, brightens the corners of many yards.

The buds of Acacias are swelling with golden spring promise. And the buds of daphne are pregnant with soon-to-be-released perfume.

The annual spring awakening is starting to be felt in the air and in our blood —always the most exciting time of year.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

BETTER LATE THAN NEVER

A man who was executed for killing an Oklahoma patrolman left behind him a little advice on civic duties.

The following jottings scrawled on prison stationery, were found in his cell:

"Life cannot be replaced . . .

"Make a conscientious effort to be an obedient and patriotic citizen.

"Teach others to have respect for civil officials and the state.

"This is the most effective way to prevent crime in the future.

"A just man wants to make restitution."

The deep-seated sense of right and wrong that the Creator has put in each of us may be ignored over a long period but it is never completely smothered.

Remorse for neglect in the past is good, but day-to-day faithfulness in fulfilling your family, religious and civic duties is far better in the eyes of God and man.

"If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily." (Luke 9:23)

Grant, O Lord, that by serving you in this life I may merit the rewards of eternal life.

Well, It Looks Like They Blew The Whistle On Good Old Days

NEW YORK (AP)—Time is a march, not a waltz.

And you've marched into middle age — or, in some cases, old age — if you can look back in your lifetime and remember when:

The postman blew his whistle twice a day at your door, and you could send a letter across the country for a two-cent stamp.

You and your wife could stay at a good hotel for less than a pet hospital now charges to park your cat or dog overnight.

One of the functions of a rich man's poor relative was to break in his new shoes for him.

Women going on trips always toted along a jar of smelling salts as they never knew when they might see some strange sight that could cause them to faint.

Nobody went on a 45-mile train journey without a basket of food big enough to feed half of starving China.

Muggers feared to attack lone ladies as they carried long hatpins sharp enough to skewer a man as neatly as if he were a piece of errant shish-kebab.

Trolley cars carried both a motorman and a conductor, as no one in his right senses could expect a man to collect fares and drive a dangerous vehicle at the same time.

Every home had two social centers—the kitchen and the front porch.

The height of sophisticated repartee was to shake your head and exclaim, "Boy, that's the cat's pajamas!"

THE WEALTHIEST man in town was the one who had a two-buggy stable—and a bathroom with a real tub.

The greatest event of the winter social season in rural areas was the arrival of the mail order catalogues.

IT WAS PERFECTLY all right for a grandmother to puff her pipe at home, but any woman who smoked a cigarette in the presence of men was regarded as the devil's plaything.

During the depression you got a free piece of china everytime you bought a ticket to the movies.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Asks Joint Span, Transit Study

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

In a recent editorial you recommended start on a study for a second bridge and highway to serve Marin County. I also note that you favor a rapid transit for our county.

Both of these studies are needed for the long range planning of the county, but why do you not recommend a combined study of highway and transit together, since they are basically the same problem?

The metropolitan area of Chicago is the only metropolis I know of where this is being done. It is now mandatory there that every new freeway must be planned with a right of way provided for rapid transit. They have also found that on the new Congress Expressway (which has a rapid transit route down its center) trains can handle the same number of passengers as the six-lane expressway in a given period of time, and that the cost of this rapid transit installation is one-half the cost of the expressway per mile of route. This case therefor proves that rapid transit is twice as efficient as six-lane freeways.

Might we not find that if we had a rapid transit system another costly bridge and highway would be unnecessary for quite some time? Also, what would be the saving to the taxpayers for a more efficient system of moving people? First, of course, we would have to know whether or not the existing bridge can handle rapid transit.

This problem is not only our problem, but the continuing problem of all metropolitan areas. Are we going to let the automobile strangle our cities to the point where they are no longer tenable, or will we find a more efficient means of transportation?

Also, why should we not be permitted to use state automobile taxes to help build rapid transit systems in metropolitan areas, and thus relieve our existing highways? Why do we continue to waste millions and billions of dollars for inefficient means of transportation? Are we so tied to the automobile economy that we consider nothing else as an alternative?

Certainly, we need both freeways and rapid transit, but let's study them together to get the maximum benefit of good transportation in the right places.

Asks Support Of U.S. Humane Bills

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

In a recent letter from the Virginia Federation of Humane Societies, Inc., I was deeply shocked to learn of neglect and suffering prevailing among our laboratory animals—too small cages, acute discomfort, lack of cleanliness, and in some cases, irresponsible experimentation—to mention only a few abuses.

There are at present no controls over the care, or lack of care, of these unfortunate creatures. And "it is time to turn the searchlight of publicity on the laboratories, demand immediate, drastic reform in the care of experimental animals."

To quote further from the letter: "Two bills have been introduced in Congress which would impose minimum humane standards on institutions and individuals seeking federal grants for research." These bills are HR 1937 and HR 3556.

There is no question of interfering with scientific experiments—only decent and necessary control. Anyone who has a compassionate heart for the sufferings of animals can help by writing his Congressman and urging him most earnestly to support these bills.

The story? She had been madly in love with a writer He was good—but no publisher would take a chance on his stuff. They were married anyhow. She thought love was enough until Mr. Moneybags came along with his fortune of 70 million, and that made up for his atrocious looks and manners. So she went to Reno; then married Mr. Moneybags. I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

Randall In Tunnel Autopsy Parallels Alice In Wonderland

MARIN COUNTY residents are notoriously reluctant to quit Marin.

Those who sought a few days ago to attend a San Francisco hearing on the fate of our collapsed railroad tunnel, and perhaps that of all remaining rail service in this county, were no doubt despondent at the start and made no less so as they went on.

Soon after turning from Lombard Street and over high hills in search of the New Mint Building, they found themselves in the midst of vast areas of waste land—"urban renewal" projects bleak as the craters of the moon.

Many of us mused on that dreadful creature the bulldozer. In Marin it pitilessly mows down our green natural slopes. In San Francisco there is a later phase where it flattens the vain constructions of man.

NO LESS dismaying was the hearing room of the Interstate Commerce Commission, which was neither stockyards pen nor courtroom, but with the less attractive characteristics of both.

Some 75 persons milled about seeking some form of lebensraum for sitting, hearing, note-taking and perhaps speaking. I was reminded of cub reporter days in Chicago when I was nearly assimilated with a throng of 112 IWW defendants jammed into the federal court of the late Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis.

All these folk were respectable capitalists. Yet their very names exuded whimsy to my bemused self. The "examiner" for example, was Mr. Linn. He was calm, philosophical, almost Chinese and thus he reminded me of Lin Yu-tang.

WHAT MORE natural than that the robust railroad lawyer should be Mr. Karr? To me he promptly fitted into place as "Mr. Pullman Car."

Lawyer Lakusta, for embattled San Rafael, in my mood of antic whimsy became fixed in my mind with a spicy Turkish tobacco called Latakia.

Suddenly Mr. Pullman Car flew into a rage of the sort not uncommon among lawyers. Hardly surprisingly, his target was another lawyer whose name was Anninos. Could I be blamed for instantly transforming this into a Biblical "Ananias"?—totally without prejudice, but it was a great inconvenience to my tongue when the time came to phone a news story to the distant I-J.

It will be gathered that Alice in Wonderland was pretty well oriented as compared with Randall in ICC-land. These technical examinations are of a special sort. They seem slightly like a court of law, they have overtones of the conclaves of county supervisors and of town councils.

FINAL BEFUDDLEMENT was provided when I saw Marin femininity in the audience, along with such familiar masculine phizzes as those of San Rafael's city manager Dan Anderson and pipe-smoking Carroll Snyker.

"Two lovely ladies in distress" was the description accorded our female visitors by Mr. Pullman Car, turned suddenly gallant.

Now the supervisorial aspect of our gathering shone forth. But this was fleeting and fictitious. This was no elected group welcoming constituents.

Instead the examiner, the lawyers and the brethren of the rail unions listened stolidly and stonily as the visiting ladies spoke up on behalf of Northwestern Pacific; first as "a wonderful neighbor" but then as a friend already departed to the hereafter—with bones, it appeared, to be picked in style rather cannibalistic.

The railroad's Tiburon waterfront was desired for public fun and frolic. In the midst of its Tiburon yards the ideal occupant would be a new school.

After listening a bit, our inscrutable examiner broke in to ascertain whether the ladies wished to be sworn and become witnesses. They did not.

"Then," decreed the examiner, "let's not use further record."

What shame, what inhospitality, to see them cut off in the finest flower of their eloquence! At the Marin supervisors, be sure, nothing like that could ever happen.

Eisenhower Proposed Good Plan For Military Officers In Talks

WASHINGTON—Senate investigation of the "muzzling" of military leaders in expounding the dangers of the communists to the free world is off to a good start.

At least it is a good start if the purpose is to develop intelligent guidelines for top officers who should help keep the nation alert to communist purposes and at the same time keep themselves out of bipartisan politics.

There is no doubt in my mind that some officials of the Kennedy administration have gone too far in applying oppressive censorship on what the military leaders may say publicly on the nature of the communist conspiracy and how to deal with it.

This kind of censorship means throwing away the valuable role which our informed military can play in making the American people aware of the tremendous effort needed to prevail in this cold-war-called-peace.

The real question before the Senate Armed Services subcommittee is not whether the military has a proper role, but how that role can be carried out with enough freedom to interest intelligent officers and with enough restraint to keep the military out of domestic politics.

THE REASON I say that the investigation is off to a good start is that the first three witnesses produced a notable consensus. These witnesses were:

A general-president — Dwight D. Eisenhower — who urged that the military be free to speak, but within bounds of "approved national policies."

A retired Chief of Naval Operations—Adm. Arleigh A. Burke — who feels military men should be seen "as citizens with responsibilities equal to those of other citizens," but who warned that while in uniform they must fully and faithfully "avoid purely partisan politics."

A distinguished Republican who served the Truman administration as Under-Secretary of State and later as Secretary of Defense — Robert A. Lovett — who agreed considerably with both but warned agaianst a tendency toward "too much public speaking."

Eisenhower's statement was particularly to the point. He frankly confessed that there was too much censorship of the military during his own administration; he wanted to make sure that the nation's top officers were not thrust "behind and American iron curtain" in discussing the menace of communism.

BUT EISENHOWER did attach significant conditions — conditions which could not easily get into the headlines —to the freedom of speech he wanted the military to utilize. The conditions were:

That the activities of Communist subversives inside the nation "are not the responsibility of the military services." They are the responsibility of the F.B.I.

That the military should direct itself to troop indoctrination and public discussion about "Communist aggression," current and potential.

Eisenhower's own answer is sensible; there should be "general—not petty — supervision" of speeches by the military; quit oppressive censorship of the officers; if anyone of them is imprudent and partisan, then deal with these exceptions individually.

Scientists Discount World End By Planet Grouping

Marin County residents seem unconcerned—as is most of the United States—concerning celestial planetary groupment on Sunday. But there is a lot of interest on the part of the world's scientists who are on Palmyra Island primary to observe the accompanying eclipse of the sun ,which will be total in that area.

In much of India, however, concern approaching panic is reported. Soothsayers and astrologers report that this close grouping of Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter and Saturn Sunday may bring a destruction of Earth and other heavenly bodies. Even in San Francisco, the California Academy has received queries as to whether this will really mean the end of the world; whether life would be safer in another state.

Many oldsters will recall a panic along this same line in many parts of the world, when a prediction by a San Francisco astronomer, a Dr. Porta, was blown up to astounding misconception in rewriting and worried conversation. He cited a close group of a number of important heavenly bodies on a specified date, and observed that this might be reflected on Earth by a few minor occurrences like earthquakes and severe storms.

Nothing the mild astronomer could say seemed to minimize the fear in many areas. Church attendance took an astounding increase — and it is hoped collection plates received larger offerings. Some insisted on spending time on hilltops. Building arks feverishly occupied the energies of others.

Our world lived past the dreaded day without catastrophe. There were a few minor earthquakes—none in California.

Academy of Science astronomers refuse to show anything but scientific interest in an astronomical phenomena. They see no connection between current world affairs and this heavenly action, pointing out that such groupings occur every few centuries — the last with a partial eclipse in 1186 A.D., which the universe survived.

The astronomers do not advise taking to the hills. They point out that the only foreseeable result here will be a partial eclipse of the sun late Sunday afternoon.

Soft Voices Of Spring

Although the deciduous trees are still quite bare and skeletal and the morning grass is often covered with frost, a few soft voices speak of onrushing spring.

Lavender-purple clouds of Heather are adding their bit of early color, which makes such lovely contrast with the early green grass.

The white Narcissus are blooming in greater numbers. Those colorful natives of New Zealand, the pink and cerise Leptospermum, brightens the corners of many yards.

The buds of Acacias are swelling with golden spring promise. And the buds of daphne are pregnant with soon-to-be-released perfume.

The annual spring awakening is starting to be felt in the air and in our blood—always the most exciting time of year.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

BETTER LATE THAN NEVER

A man who was executed for killing an Oklahoma patrolman left behind him a little advice on civic duties.

The following jottings scrawled on prison stationery, were found in his cell:

"Life cannot be replaced . . .

"Make a conscientious effort to be an obedient and patriotic citizen.

"Teach others to have respect for civil officials and the state.

"This is the most effective way to prevent crime in the future.

"A just man wants to make restitution."

The deep-seated sense of right and wrong that the Creator has put in each of us may be ignored over a long period but it is never completely smothered.

Remorse for neglect in the past is good, but day-to-day faithfulness in fulfilling your family, religious and civic duties is far better in the eyes of God and man.

"If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily." (Luke 9:23)

Grant, O Lord, that by serving you in this life I may merit the rewards of eternal life.

Well, It Looks Like They Blew The Whistle On Good Old Days

NEW YORK (AP)—Time is a march, not a waltz.

And you've marched into middle age — or, in some cases, old age — if you can look back in your lifetime and remember when:

The postman blew his whistle twice a day at your door, and you could send a letter across the country for a two-cent stamp.

You and your wife could stay at a good hotel for less than a pet hospital now charges to park your cat or dog overnight.

One of the functions of a rich man's poor relative was to break in his new shoes for him.

Women going on trips always toted along a jar of smelling salts as they never knew when they might see some strange sight that could cause them to faint.

Nobody went on a 45-mile train journey without a basket of food big enough to feed half of starving China.

Muggers feared to attack lone ladies as they carried long hatpins sharp enough to skewer a man as neatly as if he were a piece of errant shish-kebab.

Trolley cars carried both a motorman and a conductor, as no one in his right senses could expect a man to collect fares and drive a dangerous vehicle at the same time.

Every home had two social centers—the kitchen and the front porch.

The height of sophisticated repartee was to shake your head and exclaim, "Boy, that's the cat's pajamas!"

THE WEALTHIEST man in town was the one who had a two-buggy stable—and a bathroom with a real tub.

The greatest event of the winter social season in rural areas was the arrival of the mail order catalogues.

IT WAS PERFECTLY all right for a grandmother to puff her pipe at home, but any woman who smoked a cigarette in the presence of men was regarded as the devil's plaything.

During the depression you got a free piece of china everytime you bought a ticket to the movies.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Asks Joint Span, Transit Study

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

In a recent editorial you recommended start on a study for a second bridge and highway to serve Marin County. I also note that you favor a rapid transit for our county.

Both of these studies are needed for the long range planning of the county, but why do you not recommend a combined study of highway and transit together, since they are basically the same problem?

The metropolitan area of Chicago is the only metropolis I know of where this is being done. It is now mandatory there that every new freeway must be planned with a right of way provided for rapid transit. They have also found that on the new Congress Expressway (which has a rapid transit route down its center) trains can handle the same number of passengers as the six-lane expressway in a given period of time, and that the cost of this rapid transit installation is one-half the cost of the expressway per mile of route. This case therefor proves that rapid transit is twice as efficient as six-lane freeways.

Might we not find that if we had a rapid transit system another costly bridge and highway would be unnecessary for quite some time? Also, what would be the saving to the taxpayers for a more efficient system of moving people? First, of course, we would have to know whether or not the existing bridge can handle rapid transit.

This problem is not only our problem, but the continuing problem of all metropolitan areas. Are we going to let the automobile strangle our cities to the point where they are no longer tenable, or will we find a more efficient means of transportation?

Also, why should we not be permitted to use state automobile taxes to help build rapid transit systems in metropolitan areas, and thus relieve our existing highways? Why do we continue to waste millions and billions of dollars for inefficient means of transportation? Are we so tied to the automobile economy that we consider nothing else as an alternative?

Certainly, we need both freeways and rapid transit, but let's study them together to get the maximum benefit of good transportation in the right places.

Asks Support Of U.S. Humane Bills

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

In a recent letter from the Virginia Federation of Humane Societies, Inc., I was deeply shocked to learn of neglect and suffering prevailing among our laboratory animals—too small cages, acute discomfort, lack of cleanliness, and in some cases, irresponsible experimentation—to mention only a few abuses.

There are at present no controls over the care, or lack of care, of these unfortunate creatures. And "it is time to turn the searchlight of publicity on the laboratories, demand immediate, drastic reform in the care of experimental animals."

To quote further from the letter: "Two bills have been introduced in Congress which would impose minimum humane standards on institutions and individuals seeking federal grants for research." These bills are HR 1937 and HR 3556.

There is no question of interfering with scientific experiments—only decent and necessary control. Anyone who has a compassionate heart for the sufferings of animals can help by writing his Congressman and urging him most earnestly to support these bills.

Randall In Tunnel Autopsy Parallels Alice In Wonderland

MARIN COUNTY residents are notoriously reluctant to quit Marin.

Those who sought a few days ago to attend a San Francisco hearing on the fate of our collapsed railroad tunnel, and perhaps that of all remaining rail service in this county, were no doubt despondent at the start and made no less so as they went on.

Soon after turning from Lombard Street and over high hills in search of the New Mint Building, they found themselves in the midst of vast areas of waste land—"urban renewal" projects bleak as the craters of the moon.

Many of us mused on that dreadful creature the bulldozer. In Marin it pitilessly mows down our green natural slopes. In San Francisco there is a later phase where it flattens the vain constructions of man.

NO LESS dismaying was the hearing room of the Interstate Commerce Commission, which was neither stockyards pen nor courtroom, but with the less attractive characteristics of both.

Some 75 persons milled about seeking some form of lebensraum for sitting, hearing, note-taking and perhaps speaking. I was reminded of cub reporter days in Chicago when I was nearly assimilated with a throng of 112 IWW defendants jammed into the federal court of the late Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis.

All these folk were respectable capitalists. Yet their very names exuded whimsy to my bemused self. The "examiner" for example, was Mr. Linn. He was calm, philosophical, almost Chinese and thus he reminded me of Lin Yu-tang.

WHAT MORE natural than that the robust railroad lawyer should be Mr. Karr? To me he promptly fitted into place as "Mr. Pullman Car."

Lawyer Lakusta, for embattled San Rafael, in my mood of antic whimsy became fixed in my mind with a spicy Turkish tobacco called Latakia.

Suddenly Mr. Pullman Car flew into a rage of the sort not uncommon among lawyers. Hardly surprisingly, his target was another lawyer whose name was Anninos. Could I be blamed for instantly transforming this into a Biblical "Ananias"?—totally without prejudice, but it was a great inconvenience to my tongue when the time came to phone a news story to the distant I-J.

It will be gathered that Alice in Wonderland was pretty well oriented as compared with Randall in ICC-land. These technical examinations are of a special sort. They seem slightly like a court of law, they have overtones of the conclaves of county supervisors and of town councils.

FINAL BEFUDDLEMENT was provided when I saw Marin femininity in the audience, along with such familiar masculine phizzes as those of San Rafael's city manager Dan Anderson and pipe-smoking Carroll Snyker.

"Two lovely ladies in distress" was the description accorded our female visitors by Mr. Pullman Car, turned suddenly gallant.

Now the supervisorial aspect of our gathering shone forth. But this was fleeting and fictitious. This was no elected group welcoming constituents.

Instead the examiner, the lawyers and the brethren of the rail unions listened stolidly and stonily as the visiting ladies spoke up on behalf of Northwestern Pacific; first as "a wonderful neighbor" but then as a friend already departed to the hereafter—with bones, it appeared, to be picked in style rather cannibalistic.

The railroad's Tiburon waterfront was desired for public fun and frolic. In the midst of its Tiburon yards the ideal occupant would be a new school.

After listening a bit, our inscrutable examiner broke in to ascertain whether the ladies wished to be sworn and become witnesses. They did not.

"Then," decreed the examiner, "let's not use further record."

Parents Of Retarded Demand Aid

Claim Counties, State Falling Down On Job

(Second in a Series)
By BILL BOYARSKY

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Parents of mentally retarded children are demanding more help.

Both state and county governments, they say, have fallen down on the job of providing enough diagnostic facilities, hospitals, day care centers and training for these youngsters.

Few people need help more than the mentally retarded who today number some 450,000 youngsters and adults in California.

They are the victims of an affliction about which little is known. Disease, injury or the mating of two retarded persons are responsible for many cases.

But often, an intelligent man and woman will marry and, because of a mysterious mismatching of genes, will produce a retarded child.

A few will be trained to support themselves. Others will learn to care for themselves around the house. Some will spend their lives in hospital cribs, scarcely aware of those around them.

The parents' group, the 6,000-member California Council for Retarded Children, suggests the state, counties and local school districts do more for children who are not in hospitals.

Many parents want to raise their youngsters at home. Others can't afford a private institution and most wait up to three years for admission to a state hospital.

"My son needs his place in society as well as any other child and I think with the right sort of training he may one day be able to make his own living," a parent said.

The state has four methods of assisting such parents.

One, the Short-Doyle program gives money to counties to provide mental health services to both the children and their often-disturbed parents.

Only Santa Clara County, with its pionnering "Hope for Children" program, is participating.

Another plan contemplates three child care centers at which mothers could leave their children during the day. Only one district—Stockton—has applied for state aid and started a center.

Two other state assistance programs are more successful.

About 37,000 students up to 18 years of age are enrolled in local classes for the mildly retarded. These are mandatory for every school district with an average daily attendance of 900 or more.

Another 3,000 youngsters are enrolled in local classes for severely retraded: these are not mandatory and districts have shown less interest.

Edgar Pye, consultant on mental retardation for the State Mental Hygiene Department, says that isn't enough.

"We have gaps in community planning for the first years in a child's life," he said.

"We have no pre-school services. We have bits and pieces of private parents groups but we need to start from the beginning, from the first year of life."

He said counselling for parents during the early years is badly needed.

"That makes all the difference in the world," he said.

Arthur Bolton, associate executive director of the Sacramento area's Community Welfare Council, says neither the state nor local governments want to provide more services.

"The state says it's the local governments' job and local government says it's up to the state," he said. "One day, someone will have to decide which is responsible."

GETTING HELP—There is hope for these retarded children shown during class sessions at Sonoma State Hospital. With expert care and guidance they may someday make their own way outside the walls of the hospital.

Hunter Safety Course Planned

Hunter safety classes will start Tuesday at Marion School in Novato, according to Lee Hilton, chairman of the Novato Junior Chamber of Commerce-sponsored course.

The course is authorized under the National Rifle Assn. It gives youngsters a working knowledge of guns in general, shooting techniques and gun safety rules. It will certify those completing the course for their California hunting licenses.

Only 10 students will be admitted to the class.

Dominican Offering T.S. Eliot Course

Dominican College Graduate School will offer a course in "Poetry of T. S. Eliott" beginning Feb. 5 at 4 p.m. in room 24 of Guzman Hall, the college announced today.

The course, which will carry two units of credit, will meet each Monday from 4 to 5:30 p.m. with Sister M. Martin as instructor.

ALMANAC

Today is Wednesday, Jan. 31, the 31st day of the year with 334 to follow in 1962.

The moon is approaching its new phase.

There is no morning or evening star.

On this day in history:

In 1865, Robert E. Lee was appointed commander-in-chief of all Confederate armies by Jefferson Davis, president of the Confederacy.

In 1917, Germany announced she was instituting a policy of unrestricted submarine warfare in World War I.

In 1950, President Harry S. Truman announced he had ordered the development of the hydrogen bomb by the Atomic Energy Commission.

In 1953, Holland experienced one of its worst floods in history as more than 2,000 people lost their lives when dikes crumbled, flooding 330,000 acres of land.

A thought for the day: English philosopher and author Francis Bacon once said: "Here therefore is the greatest distemper of learning, when men study words not matter."

TIME AND TIDE

$46 Million Proposed For State Forests

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Forest Service proposes to spend about 46 million dollars in California during the 12 months beginning July 1.

The estimate, based on President John F. Kennedy's budget, was supplied to Rep. Harold T. Johnson (D-Calif.) whose mountainous district in Northern Califronia embraces approximately half of the national forest in the state.

Johnson said the proposed expenditures represent an increase of 2.5 million dollars over the current fiscal year. About half of the total would be spent for protection and management of the 25 million acres of national forests in California. Most of the increase is proposed in this field.

The budget also calls for $1,165,000 for insect and disease control, $1,858,000 for forest research and $1,112,600 for state and private forestry cooperation.

Forest road and trail development is set at $8,198,600 compared with 7.7 million dollars this year. Flood prevention is budgeted at $1,369,000, and brush disposal at $727,800. Payments to the state from national forest revenues are expected to amount to $3,118,300.

ALMANAC

Today is Wednesday, Jan. 31, the 31st day of the year with 334 to follow in 1962.

The moon is approaching its new phase.

There is no morning or evening star.

On this day in history:

In 1865, Robert E. Lee was appointed commander-in-chief of all Confederate armies by Jefferson Davis, president of the Confederacy.

In 1917, Germany announced she was instituting a policy of unrestricted submarine warfare in World War I.

In 1950, President Harry S. Truman announced he had ordered the development of the hydrogen bomb by the Atomic Energy Commission.

In 1953, Holland experienced one of its worst floods in history as more than 2,000 people lost their lives when dikes crumbled, flooding 330,000 acres of land.

A thought for the day: English philosopher and author Francis Bacon once said: "Here therefore is the greatest distemper of learning, when men study words not matter."

TIME AND TIDE

$46 Million Proposed For State Forests

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Forest Service proposes to spend about 46 million dollars in California during the 12 months beginning July 1.

The estimate, based on President John F. Kennedy's budget, was supplied to Rep. Harold T. Johnson (D-Calif.) whose mountainous district in Northern Califronia embraces approximately half of the national forest in the state.

Johnson said the proposed expenditures represent an increase of 2.5 million dollars over the current fiscal year. About half of the total would be spent for protection and management of the 25 million acres of national forests in California. Most of the increase is proposed in this field.

The budget also calls for $1,165,000 for insect and disease control, $1,858,000 for forest research and $1,112,600 for state and private forestry cooperation.

Forest road and trail development is set at $8,198,600 compared with 7.7 million dollars this year. Flood prevention is budgeted at $1,369,000, and brush disposal at $727,800. Payments to the state from national forest revenues are expected to amount to $3,118,300.

PLANNING THE MENUS for a progressive dinner on Saturday night are three members of the Novato Junior Women's Club. Concise View Given Of County Planning In Seminar Series

Marin County Planning Director Mary Summers outlined a comprehensive but concise view of "Planning and County Government" at yesterday's seminar at the Tamalpais Union High School district office in Larkspur.

This was the second in the series of eight seminars on county government sponsored by the Mill Valley units of the American Association of University Women and League of Women Voters in conjunction with the 14th District of the P-TA.

Planning, in its simplest physical terms, Mrs. Summers said," is organizing people and land, and it covers whatever we do together."

She defined her position as that of head of a paid staff of 13 who advise a county planning commission made up of six unpaid commissioners.

State law, she pointed out, says that "every county shall, and every city may have a planning commission whose duty is to develop a master or general plan which is comprehensive, general and long range for the physical development of a community."

She explained that a master plan is not binding legally and that it is the zoning ordinances passed by governing bodies which have power to enforce conformance.

A master plan is only as good as the ideas in it and the backing of the people affected, she declared, and its strength resides in governing bodies like city councils.

"On you as citizens finally rests the responsibility for your environment through politics. If you respond at the polls to planning, this will be recognized by the politicians, and a good staff will point it out to the politicians from the other side."

Master plans are subject to change, and this is right, she emphasized. The important thing is that changes should be in accordance with the social and economic principles set forth in those plans, she said.

Mrs. Summers said that the first step in developing a master plan is meeting with citizens of a community and getting them to answer these two questions: What do you want your community to be like? Are you willing to support the cost of the kind of environment you want?

As one illustration of working out answers to these questions she described the principles followed in the recently completed plan for the San Geronimo Valley.

The speaker maintained that planning pays dividends because "logical forethought results in the saving of taxes."

Cited as examples were failures to locate roads properly and foresee eventual capacity needed in sewage systems so that the first ones had to be replaced by new ones at tremendous waste of tax money.

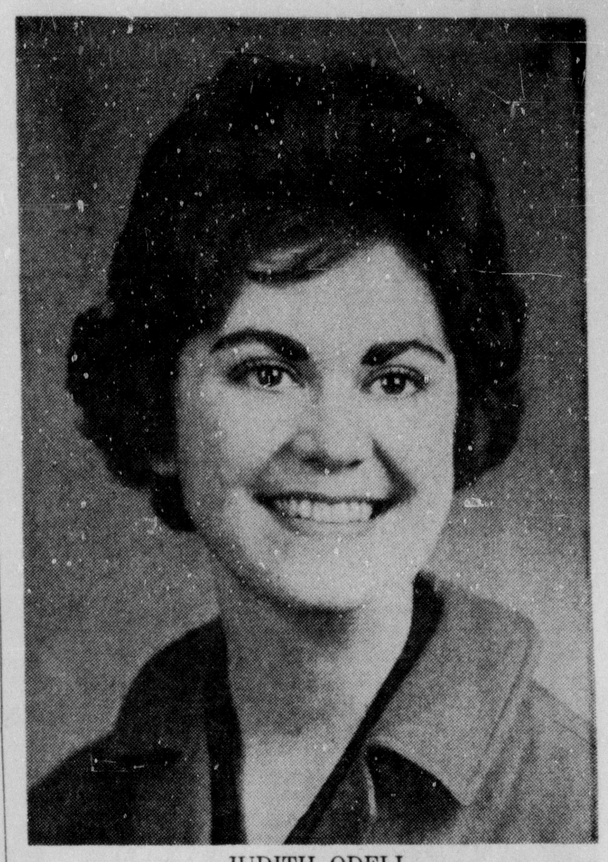
A county planning staff has many handicaps, the planning director said, in having to deal with so many other agencies involved in planning, each concerned mainly with its own interests. Among these are the cities, the federal government, the state division of highways; school, sanitary, recreation and community services districts, and especially the land owners themselves.

On the local community level, she asserted only a full-time consultant is satisfactory. Cities may feel they cannot afford to hire one, but can they afford not to? she queried.

As qualifications for such a consultant she recommended that he should not be just a job holder, but should love people, believe in the democratic process and abide by the decisions of the people he serves, helping them to get what they want in the best possible way. She also recommended that he be a politician but have the courage of his convictions with the ability to change the vote of a city council if necessary.

Mrs. Summers concluded with a discussion of the importance of having good examples of planning to follow or stimulate thought.

"Whatever you may think of our Civic Center—whether you like it or not—it starts you to thinking. That's why I was so much in favor of having Frank Lloyd Wright's great creative genius."



JUDITH ODELL

Judith Odell Will Be Bride Of Norman Freed In April

At an open house hosted by Wesley T. Odell of Berkeley recently the engagement of his daughter, Judith Marion (Judy) Odell to Norman Freed was announced. Judy's mother was the late Mrs. Odell.

Norman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvie M. Freed of Greenbrae. Judy and Norman were both graduated from University of California in 1960. She is a graduate of Berkeley High School. Norman, who was president of Delta Upsilon at U.C., is a graduate of Sir Francis Drake High School.

He is the grandson of Clarence M. Freed and Mrs. Herbert A. Norman of San Francisco. Both had summer homes in Marin. The senior Freeds lived in Murray Park and Mrs. Norman had a home in Lansdale.

Judy and Norman, who are now in the merchandizing field, will be married April 1 at 4 p.m. at Northbrae Community Church in Berkeley.

Novato Junior Women To Hold Progressive Dinner On Saturday

Members of the Novato Junior Women's Club will entertain their husbands with a progressive dinner Saturday night.

The evening's social activities will begin with cocktails at the home of the club president and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Budde at at 6:30 p.m.

Mrs. Budde will be assisted by Mesdames James Robinson, Marlin Olsen, Donald Cowan, and Richard Boldenweck.

The salad course will be served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George McDaniel. Assisting Mrs. McDaniel will be Mesdames Peter Ruona, Allen Chisholm and Kenneth Smythe.

The group will then progress to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred James Smith for the main course. Mesdames Jack Kidder, William Walker, Duane Butler and Lee Hilton will assist Mrs. Smith.

Finishing up the evening of dining, the members and their husbands will have dessert at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Deboi. Assisting Mrs. Deboi will be Mesdames Robert Berini, Lee Baxter and Duane Lodolce.

Mrs. Butler is chairman of the dinner, which is the only club social activity to which the husbands are invited during the year.

Newlyweds Residing In Valley Ford

Residing in Valley Ford following their recent wedding at the home of Dr. John Jefferson Canoles of Novato are Mr. and Mrs. Stanley R. Molseed.

The bride, the former June Charlotte Zimmerman, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Zimmerman of Bloomfield. Parents of the bridegroom are Mrs. George R. Molseed of Valley Ford and the late Mr. Molseed.

Dr. Canoles, who was pastor at the First Presbyterian Church in San Rafael for more than 30 years, conducted the 11:30 a.m. ceremony.

For her wedding, the bride wore a ballerina gown of white lace over taffeta.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Molseed home in Valley Ford.

The newlyweds are both graduates of Tomales High School. The bridegroom operates a dairy ranch in Valley Ford.

Royal Ethiopian Navy Officers Feted At San Anselmo Dinner

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

Two young officers of the Royal Ethiopian Navy, Lieutenants Adnonem Egzie and Musa Yasim were honored at the dinner given by the Edward J. Neumeiers of San Anselmo Saturday night. The naval officers are part of a complement here for the recommissioning of the U.S.S. Orea into the H.M.S. Ethiopia. The ship, a gift from the United States, will serve as a training ship for the Ethiopian Navy, with a private suite for Emperor Haile Selassie.

Also at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Torrey of Corte Madera. Mr. Torrey's brother, Edward Torrey, now in Washington, D.C., with the Library of Congress, as a youth, in 1936 organized a Help Ethiopia drive during the Italian invasion of Ethiopia.

Sunday the Neumeier and Robert Torrey families were guests of Lieutenant Egzie on a tour of the ship now docked at Hunter's Point. Both Mr. Torrey and Mr. Neumeier are members of the Tamalpais High School District administrative staff.

The spectacular new home of the Harold Ringrose at 2450 Green Street, San Francisco, was viewed at their open house Saturday night by a number of Marin people. Among these were Dr. and Mrs. Clayton Moto of Sausalito, the William H. Baldwins and the Harold Schuttes of Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Scarth of Greenbrae; Mr. and Mrs. George V. Herrero of Tiburon, and the Harold Kings of Kentfield.

The three story Ringrose home, for which Hewitt C. Wells was the architect, has the dining room, kitchen and master bedroom on the ground floor. On the second floor are the living rooms with a wide balcony overlooking the bay. The guests took the elevator to the top floor where there are dog runs. The Ringroses have standard Poodles, all champions.

Harold and Justina Schutte left the party to attend the Symphony Ball at the Meadow Club. The gowns were beautiful, Mrs. Eugene Ostaggi, who checked names at the door, wore bright red crepe. Also red crepe was the floor length gown of Mrs. Bernard O'Kane, awards chairman. Mrs. J. Benton Tulley, ball chairman, wore a gold chiffon gown with beaded bodice, Mrs. Edmond Mahon was gowned in white crepe, Mrs. Emmet Rixford wore an orange and white print chiffon and Mrs. Edward Vest wore a floor length gown of black velvet, Mrs. George Pritzker had a short white brocade. Mrs. Sandor Salgo, whose husband is conductor of Marin Symphony orchestra, wore blue chiffon. Among the out of county guests were Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bentley of Patterson, formerly of Mill Valley. The ball, sponsored by Marin Symphony Auxiliary, is a benefit for the orchestra.

At a cocktail party and dinner given Saturday night by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Luchessa of San Anselmo, the engagement of her nephew, Paul Vincent Butler, and Jacqueline Florence Arees was announced. The affair took place on the twenty-first birthdays of Paul and his fiancee. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Arees and niece of Mrs. Dorothy Burns of San Francisco. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Florence Cesena of San Francisco and the late Joseph Skowran and the late2 Mr. and Mrs. Jean Arees of France. She is a graduate of Star of the Sea Academy in San Francisco and attended San Francisco City College. She is a member of the Newman Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent S. Butler of Daly City are Paul's parents. He has another aunt, Mrs. Frank Tringali of Daly City and is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Grover Franz of San Francisco. A graduate of Riordan High School in San Francisco, he is a student at San Francisco City College where he is a member of the Engineering Society. The wedding date has not been set, however, the ceremony will take place in late August at St. Ceceila's Church in San Francisco.

Attending the announcement party were relatives and close friends.

Maurice Power Claims Bride At St. Francis Church Rite

San Francisco's Saint Francis Episcopal Church was the setting Saturday for the wedding of Marylee Place of San Francisco and Maurice Strathallan Power III of San Rafael.

The Rev. R. G. Dissell officiated for the 2 o'clock ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack E. Place of San Francisco.

Judith Place was maid of honor for her sister and Sara Boice acted as bridesmaid.

James W. Thomas served the bridegroom as best man and ushering guests to their seats were Tim Canty, Jack Clausen and Richard Bigger.

The bride attended the University of Oregon where she was a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority. Judith and Richard Place are her sister and brother.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice S. Power II of San Rafael, was graduated from Stanford University and is working toward his master's degree at the University of California. He is a Phi Kappa Sigma member.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Forest Hill Club House.

Following a wedding trip to Squaw Valley the newlyweds will reside in Berkeley.

Scout Directors Elected For Term

Members were elected and appointed to serve on the board of directors for a two year term at the annual meeting of the Marin County Girl Scout Council yesterday at the organization's Arequipa headquarters.

Mrs. William H. Ecker Jr., will serve as first vice president; Mrs. Victors Furst, second vice president; Carlton Banigan, assistant treasurer; Mrs. James Rowen, secretary; Mrs. J. E. Detweiler, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Arthur Collbran, public relations; Mrs. C. A. Murphy, southern district coordinator; Mrs. Harry B. Cooper Jr., central district coordinator; and Mrs. Richard E. Herr, northern district coordinator; and members-at-large, Mesdames James D. Adams, Robert Ballagh, Carl Finn, John Finn III, Barrett G. Hindes, L. Gay Maclise, C. B. Noyes Jr. and Mr. Richard Ford.

Board members who will continue their terms until 1963 are Mrs. Harold F. Green, president; Mrs. James Gowan, treasurer; Edward W. Bullard Jr., finance; Mrs. Frank Duhme Jr., personnel; Mrs. Leigh Abell, program, Mrs. George L. Daum, publicity and members-at-large, Mrs. T. J. Mellon and Mrs. J. B. Purcell.

At the meeting Mrs. Harold Martin, vice president of the South East Bay Area council; led a panel discussion on the 14 Bay Area councils' planning for the future. Panel members were Mrs. Donald Rowe, president of Oakland Council; Frank Duhme Jr., regional committee member; and Florence Jones, Marin's council adviser from the National Branch Office.

Mrs. Murphy and Mrs. Wesley Page, Santa Venetia neighborhood chairman, reported on the highlights of the regional conference held in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Green, council president, gave a council progress report and Mrs. Gowan presented the financial report.

REDECORATED RED ROOM

The Red Room of the White House, which has been restored in the manner of an American Empire parlor, has been opened recently. Left of the fireplace are French Empire arm chair and Empire style mahogany library table circa 1810. Latter is gift of Secretary and Mrs. Douglas Dillon. Right of fireplace is Empire sofa which once belonged to Custis family. Walls are covered in scarlet silk with gold scroll border. Portrait over fireplace of Thomas Jefferson. On wall at right is portrait of Franklin Roosevelt and below, that of James Madison. (UPI Telephoto)

Wright Changes Mood Of House With Each Season Of The Year

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

GARRISON, N.Y. — Many innovations in the Russell Wright experimental house easily could be adapted to other homes.

Wright, an industrial designer, planned and constructed the 11-level house of wood and glass which hugs the rugged terrain of a hillside overlooking the Hudson Valley here.

The house, on the edge of an old quarry, is built to bring as much of nature indoors as possible. In the making for "four or five years," it embodies many materials the designer is testing for clients and many of his advanced ideas on lighting, design and decoration.

Several of the ideas grew from the 57-year-old designer's trips to Southeast Asia on assignment for the State Department or the International Cooperation Administration.

He said that from farm houses in Thailand he got the idea for the two-level, or balcony, construction in the living area for added coolness in summer. The warm air then can move upward, making way for cooler air at the people level.

Wright changes the mood of his house with the seasons. In the living room, the winter Oriental rug is replaced in the spring with a Sisal rug from Taiwan. The white fur slipcovers are removed from chairs; the tan woolen sofa cover is replaced by white vinyl.

Panels on the case furniture are built to slide out. In winter, those in the living room area are of a glossy red lacquer surface; in the summer, sleek white ones are on view.

Pictures also fit the seasons. The painting of a block fox, for instance, is hung in wintertime on the wall of his studio-bedroom. In summer, one of a sleepy owl goes up.

Wright, whose designs have included all sorts of home furnishings, even uses the winter-summer theme in the household dinnerware.

In summer, the pattern is a scattering of white violets; in winter, the shepherd's purse, an herb of the mustard family.

Granted, to carry out a change-of-seasons theme, you'll have to have ample storage space. But Wright contends that a house should be kept "alive," not static.

The two-story glass wall in the Wright living room in summer is covered with gauzy draw draperies of an off-white sheer. In winter, its covering becomes a warm mass of vertically hung ribbon strips in various pinks and reds. Wright, a widower, said the treatment took a lot of ribbon—about 2,000 yards—but he and daughter, Ann, 11, stapled it all to the drapery pulls one weekend.

Use color on color for an irridescent look at picture windows. The floor-to-ceiling window in his daughter's room is covered with draw draperies in two sheer layers, one of pale violet, the other of pale aqua.

If replanning a kitchen, consider putting the refrigerator into the center of the room. The back would have to be cased in, but Wright said the arrangement saves hundreds of steps in meal preparation. Mount storage cabinets for china, glass or food staples on sliding vertical tracks so they can be pushed up and out of the way when not in use.

The designer lent individuality to the entrance of each room with a variety of doorknobs, most of them antiques, he has gathered in his travels. One knob from the Orient has the design of the man in the moon on it; this is on the door opening onto a terrace bathed in moonlight on clear nights.

JUNE WILL BE the wedding month for Jo Ann Mahoney and Kenneth Charles Kauer of San Anselmo. The engagement was announced recently by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mahoney of San Francisco. (Milton Mann photo)

Jo Ann Mahoney Will Marry Kenneth Kauer On June 2

The engagement of Jo Ann Mahoney to Kenneth Charles Kauer of San Anselmo was announced recently by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mahoney of San Francisco.

The prospective benedict is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kauer of San Anselmo.

The bride-elect was graduated from Balboa High School and is a life member of the California Scholarship Federation. She is employed by Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. Mrs. Edward W. Windfeldt of San Bruno is her sister.

The future benedict was graduated form Sir Francis Drake High School and is in his senior year at San Francisco State College. He is the brother of Robert and David Kauer and Craig Lorenzen of San Anselmo.

Plans are being made for a wedding on June 2.

To Mark Brotherhood Week

Marin Chapter B'nai B'rith Women will hold its membership meeting on Thursday at noon.

In honor of Brotherhood Week as well as Lincoln's and Washington's birthdays, the program spotlinghts the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith. Mrs. Frank Langfelder of San Francisco, ADL chairman for Greater San Francisco Council of B'nai B'rith, will address the group. She will preview the highlights of the coming "Wonderful World of ADL", a weekend institute planned for Feb. 24-25 at Rickey's Rancho Rafael, Ignacio.

Delegates from chapters throughout central California will attend, participating in discussions on timely topics, among which will be:

"The Home - Front Peace Corps";

"Religion in the Schools";

"The Image We present to Others: ADL and Interfaith";

"Social Discriimnation";

"The Woman's Role in ADL."

The meeting will be preceded by a luncheon, for which Mesdames Harry Harris, Fred Horn and Harry Diller will assist Mrs. Max Schapiro, hospitality chairman.

Women Still Denied Rights In U.S., Charges Professor

Americans are putting up a good fight against racial and religious bigotry, but not against sex prejudice, a civil rights proponent claims.

Writing in Ava Maria, national Catholic magazine, John J. O'Connor cites numerous instances where women are discriminated against. "Our national record in this explosive area is not very creditable. It is, in fact, abominable," he says.

O'Connor, professor of history at Georgetown University, is chairman of the National Catholic Conference for Interracial Justice.

He scores the federal government for preaching women's rights while avoiding action. "For example, there is no woman in the New Frontier Cabinet. No feminine jurist adorns the Supreme Court woolsack. The State Department is a Harvard-oriented gentleman's club. Women in foreign service rarely achieve ambassadorial rank . . ."

The chairman of the Civil Service Commission state in 1955 that the ratio of women to men in federal positions paying $10,000 or more was 17 to 1,430, O'Connor points out.

In business, women are kept out of supervisory jobs, ignored in training programs and sometimes eliminated from retirement plans that cover only better paid employees, he says.

"In many states married women are put in the same category as criminals, children and the insane because they are limited in their right to enter into contracts. This classifies large numbers of women as legally and financially irresponsible," says O'Connor.

He sites a number of discriminatory laws. In some states a husband has first claim on his wife's earnings. In Nevada and New Mexico, a wife cannot will money to anyone but her husband. In Alabama, Georgia and several other states the father is the sole natural guardian of minor children.

Women have been trying to get Congress to adopt an Equal Rights Amendment to the Constitution since 1923, but the male congressmen regularly avoid the issue, O'Connor declares.

What Do Doctors Do When They Suffer HEADACHE PAIN?

New York, N.Y.—Most doctors live under constant nervous tension, pressure and mental strain. It's not surprising they, too, often suffer from miserable headaches. But now—it can be revealed what doctors, themselves, take to relieve headache pain.

A survey shows many doctors take the fast, pain-relieving ingredients in Anacin®. In fact, three out of four doctors recommend this same type of relief to their patients.

Anacin Tablets are stronger yet safer. They give fast, long-lasting and—more complete relief from tense, nervous headaches than aspirin or aspirin with buffering. You see, mere aspirin or buffered aspirin contains only one pain reliever. But Anacin is different. Anacin is like a doctor's prescription. That is, a combination of medically proven ingredients recognized for their effectiveness by the highest medical authorities. Anacin gives extra medication that not only relieves pain fast, but also its nervous tension, pressure and depression.

After taking Anacin—pain goes in minutes! The sufferer 'feels great' again.

Despite their strength and effectiveness—Anacin Tablets contain no narcotics, do not form a habit or leave one depressed. Anacin may be taken as directed as often as needed without upsetting or irritating the stomach.

See if the extra medication in Anacin doesn't work better for you. Change to Anacin for fast, long-lasting, more complete pain-relief.

1500 Calorie Diet Given As Safe Reducing Method

Food, not starvation, is the hard core of any weight-reducing program that will get you back to your desirable weight and keep you there permanently.

Overweight is one of the major health problems in America today, says an article in the magazine of the American Medical Assn. About one in every five men and women over 30 in the United States is carrying about a dangerous number of excess pounds.

No trick, miracle or special foods are needed, unless recommended by your physician. The most effective weight-reducing program is one which re-educates the individual to the amount of food needed per day and which stresses the importance of including a variety of foods in the daily diet.

Regardless of how fat you are, most experts in weight control would not recommend a diet of less than 1,500 calories. On the 1,500 calorie daily diet pattern, recommended by the American Dietetic Assn., you will lose weight regularly, provided you take moderate exercise every day.

1,500 CALORIE DIET

1 pint of whole milk
1 egg
5 ounces of lean meat, poultry, fish (broiled, boiled or roasted), or cheese daily. Liver once weekly.

One-half cup enriched or whole-grain cereal, 1 small potato, 4 slices enriched or whole wheat bread (or one-half cup cooked spaghetti or noodles, cooked cereal, a muffin, biscuit or 2-inch square of cornbread).

1 serving green or yellow vegetable
2 servings of other vegetables
1 serving citrus fruit or tomato (4-ounce glass grapefruit or orange juice; 8-ounce glass tomato juice)
2 servings other fruit, fresh or unsweetened
4 teaspoons butter or enriched margarine

Dieting and the daily caloric needs are personal matters. To be safe and effective, any dietary plan must take into account sex, age, activity and rate of weight reduction desired. The safest and surest route to a weight-reducing dietary program is to see your doctor and follow his advice.

Circle Official Is Honored By Woodwardia Unit

Mrs. Harry Cahill of San Anselmo was honored by Woodwardia Circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft, as the circle's grand representative, at ceremonies at IOOF Temple, San Rafael.

Attending were Mrs. Cahill's two daughters, Mrs. George Petterson of Fresno and Patricia Cahill, a senior at San Jose State College, who presented Mrs. Cahill with a gift on behalf of Woodwardia.

Others attending included officials and visiting teams from Bay Area circles.

After the ceremony the group honored the Cahill family at dinner in the dining room.

Mrs. Max Margolis was chairman for the evening.

Friendship Fair Planned For Scouts

Twenty-eight Mill Valley Brownie and Intermediate Girl Scout troops will participate in their annual World Friendship Fair on Friday from 7:30 to 9 p.m. To be held in Ruby Scott Auditorium at Tamalpais High School, the fair will feature booths exhibiting the arts, crafts, products and costumes of the foreign country that each troop has studied.

Donations to the Juliette Low Friendship Fund will be made by the 350 Scouts participating. The public is invited to attend the fair. Mrs. Adam Kwaitkowski is chairman, assisted by Mesdames Paul White, Charles D. Eskes and D. M. McKelvey.

Beads On Gingham

Beads are showing up unexpectedly on gingham and seersucker, linen tops for summer and chiffon, peau de soie and lace for evening. The types of beads most in demand are paillettes, bugles, rocailles. Some of the beady collections are made of wood, and even straw.

THE PARENTS' CORNER

By RICHMOND BARBOUR, Ph. D
Guidance Counselor

Opposition To Internationalism Raises Its Head To This Mother

"Why do people fight about the United Nations' children's activities?" a puzzled principal asks. "Last Halloween my pupils collected money for UNICEF. Many parents objected. Recently we had an assembly program about UNESCO. I'm being criticized mercilessly. I trust your judgment, Dr. Barbour. Have you had any personal contact with either of these organizations? Is it wrong to educate for internationalism?" K.L.

The same quarrels are raging everywhere. There has been an upsurge of criticism of United Nations' activities. As I see it, we should not educate for internationalism IF by that we do anything which weakens our loyalty to our country. We are at war. We aren't firing guns, but our struggle is just as deadly as a shooting war. I don't think we can afford the luxury of divided loyalties in wartime.

However, if by educating for internationalism you mean giving children some understanding and appreciation for other peoples, it is not wrong. The people who criticize UNICEF and UNESCO believe they are tainted with anti-Americanism. Therefore they criticize what you did.

I've had no direct contact with UNICEF. I did work for UNESCO during its early days. I went into its work wholeheartedly, and idealistically. My efforts came to a crashing halt when I talked with some of the international leaders. They then were expressing what I believed to be anti-American sentiments. I felt the leaders were untrustworthy.

There is a way for you to teach the right kind of internationalism without controversy. It is through the program of the Junior Red Cross. In this way your pupils can exchange information and mementoes with children in other places. They can be part of many worthy international children's projects. I've worked with the Junior Red Cross for years. I can recommend it to you without reservation.

Executive Says Future Homes Will Have Detachable Room

CHICAGO (UPI)—Houses in the future will consist of detachable rooms to trade in as the family's needs change, an electrical company executive predicts.

G. T. Bogard of General Electric said the first such houses, with prices beginning at $13,500, will be on the market within a few years.

The detachable-room houses would be fashioned of foamed plastic panels with an inside and outside surface of any desired material — wood, aluminum, simulated stone, brick or plywood. They would be built on the modular principle. The basic size of rooms might be 12 x 12 feet, with expansion possible in four-foot units.

Under this plan, newlyweds could buy a lot in a modest priced subdivision and purchase a house with two 12 x 12 foot modules for a living room and bedroom. A bath and laundry could be added by the purchase of a 4 x 12 foot module, while the living room might be enlarged by the addition of a 4 x 12 foot dining alcove on one side to counterbalance a similar-sized kitchen with built-in appliances on the other side.

Additional bedrooms and other rooms could be purchased as the size of the family increased. Finally, if the couple decided to move to another location, they could have their light - weight house disassembled, carted to the new lot and re-erected in a few days.

If the new location called for a larger and more luxurious house, a couple of old rooms could be traded in for new, more expensive ones and 12 x 12 foot modules added in groups of two to provide big 24 foot long rooms.

As the children married and left home, the parents might given each a present of their own rooms with which to start a new house or the old rooms could be sold to a used-house dealer or advertised in the classified section of the newspaper.

What will the detachable house look like? As Bogard sees it, the roof could be either pitched or flat, with translucent plastic panels permitting daylight to enter. The exterior could be virtually any style—ranch, Georgian, Cape Cod.

Changes inside would run mainly to built-ins—stereo, hi-fi, television, cabinets, lighting and appliances.

Sharon Thomas Recites Vows With Russell Leroy Melquist

Swedenborgian Church in San Francisco was the setting for the wedding of Sharon Thomas and Russell Leroy Melquist performed by the Rev. Othmar Tobish. The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Thomas of San Rafael, was given in marriage by her father.

Sharon recited vows in a white satin ballerina length gown. Catherine Anne Turner of San Francisco was maid of honor, wearing a blue satin sheath dress, and Sallee Jean Rapuano, the bridegroom's sister, was the bridesmaid. Her dress was similar to the maid of honor's.

Best man for the bridegroom was Robert Wooll of San Rafael and ushers were Ronald Wilson of Reno and James Nicholini of San Rafael.

After the double ring ceremony a reception was given at the church. The couple left for a week's wedding trip to Lake Tahoe.

The bride is a graduate of San Rafael High School and she attended Brigham Young University and the University of California. She is a physical therapist at Franklin Hospital in San Francisco. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wright of Ogden, Utah and Mrs. Jane Thomas of Salmon, Ida. and the sister of Linda Farr and Roger Thomas, both of San Rafael.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Geneva Rapuano of San Rafael and Russell Melquist of Sacramento. A graduate of San Rafael High School, he received a degree in business administration from the University of Nevada and is employed by the Firemen's Fund Insurance Co. He is the grandson of Mrs. Reuben Melquist of San Rafael.

The couple is living in San Anselmo.

Concise View Given Of County Planning In Seminar Series

Marin County Planning Director Mary Summers outlined a comprehensive but concise view of "Planning and County Government" at yesterday's seminar at the Tamalpais Union High School district office in Larkspur.

This was the second in the series of eight seminars on county government sponsored by the Mill Valley units of the American Association of University Women and League of Women Voters in conjunction with the 14th District of the P-TA.

Planning, in its simplest physical terms, Mrs. Summers said," is organizing people and land, and it covers whatever we do together."

She defined her position as that of head of a paid staff of 13 who advise a county planning commission made up of six unpaid commissioners.

State law, she pointed out, says that "every county shall, and every city may have a planning commission whose duty is to develop a master or general plan which is comprehensive, general and long range for the physical development of a community."

She explained that a master plan is not binding legally and that it is the zoning ordinances passed by governing bodies which have power to enforce conformance.

A master plan is only as good as the ideas in it and the backing of the people affected, she declared, and its strength resides in governing bodies like city councils.

"On you as citizens finally rests the responsibility for your environment through politics. If you respond at the polls to planning, this will be recognized by the politicians, and a good staff will point it out to the politicians from the other side."

Master plans are subject to change, and this is right, she emphasized. The important thing is that changes should be in accordance with the social and economic principles set forth in those plans, she said.

Mrs. Summers said that the first step in developing a master plan is meeting with citizens of a community and getting them to answer these two questions: What do you want your community to be like? Are you willing to support the cost of the kind of environment you want?

As one illustration of working out answers to these questions she described the principles followed in the recently completed plan for the San Geronimo Valley.

The speaker maintained that planning pays dividends because "logical forethought results in the saving of taxes."

Cited as examples were failures to locate roads properly and foresee eventual capacity needed in sewage systems so that the first ones had to be replaced by new ones at tremendous waste of tax money.

A county planning staff has many handicaps, the planning director said, in having to deal with so many other agencies involved in planning, each concerned mainly with its own interests. Among these are the cities, the federal government, the state division of highways; school, sanitary, recreation and community services districts, and especially the land owners themselves.

On the local community level, she asserted only a full-time consultant is satisfactory. Cities may feel they cannot afford to hire one, but can they afford not to? she queried.

As qualifications for such a consultant she recommended that he should not be just a job holder, but should love people, believe in the democratic process and abide by the decisions of the people he serves, helping them to get what they want in the best possible way. She also recommended that he be a politician but have the courage of his convictions with the ability to change the vote of a city council if necessary.

Mrs. Summers concluded with a discussion of the importance of having good examples of planning to follow or stimulate thought.

"Whatever you may think of our Civic Center—whether you like it or not—it starts you to thinking. That's why I was so much in favor of having Frank Lloyd Wright's great creative genius."

JUDITH ODELL

Judith Odell Will Be Bride Of Norman Freed In April

At an open house hosted by Wesley T. Odell of Berkeley recently the engagement of his daughter, Judith Marion (Judy) Odell to Norman Freed was announced. Judy's mother was the late Mrs. Odell.

Norman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvie M. Freed of Greenbrae. Judy and Norman were both graduated from University of California in 1960. She is a graduate of Berkeley High School. Norman, who was president of Delta Upsilon at U.C., is a graduate of Sir Francis Drake High School.

He is the grandson of Clarence M. Freed and Mrs. Herbert A. Norman of San Francisco. Both had summer homes in Marin. The senior Freeds lived in Murray Park and Mrs. Norman had a home in Lansdale.

Judy and Norman, who are now in the merchandizing field, will be married April 1 at 4 p.m. at Northbrae Community Church in Berkeley.

Novato Junior Women To Hold Progressive Dinner On Saturday

Members of the Novato Junior Women's Club will entertain their husbands with a progressive dinner Saturday night.

The evening's social activities will begin with cocktails at the home of the club president and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Budde at at 6:30 p.m.

Mrs. Budde will be assisted by Mesdames James Robinson, Marlin Olsen, Donald Cowan, and Richard Boldenweck.

The salad course will be served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George McDaniel. Assisting Mrs. McDaniel will be Mesdames Peter Ruona, Allen Chisholm and Kenneth Smythe.

The group will then progress to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred James Smith for the main course. Mesdames Jack Kidder, William Walker, Duane Butler and Lee Hilton will assist Mrs. Smith.

Finishing up the evening of dining, the members and their husbands will have dessert at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Deboi. Assisting Mrs. Deboi will be Mesdames Robert Berini, Lee Baxter and Duane Lodolce.

Mrs. Butler is chairman of the dinner, which is the only club social activity to which the husbands are invited during the year.

Newlyweds Residing In Valley Ford

Residing in Valley Ford following their recent wedding at the home of Dr. John Jefferson Canoles of Novato are Mr. and Mrs. Stanley R. Molseed.

The bride, the former June Charlotte Zimmerman, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Zimmerman of Bloomfield. Parents of the bridegroom are Mrs. George R. Molseed of Valley Ford and the late Mr. Molseed.

Dr. Canoles, who was pastor at the First Presbyterian Church in San Rafael for more than 30 years, conducted the 11:30 a.m. ceremony.

For her wedding, the bride wore a ballerina gown of white lace over taffeta.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Molseed home in Valley Ford.

The newlyweds are both graduates of Tomales High School. The bridegroom operates a dairy ranch in Valley Ford.

Royal Ethiopian Navy Officers Feted At San Anselmo Dinner

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

Two young officers of the Royal Ethiopian Navy, Lieutenants Adnonem Egzie and Musa Yasim were honored at the dinner given by the Edward J. Neumeiers of San Anselmo Saturday night. The naval officers are part of a complement here for the recommissioning of the U.S.S. Orea into the H.M.S. Ethiopia. The ship, a gift from the United States, will serve as a training ship for the Ethiopian Navy, with a private suite for Emperor Haile Selassie.

Also at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Torrey of Corte Madera. Mr. Torrey's brother, Edward Torrey, now in Washington, D.C., with the Library of Congress, as a youth, in 1936 organized a Help Ethiopia drive during the Italian invasion of Ethiopia.

Sunday the Neumeier and Robert Torrey families were guests of Lieutenant Egzie on a tour of the ship now docked at Hunter's Point. Both Mr. Torrey and Mr. Neumeier are members of the Tamalpais High School District administrative staff.

The spectacular new home of the Harold Ringrose at 2450 Green Street, San Francisco, was viewed at their open house Saturday night by a number of Marin people. Among these were Dr. and Mrs. Clayton Moto of Sausalito, the William H. Baldwins and the Harold Schuttes of Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Scarth of Greenbrae; Mr. and Mrs. George V. Herrero of Tiburon, and the Harold Kings of Kentfield.

The three story Ringrose home, for which Hewitt C. Wells was the architect, has the dining room, kitchen and master bedroom on the ground floor. On the second floor are the living rooms with a wide balcony overlooking the bay. The guests took the elevator to the top floor where there are dog runs. The Ringroses have standard Poodles, all champions.

Harold and Justina Schutte left the party to attend the Symphony Ball at the Meadow Club. The gowns were beautiful, Mrs. Eugene Ostaggi, who checked names at the door, wore bright red crepe. Also red crepe was the floor length gown of Mrs. Bernard O'Kane, awards chairman. Mrs. J. Benton Tulley, ball chairman, wore a gold chiffon gown with beaded bodice, Mrs. Edmond Mahon was gowned in white crepe, Mrs. Emmet Rixford wore an orange and white print chiffon and Mrs. Edward Vest wore a floor length gown of black velvet, Mrs. George Pritzker had a short white brocade. Mrs. Sandor Salgo, whose husband is conductor of Marin Symphony orchestra, wore blue chiffon. Among the out of county guests were Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bentley of Patterson, formerly of Mill Valley. The ball, sponsored by Marin Symphony Auxiliary, is a benefit for the orchestra.

At a cocktail party and dinner given Saturday night by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Luchessa of San Anselmo, the engagement of her nephew, Paul Vincent Butler, and Jacqueline Florence Arees was announced. The affair took place on the twenty-first birthdays of Paul and his fiancee. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Arees and niece of Mrs. Dorothy Burns of San Francisco. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Florence Cesena of San Francisco and the late Joseph Skowran and the late2 Mr. and Mrs. Jean Arees of France. She is a graduate of Star of the Sea Academy in San Francisco and attended San Francisco City College. She is a member of the Newman Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent S. Butler of Daly City are Paul's parents. He has another aunt, Mrs. Frank Tringali of Daly City and is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Grover Franz of San Francisco. A graduate of Riordan High School in San Francisco, he is a student at San Francisco City College where he is a member of the Engineering Society. The wedding date has not been set, however, the ceremony will take place in late August at St. Ceceila's Church in San Francisco.

Attending the announcement party were relatives and close friends.

Deb Ball Sponsors Members Listed

The honorary sponsoring committee for the Marin Debutante Ball has been announced by Mrs. Frank Stratford of Ross, chairman.

Members are Mesdames Norman S. Livermore, Albert J. Evers, Farwell Hill, E. G. Schmiedell, Paul Foster, Benjamin H. Dibblee, A. Crawford Greene and Milton H. Esberg of Ross; Mesdames Berrien Anderson and Jordan Martinelli, Misses Louise Boyd and Elsa Korbel of San Rafael; Mesdames Seward McNear and Thomas Kent of Kent Woodlands; Mrs. Delmar Clinton of Mill Valley and Mrs. Richard M. Sims of Belvedere.

Medicine Labels

Transparent cellophane tape over the label of medicine bottles will keep the name, directions and prescription number clear and unspotted.

Maurice Power Claims Bride At St. Francis Church Rite

San Francisco's Saint Francis Episcopal Church was the setting Saturday for the wedding of Marylee Place of San Francisco and Maurice Strathallan Power III of San Rafael.

The Rev. R. G. Dissell officiated for the 2 o'clock ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack E. Place of San Francisco.

Judith Place was maid of honor for her sister and Sara Boice acted as bridesmaid.

James W. Thomas served the bridegroom as best man and ushering guests to their seats were Tim Canty, Jack Clausen and Richard Bigger.

The bride attended the University of Oregon where she was a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority. Judith and Richard Place are her sister and brother.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice S. Power II of San Rafael, was graduated from Stanford University and is working toward his master's degree at the University of California. He is a Phi Kappa Sigma member.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Forest Hill Club House.

Following a wedding trip to Squaw Valley the newlyweds will reside in Berkeley.

West leads the jack of spades and continues with another spade at the second trick. (If dummy's queen is played at the first trick, for no good reason, East wins and continues with a high spade.)

South ruffs the second spade and correctly reads West for no more spades. If East gains the lead before trumps are drawn, he will lead another spade and put West in over-ruffing position.

For example, suppose South leads a club at the second trick, losing the king to East's ace. East leads a high spade, and the defenders must make two trump tricks.

DRAWS TRUMPS: South must draw two rounds of trumps with the king and ace. He then leads the low club from dummy.

If East steps up with the ace of clubs to draw a third round of trumps, declarer will easily win the rest since both the king and queen of clubs will be good.

If East, instead, plays a low club, South wins with the queen. He leads a diamond to dummy and ruffs a spade. South then leads another diamond to dummy to ruff dummy's last spade. It does East no good to ruff a diamond; he can get only one club and one trump trick.

South cannot set up his own hand by ruffing a club in dummy. Instead, he sets up dummy by ruffing three spades in his own hand. Sometimes the longest way around is the shortest way home.

'Freak Squeaks Of 1961,' Or Some Pretty Daffy Accidents

I-J Special Report

CHICAGO—Traffic accidents on the Island of Bjarkoey, Norway, rose sharply in 1961 to an unprecedented rate equal to 5,000 accidents per 10,000 registered vehicles.

The Arctic island has an area of five square mlies, a population of 730, one road, one truck, and one station wagon, the island's only taxi. The truck and the taxi collided at a bend in the road.

This is one of the tales in an article "Freak Squeaks of 1961," the National Safety Council's annual roundup of odd and unusual accidents. It appears in the February issue of Traffic Safety Magazine, published by the council here.

Water started a fire in Laramie, Wyo. The watter was in a gallon jug in a station wagon, and the sun shining through it ignited a sleeping bag. Heat from the fire caused a gasoline lantern to overflow, adding fuel to the fire.

Richard Matheney badly damaged his car when he swerved off Illinois Highway 460 to avoid hitting a deer. He got another auto to continue his business. A short time later he ran off the same highway and into a fence—to avoid hitting another deer.

Matheney's deer were not the only animals involved in unusual accidents. Mail carrier Buck Henson of Greer, S. C., was trying to shoo away a barking dog when a small boy ran from a nearby house and bit the postman on the arm. And John Honson got two bites for one when he hooked a catfish in Chestuee Creek near Cleveland, Tenn. The 20-pound fish bit him when he landed it.

The year's most unusual snack was not enjoyed by a Marietta, Ga., housewife. While eating watermelon, she swallowed a yellow jacket wasp which flew into her mouth. It stung her throat on the way down.

Policemen — and women— had their troubles too. George R. Mischner was directing traffic in New York City when he stepped into an open manhole. He managed to grab the edge of the hole to keep from falling 15 feet to the bottom. And Police Matron Albina Jenko in Milwaukce, Wis., dislocated her jaw when she yawned at 3:30 one morning.

Baseball stars added to the list of unusual mishaps. Don Newcombe, former major leaguer pitching for Spokane in the Pacific Coast League, was scheduled to go against Hawaii in Honolulu. He couldn't make it after he received an eye injury when he bumped into a palm tree. And Alvin Dark, manager of the San Francisco Giants, had to have his little finger bandaged after he snagged it on a metal stool he threw in anger after a losing game.

Meanwhile, across the country in Birmingham, Ala., 8-year-old Johnny Hines fell out of a swing and broke his right wrist. The next day he fell while playing football and broke his left wrist.

In Globe, Ariz., Mrs. Lena Berry broke her leg when she slipped and fell while walking down a hill. She was hurrying to a first aid class. In Bangor, Me., a woman described only as being of "generous proportions," got stuck in her bathtub. Two gallant firemen each took an arm and — with eyes averted — tugged hard until she was extricated.

Louise and Ruth Murasky are 21-year-old twins in Garfield Heights, Ohio. Not only do they look alike, but they do things together. Both are nurses, and a few days after Louise cut her right leg on a glass lamp shade, Ruth cut her right leg when a bottle exploded.

Sleepwalking, Mrs. Faith Blakemore, 43, of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., apparently decided to cease being a pedestrian. Sound asleep one night, she went to the garage and started the car. The damage was estimated at $450 to the car and $300 to the garage.

Traffic was tied up a few miles west of Olney, Ill., when a panel truck collided head-on with the car it was towing. The truck tried to pass a semi-trailer truck and ran off the pavement. The car being towed broke loose, spun 180 degrees and overturned in the highway. The panel truck bounced through a drainage ditch, returned to the highway, and hit the car.

Highway signs are intended to help drivers, but Carl M. Gelbke, 34 of Kalamazoo, Mich., found they weren't placed quite right for airplane drivers. Gelbke, a student pilot, crashed in the median of Interstate 94 after he became lost and brought his plane close to the ground to read a sign. His craft hit a high tension wire.

Mayor Harold J. Grady of Baltimore, Md., was handed an appropriate schedule sheet during Fire Prevention Week. One of his secretaries dropped a cigarette cinder on the paragraph which mentioned the special week, and scorched the word "hazards" in a sentence reminding he was to say a few words of warning about fire hazards.

And 14 - year - old Steven Hardina announced he was giving up baton twirling after he shook up Ventura, Calif. With a mighty toss, Steve sent his baton so high that it struck two 4,000-volt power lines. This blocked out a 10-block area for an hour, started a grass fire, and knocked a radio station off the air.

Big things happened in 1961. Maris' and Mantle's assaults on the Mighty Bambino's batting record crowded the pennant races right out of the sports pages, Russian Premier Nikita Krushchev said he could sometimes make mistakes, and a few other things happened. But a lot of folks are still talking about the dizzy things that happened to them during the year.

Steelmen Happy Over Climbing Production

NEW YORK (AP) — This is steel's time in the spotlight. Steelmen are happy over the climbing production and the better earnings now being reported. But many are a bit fidgety about the amount of public attention their industry is getting.

It's nice to be a basic industry—some even call it the basic industry — and know you're that important. It's a bit troubling to be made the example of what should be done and can be done about the wage-price spiral and even the trend of the economy in general.

Many are casting steel in that role this year. The main reason is that the Kennedy administration puts prime significance on the terms which steel workers and management will negotiate in the upcoming wage talks—and on how soon the talks can be concluded. Washington wants no rise in steel prices and cautions labor against demands that might cause such a rise.

Other reasons are that climbing steel production now can be interpreted two ways. It means that the economy is starting a healthy growth trend from the level set when the recovery wiped out the last recession.

If the increased production is largely due to stockpiling against the chance of a strike, the over-production now, followed by under-production while buyers live off their inventories later, could upset the general economy.

Some steel mills say their customers aren't building up stocks as much as was expected. Most mills say orders are still coming in very good volume.

The orders are high enough to assure most major steel users all they'll need for the first half of the year at least, according to the metalworking weekly, The Iron Age.

It adds that steel capacity seems adequate to take care of any more orders likely from those wishing to make sure of a supply during the summer. The steel wage contracts expire June 30, so that any work stoppage would come after that.

Whatever the reasons for the upsurge in orders and in production, the figures themselves gladden the hearts of the steel mill managers.

In the last nine weeks steel output has advanced steadily, with the single exception of Christmas week when holidays were in order.

Mentally Ill Bill Due For House

WASHINGTON—Rep. Clem Miller (D-Corte Madera) today announced he will introduce a bill intended to improve care for the mentally ill by authorizing grants-in-aid to help states train mental health workers.

Miller said his measure is to be based on recommendations of the Joint Commission on Mental Health and Illness, whose six-year study was reported to Congress last year.

"With the nation's hospital beds occupied by mentally ill patients, mental illness ranks as our number one health problem," the California congressman said.

Corte Madera Lions Due Automation Talk

John Burger, Director of the San Francisco Institute of Business Automation, will be guest speaker at the Corte Madera Lions Club dinner meeting tomorrow at 7 p.m. in the Corte Madera Recreation Center.

Burger, who lives at 24 San Augustine Way, San Rafael, is former assistant to the director of public relations for General Mills.

Former U.S. Open golf champion Dick Mayer says "Doug Sanders hits the ball with nervous energy, but the ball usually goes straight."

Wright Changes Mood Of House With Each Season Of The Year

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

GARRISON, N.Y. — Many innovations in the Russell Wright experimental house easily could be adapted to other homes.

Wright, an industrial designer, planned and constructed the 11-level house of wood and glass which hugs the rugged terrain of a hillside overlooking the Hudson Valley here.

The house, on the edge of an old quarry, is built to bring as much of nature indoors as possible. In the making for "four or five years," it embodies many materials the designer is testing for clients and many of his advanced ideas on lighting, design and decoration.

Several of the ideas grew from the 57-year-old designer's trips to Southeast Asia on assignment for the State Department or the International Cooperation Administration.

He said that from farm houses in Thailand he got the idea for the two-level, or balcony, construction in the living area for added coolness in summer. The warm air then can move upward, making way for cooler air at the people level.

Wright changes the mood of his house with the seasons. In the living room, the winter Oriental rug is replaced in the spring with a Sisal rug from Taiwan. The white fur slipcovers are removed from chairs; the tan woolen sofa cover is replaced by white vinyl.

Panels on the case furniture are built to slide out. In winter, those in the living room area are of a glossy red lacquer surface; in the summer, sleek white ones are on view.

Pictures also fit the seasons. The painting of a block fox, for instance, is hung in wintertime on the wall of his studio-bedroom. In summer, one of a sleepy owl goes up.

Wright, whose designs have included all sorts of home furnishings, even uses the winter-summer theme in the household dinnerware.

In summer, the pattern is a scattering of white violets; in winter, the shepherd's purse, an herb of the mustard family.

Granted, to carry out a change-of-seasons theme, you'll have to have ample storage space. But Wright contends that a house should be kept "alive," not static.

The two-story glass wall in the Wright living room in summer is covered with gauzy draw draperies of an off-white sheer. In winter, its covering becomes a warm mass of vertically hung ribbon strips in various pinks and reds. Wright, a widower, said the treatment took a lot of ribbon—about 2,000 yards—but he and daughter, Ann, 11, stapled it all to the drapery pulls one weekend.

Use color on color for an irridescent look at picture windows. The floor-to-ceiling window in his daughter's room is covered with draw draperies in two sheer layers, one of pale violet, the other of pale aqua.

If replanning a kitchen, consider putting the refrigerator into the center of the room. The back would have to be cased in, but Wright said the arrangement saves hundreds of steps in meal preparation. Mount storage cabinets for china, glass or food staples on sliding vertical tracks so they can be pushed up and out of the way when not in use.

The designer lent individuality to the entrance of each room with a variety of doorknobs, most of them antiques, he has gathered in his travels. One knob from the Orient has the design of the man in the moon on it; this is on the door opening onto a terrace bathed in moonlight on clear nights.

JUNE WILL BE the wedding month for Jo Ann Mahoney and Kenneth Charles Kauer of San Anselmo. The engagement was announced recently by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mahoney of San Francisco. (Milton Mann photo)

Jo Ann Mahoney Will Marry Kenneth Kauer On June 2

The engagement of Jo Ann Mahoney to Kenneth Charles Kauer of San Anselmo was announced recently by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mahoney of San Francisco.

The prospective benedict is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kauer of San Anselmo.

The bride-elect was graduated from Balboa High School and is a life member of the California Scholarship Federation. She is employed by Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. Mrs. Edward W. Windfeldt of San Bruno is her sister.

The future benedict was graduated form Sir Francis Drake High School and is in his senior year at San Francisco State College. He is the brother of Robert and David Kauer and Craig Lorenzen of San Anselmo.

Plans are being made for a wedding on June 2.

To Mark Brotherhood Week

Marin Chapter B'nai B'rith Women will hold its membership meeting on Thursday at noon.

In honor of Brotherhood Week as well as Lincoln's and Washington's birthdays, the program spotlights the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith. Mrs. Frank Langfelder of San Francisco, ADL chairman for Greater San Francisco Council of B'nai B'rith, will address the group. She will preview the highlights of the coming "Wonderful World of ADL", a weekend institute planned for Feb. 24-25 at Rickey's Rancho Rafael, Ignacio.

Delegates from chapters throughout central California will attend, participating in discussions on timely topics, among which will be:

"The Home - Front Peace Corps";

"Religion in the Schools";

"The Image We present to Others: ADL and Interfaith";

"Social Discriimnation";

"The Woman's Role in ADL."

The meeting will be preceded by a luncheon, for which Mesdames Harry Harris, Fred Horn and Harry Diller will assist Mrs. Max Schapiro, hospitality chairman.

Dorcas Guild Elects New Officers

Mrs. Ralph Schooling is the new president of the Dorcas Guild of Lutheran Church of the Resurrection in Terra Linda.

Other officers who are serving this year with her are Mesdames James Regan, vice president; Robert Shelley, secretary; and Dwight Thietten, treasurer.

Appointed chairmen are Mesdames Web Wright, hospitality; Arlo Schriver, welcoming; Bob Grose, altar; Frank MacCubbin, world relief and Good Shepherd Home; Gordon Rogers, Dabblers; Claus Coeler, nursery; Richard Love, Lutheran women's missionary league; Robert Hinnermen, kitchen; Norman Ruecker, recipes; Robert Huck, secret sisters; Donald Dean, publicity.

Women Still Denied Rights In U.S., Charges Professor

Americans are putting up a good fight against racial and religious bigotry, but not against sex prejudice, a civil rights proponent claims.

Writing in Ava Maria, national Catholic magazine, John J. O'Connor cites numerous instances where women are discriminated against. "Our national record in this explosive area is not very creditable. It is, in fact, abominable," he says.

O'Connor, professor of history at Georgetown University, is chairman of the National Catholic Conference for Interracial Justice.

He scores the federal government for preaching women's rights while avoiding action. "For example, there is no woman in the New Frontier Cabinet. No feminine jurist adorns the Supreme Court woolsack. The State Department is a Harvard-oriented gentleman's club. Women in foreign service rarely achieve ambassadorial rank . . ."

The chairman of the Civil Service Commission state in 1955 that the ratio of women to men in federal positions paying $10,000 or more was 17 to 1,430, O'Connor points out.

In business, women are kept out of supervisory jobs, ignored in training programs and sometimes eliminated from retirement plans that cover only better paid employees, he says.

"In many states married women are put in the same category as criminals, children and the insane because they are limited in their right to enter into contracts. This classifies large numbers of women as legally and financially irresponsible," says O'Connor.

He sites a number of discriminatory laws. In some states a husband has first claim on his wife's earnings. In Nevada and New Mexico, a wife cannot will money to anyone but her husband. In Alabama, Georgia and several other states the father is the sole natural guardian of minor children.

Women have been trying to get Congress to adopt an Equal Rights Amendment to the Constitution since 1923, but the male congressmen regularly avoid the issue, O'Connor declares.

OWC Will Hear Talk On Defense

Lt. Col. L. J. Churchville will be guest speaker at the Officers' Wives' Club of the Presidio in San Francisco at 2 p.m. tomorrow.

As director of the joint office of information, Colonel Churchville is responsible for the information program of the 28th Norad Region, 28th Air Division (SAGE) and Hamilton Air Force Base.

Colonel Churchville will speak on the "North American Air Defense Command, its Components and Weapons Structure."

1500 Calorie Diet Given As Safe Reducing Method

Food, not starvation, is the hard core of any weight-reducing program that will get you back to your desirable weight and keep you there permanently.

Overweight is one of the major health problems in America today, says an article in the magazine of the American Medical Assn. About one in every five men and women over 30 in the United States is carrying about a dangerous number of excess pounds.

No trick, miracle or special foods are needed, unless recommended by your physician. The most effective weight-reducing program is one which re-educates the individual to the amount of food needed per day and which stresses the importance of including a variety of foods in the daily diet.

Regardless of how fat you are, most experts in weight control would not recommend a diet of less than 1,500 calories. On the 1,500 calorie daily diet pattern, recommended by the American Dietetic Assn., you will lose weight regularly, provided you take moderate exercise every day.

1,500 CALORIE DIET

- 1 pint of whole milk
- 1 egg
- 5 ounces of lean meat, poultry, fish (broiled, boiled or roasted), or cheese daily. Liver once weekly.

One-half cup enriched or whole-grain cereal, 1 small potato, 4 slices enriched or whole wheat bread (or one-half cup cooked spaghetti or noodles, cooked cereal, a muffin, biscuit or 2-inch square of cornbread).

- 1 serving green or yellow vegetable
- 2 servings of other vegetables
- 1 serving citrus fruit or tomato (4-ounce glass grapefruit or orange juice; 8-ounce glass tomato juice)
- 2 servings other fruit, fresh or unsweetened
- 4 teaspoons butter or enriched margarine

Dieting and the daily caloric needs are personal matters. To be safe and effective, any dietary plan must take into account sex, age, activity and rate of weight reduction desired. The safest and surest route to a weight-reducing dietary program is to see your doctor and follow his advice.

Circle Official Is Honored By Woodwardia Unit

Mrs. Harry Cahill of San Anselmo was honored by Woodwardia Circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft, as the circle's grand representative, at ceremonies at IOOF Temple, San Rafael.

Attending were Mrs. Cahill's two daughters, Mrs. George Petterson of Fresno and Patricia Cahill, a senior at San Jose State College, who presented Mrs. Cahill with a gift on behalf of Woodwardia.

Others attending included officials and visiting teams from Bay Area circles.

After the ceremony the group honored the Cahill family at dinner in the dining room.

Mrs. Max Margolis was chairman for the evening.

Friendship Fair Planned For Scouts

Twenty-eight Mill Valley Brownie and Intermediate Girl Scout troops will participate in their annual World Friendship Fair on Friday from 7:30 to 9 p.m. To be held in Ruby Scott Auditorium at Tamalpais High School, the fair will feature booths exhibiting the arts, crafts, products and costumes of the foreign country that each troop has studied.

Donations to the Juliette Low Friendship Fund will be made by the 350 Scouts participating. The public is invited to attend the fair. Mrs. Adam Kwaitkowski is chairman, assisted by Mesdames Paul White, Charles D. Eskes and D. M. McKelvey.

Kappa Alumnae Plan Annual Country Auction

Marin Kappa Kappa Gamma Alumnae will stage an annual country auction on Feb. 7, at the Mill Valley home of Mrs. Nancy Emmons. Co-hostesses for the 8 p.m. affair will be Mesdames Robert Randolph, Edward Kuzner and Barnett Robinson.

Auction chairman, Mrs. Leslie Jonas, has announced Mrs. Ben Ostlind as auctioneer. She has suggested members bring white elephants, baked goods, plants, clothing, records, kitchen utensils, home accessories and jewelry. Those who are unable to attend but wish to donate auction items may telephone Mrs. Jonas or Mrs. William Moseley for pick-up.

Proceeds from the auction will further the fraternity's national scholarship program which aids women both here and abroad in phases of educational endeavor.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. Randolph.

Beads On Gingham

Beads are showing up unexpectedly on gingham and seersucker, linen tops for summer and chiffon, peau de soie and lace for evening. The types of beads most in demand are paillettes, bugles, rocailles. Some of the beady collections are made of wood, and even straw.

What Do Doctors Do When They Suffer HEADACHE PAIN?

New York, N.Y.—Most doctors live under constant nervous tension, pressure and mental strain. It's not surprising they, too, often suffer from miserable headaches. But now—it can be revealed what doctors, themselves, take to relieve headache pain.

A survey shows many doctors take the fast, pain-relieving ingredients in Anacin®. In fact, three out of four doctors recommend this same type of relief to their patients.

Anacin Tablets are stronger yet safer. They give fast, long-lasting and—more complete relief from tense, nervous headaches than aspirin or aspirin with buffering. You see, mere aspirin or buffered aspirin contains only one pain reliever. But Anacin is different. Anacin is like a doctor's prescription. That is, a combination of medically proven ingredients recognized for their effectiveness by the highest medical authorities. Anacin gives extra medication that not only relieves pain fast, but also its nervous tension, pressure and depression.

After taking Anacin—pain goes in minutes! The sufferer 'feels great' again.

Despite their strength and effectiveness—Anacin Tablets contain no narcotics, do not form a habit or leave one depressed. Anacin may be taken as directed as often as needed without upsetting or irritating the stomach.

See if the extra medication in Anacin doesn't work better for you. Change to Anacin for fast, long-lasting, more complete pain-relief.

RESOLUTION NO. 3786 N.S.
RESOLUTION OF THE CITY OF MILL VALLEY GIVING NOTICE OF PROPOSED "HIGHLAND PARK" ANNEXATION

WHEREAS, the City of Mill Valley desires to annex the territory more particularly described in Exhibit A attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference, and

WHEREAS, said proposed annexation has been submitted to and approved by the Boundary Commission of the County of Marin, State of California,

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED, ORDERED AND DECLARED as follows:

1) The City Council of the City of Mill Valley does hereby give notice of the proposed annexation to said City of that certain territory more particularly described in Exhibit A, attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference. Annexation proceedings will be conducted pursuant to the Annexation of Uninhabited Territory Act of 1939.

2) The proceedings for the annexation of said territory have been initiated by the City Council of the City of Mill Valley on its own motion and the reasons why it desires such annexation are as follows:

a) Said territory, because of its location, topography and other features, should be subjected to the planning and zoning regulations which are applied by the City of Mill Valley to immediately adjacent incorporated territory.

3) Said annexation shall be designated as the "HIGHLAND PARK ANNEXATION".

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT ON THE 7th day of March, 1962, at 8 o'clock P.M., or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard, in the Council Chambers, City Hall, Mill Valley, California, the City Council of the City of Mill Valley will meet to hear written protests against the annexation made by any person owning real property within said territory proposed for annexation.

4) That the City Clerk be, and he is hereby directed to cause a copy of this Resolution to be published in the manner prescribed by Section 35311 of the Government Code of the State of California, and said Clerk is further directed to cause such other notices of the proposed annexation to be given as may be required by said section.

Adopted at a regular meeting of the City Council of the City of Mill Valley this 17th day of January, 1962.

THE PARENTS' CORNER

By RICHMOND BARBOUR, Ph. D
Guidance Counselor

Opposition To Internationalism Raises Its Head To This Mother

"Why do people fight about the United Nations' children's activities?" a puzzled principal asks. "Last Halloween my pupils collected money for UNICEF. Many parents objected. Recently we had an assembly program about UNESCO. I'm being criticized mercilessly. I trust your judgment, Dr. Barbour. Have you had any personal contact with either of these organizations? Is it wrong to educate for internationalism?" K.L.

The same quarrels are raging everywhere. There has been an upsurge of criticism of United Nations' activities. As I see it, we should not educate for internationalism IF by that we do anything which weakens our loyalty to our country. We are at war. We aren't firing guns, but our struggle is just as deadly as a shooting war. I don't think we can afford the luxury of divided loyalties in wartime.

However, if by educating for internationalism you mean giving children some understanding and appreciation for other peoples, it is not wrong. The people who criticize UNICEF and UNESCO believe they are tainted with anti-Americanism. Therefore they criticize what you did.

I've had no direct contact with UNICEF. I did work for UNESCO during its early days. I went into its work wholeheartedly, and idealistically. My efforts came to a crashing halt when I talked with some of the international leaders. They then were expressing what I believed to be anti-American sentiments. I felt the leaders were untrustworthy.

There is a way for you to teach the right kind of internationalism without controversy. It is through the program of the Junior Red Cross. In this way your pupils can exchange information and mementoes with children in other places. They can be part of many worthy international children's projects. I've worked with the Junior Red Cross for years. I can recommend it to you without reservation.

Executive Says Future Homes Will Have Detachable Room

CHICAGO (UPI)—Houses in the future will consist of detachable rooms to trade in as the family's needs change, an electrical company executive predicts.

G. T. Bogard of General Electric said the first such houses, with prices beginning at $13,500, will be on the market within a few years.

The detachable-room houses would be fashioned of foamed plastic panels with an inside and outside surface of any desired material — wood, aluminum, simulated stone, brick or plywood. They would be built on the modular principle. The basic size of rooms might be 12 x 12 feet, with expansion possible in four-foot units.

Under this plan, newlyweds could buy a lot in a modest priced subdivision and purchase a house with two 12 x 12 foot modules for a living room and bedroom. A bath and laundry could be added by the purchase of a 4 x 12 foot module, while the living room might be enlarged by the addition of a 4 x 12 foot dining alcove on one side to counterbalance a similar-sized kitchen with built-in appliances on the other side.

Additional bedrooms and other rooms could be purchased as the size of the family increased. Finally, if the couple decided to move to another location, they could have their light - weight house disassembled, carted to the new lot and re-erected in a few days.

If the new location called for a larger and more luxurious house, a couple of old rooms could be traded in for new, more expensive ones and 12 x 12 foot modules added in groups of two to provide big 24 foot long rooms.

As the children married and left home, the parents might given each a present of their own rooms with which to start a new house or the old rooms could be sold to a used-house dealer or advertised in the classified section of the newspaper.

What will the detachable house look like? As Bogard sees it, the roof could be either pitched or flat, with translucent plastic panels permitting daylight to enter. The exterior could be virtually any style—ranch, Georgian, Cape Cod.

Changes inside would run mainly to built-ins—stereo, hi-fi, television, cabinets, lighting and appliances.

Sharon Thomas Recites Vows With Russell Leroy Melquist

Swedenborgian Church in San Francisco was the setting for the wedding of Sharon Thomas and Russell Leroy Melquist performed by the Rev. Othmar Tobish. The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Thomas of San Rafael, was given in marriage by her father.

Sharon recited vows in a white satin ballerina length gown. Catherine Anne Turner of San Francisco was maid of honor, wearing a blue satin sheath dress, and Sallee Jean Rapuano, the bridegroom's sister, was the bridesmaid. Her dress was similar to the maid of honor's.

Best man for the bridegroom was Robert Wooll of San Rafael and ushers were Ronald Wilson of Reno and James Nicholini of San Rafael.

After the double ring ceremony a reception was given at the church. The couple left for a week's wedding trip to Lake Tahoe.

The bride is a graduate of San Rafael High School and she attended Brigham Young University and the University of California. She is a physical therapist at Franklin Hospital in San Francisco. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wright of Ogden, Utah and Mrs. Jane Thomas of Salmon, Ida. and the sister of Linda Farr and Roger Thomas, both of San Rafael.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Geneva Rapuano of San Rafael and Russell Melquist of Sacramento. A graduate of San Rafael High School, he received a degree in business administration from the University of Nevada and is employed by the Firemen's Fund Insurance Co. He is the grandson of Mrs. Reuben Melquist of San Rafael.

The couple is living in San Anselmo.

STYLISH SEASCAPE

Quick care jersey coordinates allow pleasure-bound travelers to leave the iron at home when they stow these wrinkle-shunning triacetate and nylon separates. The tee shirt and zebra pants are light as a hanky and as easily washable, and are available in a host of coordinated colors.

A CHANEL MOOD is reflected in the travel-easy jacket and pleated skirt ensemble contrasted with a blouson blouse in green-blue-pink tangle of color. The Arnel jacket of brilliant white is designed to stay that way. A jersey knit in the same print, left, ties up into a sheath or shifts by itself without the belt. They're drip dry for travel comfort.

Topsy-Turvy Olympic Hand Has Strange Dummy Reversal

Opening lead — ♠ J

West leads the jack of spades and continues with another spade at the second trick. (If dummy's queen is played at the first trick, for no good reason, East wins and continues with a high spade.)

South ruffs the second spade and correctly reads West for no more spades. If East gains the lead before trumps are drawn, he will lead another spade and put West in over-ruffing position.

For example, suppose South leads a club at the second trick, losing the king to East's ace. East leads a high spade, and the defenders must make two trump tricks.

DRAWS TRUMPS: South must draw two rounds of trumps with the king and ace. He then leads the low club from dummy.

If East steps up with the ace of clubs to draw a third round of trumps, declarer will easily win the rest since both the king and queen of clubs will be good.

If East, instead, plays a low club, South wins with the queen. He leads a diamond to dummy and ruffs a spade. South then leads another diamond to dummy to ruff dummy's last spade. It does East no good to ruff a diamond; he can get only one club and one trump trick.

South cannot set up his own hand by ruffing a club in dummy. Instead, he sets up dummy by ruffing three spades in his own hand. Sometimes the longest way around is the shortest way home.

Answer: Bid one diamond. It doesn't pay to open in so shabby a four-card major suit as the spades. Devotees of the weak notrump may bid 1 NT to show balanced distribution and about 11 to 14 points.

Point Reyes Artist Showing

An exhibit of 40 paintings by Inez Storer of Point Reyes Station will remain on view at the Triangle Gallery at 1827 Post Street in San Francisco until Feb. 24.

The show includes works in oil, water color, guoache and collage. Gallery hours are from noon to 9 p.m. seven days a week.

Mrs. Storer won first prize in painting and grand prize in all media at the Marin Art and Garden exhibit last year. She has exhibited at Gumps and the San Francisco Museum of Art and has held one-man shows at several galleries in the Bay Area.

She is a member of the Marin Society of Artists, the San Francisco Women Artists Assn. and the rental gallery of the San Francisco Museum.

'Freak Squeaks Of 1961,' Or Some Pretty Daffy Accidents

I-J Special Report

CHICAGO—Traffic accidents on the Island of Bjarkoey, Norway, rose sharply in 1961 to an unprecedented rate equal to 5,000 accidents per 10,000 registered vehicles.

The Arctic island has an area of five square mlies, a population of 730, one road, one truck, and one station wagon, the island's only taxi. The truck and the taxi collided at a bend in the road.

This is one of the tales in an article "Freak Squeaks of 1961," the National Safety Council's annual roundup of odd and unusual accidents. It appears in the February issue of Traffic Safety Magazine, published by the council here.

Water started a fire in Laramie, Wyo. The watter was in a gallon jug in a station wagon, and the sun shining through it ignited a sleeping bag. Heat from the fire caused a gasoline lantern to overflow, adding fuel to the fire.

Richard Matheney badly damaged his car when he swerved off Illinois Highway 460 to avoid hitting a deer. He got another auto to continue his business. A short time later he ran off the same highway and into a fence—to avoid hitting another deer.

Matheney's deer were not the only animals involved in unusual accidents. Mail carrier Buck Henson of Greer, S. C., was trying to shoo away a barking dog when a small boy ran from a nearby house and bit the postman on the arm. And John Honson got two bites for one when he hooked a catfish in Chestuee Creek near Cleveland, Tenn. The 20-pound fish bit him when he landed it.

In Olympia, Wash., a Saint Bernard dog leaped playfully from a pickup truck onto a small auto driven by Marvin Morger. Repairs necessary to the dented hood and smashed windshield were estimated at $150.

The year's most unusual snack was not enjoyed by a Marietta, Ga., housewife. While eating watermelon, she swallowed a yellow jacket wasp which flew into her mouth. It stung her throat on the way down.

Policemen — and women— had their troubles too. George R. Mischner was directing traffic in New York City when he stepped into an open manhole. He managed to grab the edge of the hole to keep from falling 15 feet to the bottom. And Police Matron Albina Jenko in Milwaukee, Wis., dislocated her jaw when she yawned at 3:30 one morning.

Baseball stars added to the list of unusual mishaps. Don Newcombe, former major leaguer pitching for Spokane in the Pacific Coast League, was scheduled to go against Hawaii in Honolulu. He couldn't make it after he received an eye injury when he bumped into a palm tree. And Alvin Dark, manager of the San Francisco Giants, had to have his little finger bandaged after he snagged it on a metal stool he threw in anger after a losing game.

Seventeen - year - old Leland Larioso of Hilmar, Calif., shot himself in the right foot with a 20-gauge shotgun as he demonstrated to friends how he had shot himself a few weeks before in the right foot with a 20-gauge shotgun.

Meanwhile, across the country in Birmingham, Ala., 8-year-old Johnny Hines fell out of a swing and broke his right wrist. The next day he fell while playing football and broke his left wrist.

In Globe, Ariz., Mrs. Lena Berry broke her leg when she slipped and fell while walking down a hill. She was hurrying to a first aid class. In Bangor, Me., a woman described only as being of "generous proportions," got stuck in her bathtub. Two gallant firemen each took an arm and — with eyes averted — tugged hard until she was extricated.

Louise and Ruth Murasky are 21-year-old twins in Garfield Heights, Ohio. Not only do they look alike, but they do things together. Both are nurses, and a few days after Louise cut her right leg on a glass lamp shade, Ruth cut her right leg when a bottle exploded.

Sleepwalking, Mrs. Faith Blakemore, 43, of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., apparently decided to cease being a pedestrian. Sound asleep one night, she went to the garage and started the car. The damage was estimated at $450 to the car and $300 to the garage.

Traffic was tied up a few miles west of Olney, Ill., when a panel truck collided head-on with the car it was towing. The truck tried to pass a semi-trailer truck and ran off the pavement. The car being towed broke loose, spun 180 degrees and overturned in the highway. The panel truck bounced through a drainage ditch, returned to the highway, and hit the car.

Highway signs are intended to help drivers, but Carl M. Gelbke, 34 of Kalamazoo, Mich., found they weren't placed quite right for airplane drivers. Gelbke, a student pilot, crashed in the median of Interstate 94 after he became lost and brought his plane close to the ground to read a sign. His craft hit a high tension wire.

Mayor Harold J. Grady of Baltimore, Md., was handed an appropriate schedule sheet during Fire Prevention Week. One of his secretaries dropped a cigarette cinder on the paragraph which mentioned the special week, and scorched the word "hazards" in a sentence reminding he was to say a few words of warning about fire hazards.

And 14 - year - old Steven Hardina announced he was giving up baton twirling after he shook up Ventura, Calif. With a mighty toss, Steve sent his baton so high that it struck two 4,000-volt power lines. This blocked out a 10-block area for an hour, started a grass fire, and knocked a radio station off the air.

Big things happened in 1961. Maris' and Mantle's assaults on the Mighty Bambino's batting record crowded the pennant races right out of the sports pages, Russian Premier Nikita Krushchev said he could sometimes make mistakes, and a few other things happened. But a lot of folks are still talking about the dizzy things that happened to them during the year.

Steelmen Happy Over Climbing Production

NEW YORK (AP) — This is steel's time in the spotlight. Steelmen are happy over the climbing production and the better earnings now being reported. But many are a bit fidgety about the amount of public attention their industry is getting.

It's nice to be a basic industry—some even call it the basic industry — and know you're that important. It's a bit troubling to be made the example of what should be done and can be done about the wage-price spiral and even the trend of the economy in general.

Many are casting steel in that role this year. The main reason is that the Kennedy administration puts prime significance on the terms which steel workers and management will negotiate in the upcoming wage talks—and on how soon the talks can be concluded. Washington wants no rise in steel prices and cautions labor against demands that might cause such a rise.

Other reasons are that climbing steel production now can be interpreted two ways. It means that the economy is starting a healthy growth trend from the level set when the recovery wiped out the last recession.

If the increased production is largely due to stockpiling against the chance of a strike, the over-production now, followed by under-production while buyers live off their inventories later, could upset the general economy.

Some steel mills say their customers aren't building up stocks as much as was expected. Most mills say orders are still coming in very good volume.

The orders are high enough to assure most major steel users all they'll need for the first half of the year at least, according to the metalworking weekly, The Iron Age.

It adds that steel capacity seems adequate to take care of any more orders likely from those wishing to make sure of a supply during the summer. The steel wage contracts expire June 30, so that any work stoppage would come after that.

Whatever the reasons for the upsurge in orders and in production, the figures themselves gladden the hearts of the steel mill managers.

In the last nine weeks steel output has advanced steadily, with the single exception of Christmas week when holidays were in order.

Mentally Ill Bill Due For House

WASHINGTON—Rep. Clem Miller (D-Corte Madera) today announced he will introduce a bill intended to improve care for the mentally ill by authorizing grants-in-aid to help states train mental health workers.

Miller said his measure is to be based on recommendations of the Joint Commission on Mental Health and Illness, whose six-year study was reported to Congress last year.

"With the nation's hospital beds occupied by mentally ill patients, mental illness ranks as our number one health problem," the California congressman said.

Corte Madera Lions Due Automation Talk

John Burger, Director of the San Francisco Institute of Business Automation, will be guest speaker at the Corte Madera Lions Club dinner meeting tomorrow at 7 p.m. in the Corte Madera Recreation Center.

Burger, who lives at 24 San Augustine Way, San Rafael, is former assistant to the director of public relations for General Mills.

Former U.S. Open golf champion Dick Mayer says "Doug Sanders hits the ball with nervous energy, but the ball usually goes straight."

RESOLUTION NO. 3786 N.S.
RESOLUTION OF THE CITY OF MILL VALLEY GIVING NOTICE OF PROPOSED "HIGHLAND PARK" ANNEXATION

WHEREAS, the City of Mill Valley desires to annex the territory more particularly described in Exhibit A attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference, and

WHEREAS, said proposed annexation has been submitted to and approved by the Boundary Commission of the County of Marin, State of California,

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED, ORDERED AND DECLARED as follows:

1) The City Council of the City of Mill Valley does hereby give notice of the proposed annexation to said City of that certain territory more particularly described in Exhibit A, attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference. Annexation proceedings will be conducted pursuant to the Annexation of Uninhabited Territory Act of 1939.

2) The proceedings for the annexation of said territory have been initiated by the City Council of the City of Mill Valley on its own motion and the reasons why it desires such annexation are as follows:

a) Said territory, because of its location, topography and other features, should be subjected to the planning and zoning regulations which are applied by the City of Mill Valley to immediately adjacent incorporated territory.

3) Said annexation shall be designated as the "HIGHLAND PARK ANNEXATION".

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT ON THE 7th day of March, 1962, at 8 o'clock P.M., or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard, in the Council Chambers, City Hall, Mill Valley, California, the City Council of the City of Mill Valley will meet to hear written protests against the annexation made by any person owning real property within said territory proposed for annexation.

4) That the City Clerk be, and he is hereby directed to cause a copy of this Resolution to be published in the manner prescribed by Section 35311 of the Government Code of the State of California, and said Clerk is further directed to cause such other notices of the proposed annexation to be given as may be required by said section.

Adopted at a regular meeting of the City Council of the City of Mill Valley this 17th day of January, 1962.

EXHIBIT A

Beginning at a point on the existing corporate limit of the City of Mill Valley, as described in City of Mill Valley Ordinance No. 427, An Ordinance Approving The Annexation of Certain Uninhabited Territory, Designated "Buena Vista Annexation" to the City of Mill Valley, the point of beginning being on the Northerly line of the 40 foot right-of-way for Country Club Drive, and the point of intersection of two courses described in said Ordinance as N. 52° 11' E., 44.23 feet and N. 18° 49' W., 114.72 feet, the point of beginning being also the Southwesterly corner of the property of Vincillione, running thence along the existing corporate limit as described in the above referenced "Buena Vista Annexation", the following series of courses:

N. 18° 49' W., 114.72 feet; S. 42° 26' W., 23.9 feet; S. 87° 53' W., 60.8 feet; S. 19° 03' W., 70.1 feet; S. 52° 27' W., 228.50 feet; S. 4° 10' E., 111.80 feet; S. 50° 36' W., 46.9 feet; S. 75° 33' W., 42.10 feet to a point on the Southerly line of the right-of-way for Elinor Avenue; thence along the Southerly line of said right-of-way S. 85° 29' W., 78.00 feet; thence leaving said right-of-way and running S. 33° 10' E., 149.20 feet to the Northerly line of an easement, thence Southwesterly along the Northerly line of said easement S. 57° 19' W., 128.80 feet; thence S. 6° 20' W., 20 feet, more or less, to the intersection with the former corporate limit of the City of Mill Valley, as described in "An Ordinance of the Town of Mill Valley Approving the Annexation Thereto of the Territory Contiguous Thereto Known as "Bolsa Annexation", No. 224, signed and Approved by the Board of Trustees of the Town of Mill Valley on April 30, 1925, the line being described as a "straight line" from the Westerly line of Elinor Avenue to the most Northerly corner of that certain property described in that certain deed from Hugh A. Boyle and Ida M. Boyle, his wife, to Mill Valley Town and Country Club dated July 16th, 1919, and recorded September 22, 1919, in the office of said County Recorder in Liber 207 of Deeds at page 140 thereof;

Thence Northwesterly, 175 feet, more or less, along said "straight line", which here is also the existing corporate limit, to an intersection with the Westerly line of the right-of-way for Elinor Avenue, at a point on said Westerly line bearing S. 0° 06' E., 15 feet from the Southwesterly termination of the course of the right-of-way described as S. 46° 59' W., 119.3 feet; thence, leaving the right-of-way of Elinor Avenue, and following the Northerly boundary of the "Bolsa Annexation", the following series of courses:

S. 85° 29' W., 122.4 feet to the Easterly line of the right-of-way for Hillside Avenue; thence along said last line of right-of-way N. 70° 40' W., 32.1 feet; thence leaving the line of right-of-way for Hillside Avenue, and running along the line of the Rancho Corte Madera del Presidio N. 9° 13' E., 154.3 feet; thence leaving the Rancho line and following a line parallel to the Northerly line of the right-of-way for Hillside Avenue and 150 feet, therefrom, the following series of courses:

S. 85° 36' W., 43.0 feet; N. 14° 15' W., 56.0 feet; N. 62° 13' W., 120.0 feet; N. 17° 37' W., 190.0 feet; S. 75° 37' W., 252.0 feet; S. 42° 14' W., 193.0 feet; N. 14° 51' W., 122.0 feet; S. 70° 09' W., 162.0 feet; N. 50° 43' W., 66.0 feet; thence no longer parallel to Hillside Avenue, running N. 69° 24' W., 235.0 feet to a point bearing N. 5° 39' E., 106.69 feet from the Northwesterly corner of Lot No. 38, as same is laid down and delineated on that certain map entitled, "Map of Bolsa Valley Tract No. 1", and filed in the office of the County Recorder of the County of Marin, in Book No. 3 of Maps at page 51; running thence N. 32° 39' E., 127.59 feet; N. 6° 27' W., 95.0 feet; thence leaving the existing corporate limit of the City of Mill Valley and running N. 51° 36' E., 60.31 feet; S. 38° 24' E., 63.64 feet; N. 51° 36' E., 160.6 feet; N. 39° 09' E., 36.58 feet; thence due North 401.29 feet to an intersection with a line which is the Southerly line of Section No. 20 and 21, said line also being the Northerly boundary line of Section 29 and 28; thence Easterly along said Section line 885 feet, more or less, to its intersection with the Westerly boundary line of the Rancho Corte Madera del Presidio; thence following said Westerly boundary line N. 8° 35' E., 95 feet, more or less, to an intersection with a course of the existing corporate limit of the City of Mill Valley, said course described as S. 40° 28' E., 1,234.30 feet in Ordinance No. 396, "An Ordinance of the City of Mill Valley Approving the Annexation Of Uninhabited Territory Known And Designated As Scott Highlands-Unit One Annexation"; thence along the existing corporate limit of the City of Mill Valley S. 40° 28' E., 65 feet, more or less; thence N. 79° 32' E., 450.0 feet, said latter bearing called N. 80° 00' E., on certain maps and in certain descriptions of deeds; thence S. 28° 04' E., 350 feet; thence N. 49° 54' E., 9.8 feet, more or less, to the Northwesterly corner of the "Country Club Drive Annexation" as described in Resolution No.-3773 N.S., "Resolution Of The City Of Mill Valley Giving Notice Of Proposed Annexation"; thence following the Westerly boundary of said annexation the following series of courses:

S. 28° 32' E., 38.0 feet; S. 58° 30' E., 11.8 feet; S. 47° 15' E., 215.0 feet; S. 27° 08' E., 142.29 feet; S. 38° 48' W. 158.7 feet; S. 70° 35' W., 60.1 feet; S. 66° 03' W., 42.1 feet; S. 69° 09' W., 88.7 feet; thence S. 52° 11' W. 50.0 feet to the point of the beginning;

Nine Students Picked For Orchestra

Nine talented students from the San Rafael and Terra Linda high schools have been chosen as members of the "All-California State Orchestra."

The young musicians will perform in the 140-member student orchestra Feb. 25 at Santa Barbara State College.

Eight of the students are from San Rafael High School and one from Terra Linda High. They are:

"They were selected from more than 3,000 applicants from high schools throughout the state," said Hugo Rinaldi, music director of the San Rafael schools. "We consider it an honor."

The students, chosen by the music faculty at the college, will rehearse for three days before the concert and will live on the campus at Santa Barbara.

Schubert's "Unfinished" symphony and Wagner's "Rienzi" overture will be featured at the concert. The student orchestra will be directed by Dr. Stanley Chappell, conductor of the Seattle Symphony.

County Patients Medical Care On KTIM Panel

"What Now for County Medical Patients?" will be discussed tomorrow at 9 a.m. on radio KTIM "Sounding Board."

With plans for a new county hospital abandoned, the future of county patients will be aired on the hour-long program by Betty L. Presley, Marin County welfare director; Dr. Rafael G. Dufficy Jr., county physician; William Turner, Marin General Hospital administrator and Leon A. DeLisle, county auditor-controller. The program, which will be taped for re-broadcast on Sunday at 12:30 p.m. is moderated by Kitty Oppenheimer.

Questions received by the station via telephone during the broadcast will be answered by panelists.

Teen-Age GOP Meets Tomorrow

Newly organized Marin County Teen-Age Republicans, the TARS, will meet tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. at 93 Marinita Street, San Rafael, President James Heynemann of Belvedere has announced.

Other new officers are William Wardell of Mill Valley, vice president; Toni Banducci of Corte Madera, secretary, and Barbara Johnson of San Rafael, treasurer.

The group, open to all Republican teen-agers interested in the workings of government at all levels, will meet the first and third Thursday of each month. Advisers are Thomas F. Elliott of Marinwood and Mrs. Harriet Duby of Belvedere.

Muir Woods Tours Begin Again Tomorrow

Sightseeing tours to Muir Woods National Monument will be started again tomorrow by the Gray Line, Inc.

A three-month strike of bus drivers, limousine drivers and office employees of the line ended Tuesday. The first bus will leave San Francisco at 2 p.m., according to Asst. Traffic Manager James J. Mulpeters.

NURSES BACK SAFETY MEASURE

After hearing talks by California Highway Patrol members on the safety advantages of seat belts, 14 Marin County school nurses have had the belts installed in their cars. Shown is one of them, nurse Suzanne Kemper of Tamalpais High School, with Highway Patrolman Donald Dowling.

Party Slated For Gate Span 25th Birthday

The Golden Gate Bridge will be 25 years old on May 27—and a birthday party is being planned.

A silver anniversary celebration, approved yesterday by the bridge directors, will feature a civic luncheon with a "national name speaker" and a parade, the date of the luncheon to be either May 25 or 28. The luncheon would be sponsored by the Redwood Empire Assn., said William Hendricks, administrative assistant to the board.

Vintage cars of 1937, the year the bridge was completed, will probably join the parade across the span, Hendricks said.

In other action yesterday, the directors discussed but took no action on preparing a documentary motion picture of the bridge and a monthly bulletin to commuters.

Referred to the finance committee for study was a suggestion from the Marin County Board of Supervisors that windshield stickers be used in place of commute books. The suggestion originally came from the Mill Valley Commuters Club and was relayed to the supervisors by Peter H. Behr.

Sausalito Demos Elect Chairman

Alan Bonapart of 24 Glen Drive, Sausalito, is the newly elected chairman of the Sausalito Democratic Club.

The group also elected a steering committee: Dr. Stan Wolfe, Sanford Autumn, Robert Politzer, Gail Anderson, William Hirvela, Carmen Roberts, Melvin Ury and Ketty Johnson.

Teacher Convention

John J. Burke of Larkspur will serve as registration committee chairman at a National Science Teacher Assn. convention in San Francisco March 9-14, it was announced today.

Burke heads the science department at George Washington High School in San Francisco.

Writing Workshop

The Mill Valley Writing Workshop for beginners and practicing writers will begin a new session at 7:30 p.m. Monday at 207 LaVerne Avenue under direction of novelist Nathan Asch. Further information may be received from Patricia Ripley of 5 Josephine Street, Sausalito.

THEY'RE IN 'SEESAW'

Carol Merson nestles in the arms of Ron Reese with whom she plays in "Two for the Seasaw" which opens at 8:30 p.m. Friday at the Sausalito Little Theater. Miss Merson, who plays the part of Gittel Mosca of the Bronx, was born in the Bronx and lived much of her childhood there. The play, directed by John King of Sausalito and Ed Pilley of Mill Valley, is to run Friday and Saturday nights through February. (Herman Arrow photo)

Scientists Work On Polio 'Birth Control'

NEW YORK (UPI)—In view of the lack of drugs which can do anything detrimental to a virus without harming its host, you're justified in taking a rapt interest in a new one which deprives polio viruses of parenthood without their hosts ever knowing.

It is derived from guanidine which is a constituent of mammalian blood although in very small amounts.

It is found more abundantly in turnip juice, in mushrooms, in mussels and in earthworms. Generally speaking, it is a by-product of natural protein chemistry.

Dr. B. Loddo and his colleagues discovered its remarkable birth control over polio viruses in human, monkey and cattle cells cultured in their laboratory at the University of Cagliari, Italy.

They have some reasons for believing it could work as well in human bodies.

But guanidine in more than small amounts is poisonous to people, especially to their livers. Cautious experimentation has to be the rule. Even with their laboratory dishes of living cells, the scientists were cautious.

First they found out how much of a guanidine derivative the cell cultures could live with and continue to function healthily. Then they began introducing killing quantities of all three types of polio viruses into the guanidinized cultures.

The cells were completely protected. The viruses did not reproduce. To reproduce, a virus must get inside a cell which it then takes over for reproductive purposes.

Presumably the guanidine derivative prevented this cellular invasion. The scientists found it did not work directly on viruses.

Other cell cultures were infected with the polio viruses without being simultaneously protected with the drug.

Three to six hours later, when the viruses had had ample time to get inside the cells and begin their dirty work, the drug was put into the cultures.

In the word of the scientists, the drug "cured" the cultures of polio virus infection. They weren't able to explain it; they could only say it "suggests that guanidine prevents, in some unknown manner, the intracellular growth of the polio viruses."

Mosk Rules Tuition All Right For Crusade

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk has ruled the Oakland unified school district may pay tuition for its teachers who attend a "Christian Anti-Communism Crusade," and may endorse resolutions supporting the crusade.

However, Mosk said the district would suffer reduction in state school apportionments if students were released for attendance of sessions of the crusade unless the students had attended a minimum school day in regular classes.

The ruling was made as to the legality of the school's relationship with the Crusade in answer to questions from Sen. John W. Holmdahl (D-Oakland).

The crusade was referred to recently by Mosk, in a speech to the California Democratic Council in Fresno, as a "traveling circus."

Mosk said the education code would leave to the discretion of the school district "the determination whether the sessions to be conducted by the crusade will prove to appertain to the duties of school employees or to be of sufficient interest to the school district to warrant reimbursing one or more school employees for their actual expenses in attending sessions of the crusade."

Mosk said also that the determination of whether to adopt resolutions endorsing any of the program or activities of the crusade is "a matter wholly within the discretion of the district board."

Unusual Wrecks Damage Freeways

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Not all accidents involve speeding freeway motorists.

The State Department of Public Works reports several unusual accidents have recently damaged highway structures.

A Coast Guard cutter, answering a distress call from a yacht on fire, steamed into the Moss Landing Harbor at Monterey at full speed.

An overweight hay truck knocked down falsework on the Los Osos Road Interchange structure on U.S. 101 near San Luis Obispo, necessitating a four-hour detour.

NEW PRESCRIPTION • PRICES •

Save Money On New Prescriptions. The Listed Prices Are Only Examples of An Added Drake Pharmacy Savings Program.

Still another savings aid has been added to the Drake Pharmacy program to lessen the high cost of hardship caused by illness necessitating use of prescription drugs.

We find, after careful study, that the cost of handling new prescriptions is fractional. Therefore, why not charge according to our cost and regular reasonable profit margin?

The listed drugs will give you an example of the new savings on this type of prescription. This, in no way, alters our other prices. They are still the same and differ minutely according to service rendered.

So we are offering this new service in good faith and urging you to ask our pharmacists any questions about this new program.

New Prescriptions, Cash and Carry, No Refills, No Copies

PHENOBARBITAL	Squibb, 100 tabs ¼ or ½ grain	75c
THYROID	Armour's, ¼, ½, 1 gr., 100 tabs	75c

ORINASE	50 tabs	5.25

New Prescriptions, Cash and Carry, No Refills, No Copies

The drugs listed and the hundreds of others affected by this program must be prescribed by your doctor. They are all of highest quality meeting the requirements defined by law in the dispensing of prescription drugs. Again we urge you to query us for detailed explanation and suggest you watch our weekly ads in the Independent-Journal for additional price listings.

Nine Students Picked For Orchestra

Nine talented students from the San Rafael and Terra Linda high schools have been chosen as members of the "All-California State Orchestra."

The young musicians will perform in the 140-member student orchestra Feb. 25 at Santa Barbara State College.

Eight of the students are from San Rafael High School and one from Terra Linda High. They are:

"They were selected from more than 3,000 applicants from high schools throughout the state," said Hugo Rinaldi, music director of the San Rafael schools. "We consider it an honor."

The students, chosen by the music faculty at the college, will rehearse for three days before the concert and will live on the campus at Santa Barbara.

Schubert's "Unfinished" symphony and Wagner's "Rienzi" overture will be featured at the concert. The student orchestra will be directed by Dr. Stanley Chappell, conductor of the Seattle Symphony.

County Patients Medical Care On KTIM Panel

"What Now for County Medical Patients?" will be discussed tomorrow at 9 a.m. on radio KTIM "Sounding Board."

With plans for a new county hospital abandoned, the future of county patients will be aired on the hour-long program by Betty L. Presley, Marin County welfare director; Dr. Rafael G. Dufficy Jr., county physician; William Turner, Marin General Hospital administrator and Leon A. DeLisle, county auditor-controller. The program, which will be taped for re-broadcast on Sunday at 12:30 p.m. is moderated by Kitty Oppenheimer.

Questions received by the station via telephone during the broadcast will be answered by panelists.

Teen-Age GOP Meets Tomorrow

Newly organized Marin County Teen-Age Republicans, the TARS, will meet tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. at 93 Marinita Street, San Rafael, President James Heynemann of Belvedere has announced.

Other new officers are William Wardell of Mill Valley, vice president; Toni Banducci of Corte Madera, secretary, and Barbara Johnson of San Rafael, treasurer.

The group, open to all Republican teen-agers interested in the workings of government at all levels, will meet the first and third Thursday of each month. Advisers are Thomas F. Elliott of Marinwood and Mrs. Harriet Duby of Belvedere.

Muir Woods Tours Begin Again Tomorrow

Sightseeing tours to Muir Woods National Monument will be started again tomorrow by the Gray Line, Inc.

A three-month strike of bus drivers, limousine drivers and office employees of the line ended Tuesday. The first bus will leave San Francisco at 2 p.m., according to Asst. Traffic Manager James J. Mulpeters.

NURSES BACK SAFETY MEASURE

After hearing talks by California Highway Patrol members on the safety advantages of seat belts, 14 Marin County school nurses have had the belts installed in their cars. Shown is one of them, nurse Suzanne Kemper of Tamalpais High School, with Highway Patrolman Donald Dowling.

Party Slated For Gate Span 25th Birthday

The Golden Gate Bridge will be 25 years old on May 27—and a birthday party is being planned.

A silver anniversary celebration, approved yesterday by the bridge directors, will feature a civic luncheon with a "national name speaker" and a parade, the date of the luncheon to be either May 25 or 28. The luncheon would be sponsored by the Redwood Empire Assn., said William Hendricks, administrative assistant to the board.

Vintage cars of 1937, the year the bridge was completed, will probably join the parade across the span, Hendricks said.

In other action yesterday, the directors discussed but took no action on preparing a documentary motion picture of the bridge and a monthly bulletin to commuters.

Referred to the finance committee for study was a suggestion from the Marin County Board of Supervisors that windshield stickers be used in place of commute books. The suggestion originally came from the Mill Valley Commuters Club and was relayed to the supervisors by Peter H. Behr.

Sausalito Demos Elect Chairman

Alan Bonapart of 24 Glen Drive, Sausalito, is the newly elected chairman of the Sausalito Democratic Club.

The group also elected a steering committee: Dr. Stan Wolfe, Sanford Autumn, Robert Politzer, Gail Anderson, William Hirvela, Carmen Roberts, Melvin Ury and Ketty Johnson.

Teacher Convention

John J. Burke of Larkspur will serve as registration committee chairman at a National Science Teacher Assn. convention in San Francisco March 9-14, it was announced today.

Burke heads the science department at George Washington High School in San Francisco.

Writing Workshop

The Mill Valley Writing Workshop for beginners and practicing writers will begin a new session at 7:30 p.m. Monday at 207 LaVerne Avenue under direction of novelist Nathan Asch. Further information may be received from Patricia Ripley of 5 Josephine Street, Sausalito.

THEY'RE IN 'SEESAW'

Carol Merson nestles in the arms of Ron Reese with whom she plays in "Two for the Seasaw" which opens at 8:30 p.m. Friday at the Sausalito Little Theater. Miss Merson, who plays the part of Gittel Mosca of the Bronx, was born in the Bronx and lived much of her childhood there. The play, directed by John King of Sausalito and Ed Pilley of Mill Valley, is to run Friday and Saturday nights through February. (Herman Arrow photo)

Scientists Work On Polio 'Birth Control'

NEW YORK (UPI)—In view of the lack of drugs which can do anything detrimental to a virus without harming its host, you're justified in taking a rapt interest in a new one which deprives polio viruses of parenthood without their hosts ever knowing.

It is derived from guanidine which is a constituent of mammalian blood although in very small amounts.

It is found more abundantly in turnip juice, in mushrooms, in mussels and in earthworms. Generally speaking, it is a by-product of natural protein chemistry.

Dr. B. Loddo and his colleagues discovered its remarkable birth control over polio viruses in human, monkey and cattle cells cultured in their laboratory at the University of Cagliari, Italy.

They have some reasons for believing it could work as well in human bodies.

But guanidine in more than small amounts is poisonous to people, especially to their livers. Cautious experimentation has to be the rule. Even with their laboratory dishes of living cells, the scientists were cautious.

First they found out how much of a guanidine derivative the cell cultures could live with and continue to function healthily. Then they began introducing killing quantities of all three types of polio viruses into the guanidinized cultures.

The cells were completely protected. The viruses did not reproduce. To reproduce, a virus must get inside a cell which it then takes over for reproductive purposes.

Presumably the guanidine derivative prevented this cellular invasion. The scientists found it did not work directly on viruses.

Other cell cultures were infected with the polio viruses without being simultaneously protected with the drug.

Three to six hours later, when the viruses had had ample time to get inside the cells and begin their dirty work, the drug was put into the cultures.

In the word of the scientists, the drug "cured" the cultures of polio virus infection. They weren't able to explain it; they could only say it "suggests that guanidine prevents, in some unknown manner, the intracellular growth of the polio viruses."

Mosk Rules Tuition All Right For Crusade

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk has ruled the Oakland unified school district may pay tuition for its teachers who attend a "Christian Anti-Communism Crusade," and may endorse resolutions supporting the crusade.

However, Mosk said the district would suffer reduction in state school apportionments if students were released for attendance of sessions of the crusade unless the students had attended a minimum school day in regular classes.

The ruling was made as to the legality of the school's relationship with the Crusade in answer to questions from Sen. John W. Holmdahl (D-Oakland).

The crusade was referred to recently by Mosk, in a speech to the California Democratic Council in Fresno, as a "traveling circus."

Mosk said the education code would leave to the discretion of the school district "the determination whether the sessions to be conducted by the crusade will prove to appertain to the duties of school employees or to be of sufficient interest to the school district to warrant reimbursing one or more school employees for their actual expenses in attending sessions of the crusade."

Mosk said also that the determination of whether to adopt resolutions endorsing any of the program or activities of the crusade is "a matter wholly within the discretion of the district board."

Unusual Wrecks Damage Freeways

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Not all accidents involve speeding freeway motorists.

The State Department of Public Works reports several unusual accidents have recently damaged highway structures.

A Coast Guard cutter, answering a distress call from a yacht on fire, steamed into the Moss Landing Harbor at Monterey at full speed.

NEW PRESCRIPTION • PRICES •

Save Money On New Prescriptions. The Listed Prices Are Only Examples of An Added Drake Pharmacy Savings Program.

Still another savings aid has been added to the Drake Pharmacy program to lessen the high cost of hardship caused by illness necessitating use of prescription drugs.
We find, after careful study, that the cost of handling new prescriptions is fractional. Therefore, why not charge according to our cost and regular reasonable profit margin?
The listed drugs will give you an example of the new savings on this type of prescription. This, in no way, alters our other prices. They are still the same and differ minutely according to service rendered.
So we are offering this new service in good faith and urging you to ask our pharmacists any questions about this new program.
